Summary of Risk Factors

Specific attention of Bidders is invited to the section titled “Risk Factors” on page 34. Bidders are advised to read the risk factors carefully before taking an investment decision in the Issue. Set forth below are the top 10 risk factors applicable to our Company:

S.N.	Description of risk
1.	We are significantly (26.00 % for the period ended September 30, 2025 and 96.33% in FY 2025) dependent on Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO, Dubai based group companies, for procurement of raw cashew nuts. Any disruption in this arrangement may adversely affect our business operations, financial condition and results of operations.
2.	Our Profit After Tax (PAT) margins have fluctuated significantly in recent years (i.e. 0.02% in FY23 → 3.46% in FY24 → 10.90% in FY25 → 11.99% for the period ended September 30, 2025), which may impact investor perception of our financial stability and could adversely affect our valuation and future performance.
3.	Our limited operating history makes evaluating our business and future prospects difficult.
4.	We derive a significant portion of our revenue — i.e., 60.10 %, 59.63%, 62.30%, and 56.94% for the period ended September 2025, for the FY 2025, FY 2024, and FY 2023 respectively — from our top 10 customers. The loss of any of these customers, a significant reduction in their purchase volumes, or a decision by any of them to pursue backward integration could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. Furthermore, we have not entered into any written agreements or contracts with our customers for the sale of our products, which increases our exposure to such risks.
5.	We derive our revenue primarily from the domestic market out of which substantial portion of our revenue from our operations in certain geographical regions especially from Delhi, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in these regions could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.
6.	Our processing facilities are critical to our business operations, and any shutdown or disruption of these facilities may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. Furthermore, as both our existing and proposed processing facilities are located in a single region, namely Andhra Pradesh, any inability to operate or expand our business in this region may have an additional adverse impact on our cash flows and future business prospects.
7.	Our Company had negative cash flows in the past years, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash- flow could impact our growth and business.
8.	Our Company ventured into the export and B2C segment through our brand “Royal Mewa” in FY 2024–2025. As this business line is at an early stage of development, we have a limited operating history in this segment, which may make it difficult for investors to evaluate our past performance or reliably assess our future growth prospects.
9.	We derive a significant portion of our revenue from the sale of cashew kernels which contributed 94.68%, 89.23%, 90.94%, and 83.62% to our revenue from operations for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the FY 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Our inability to anticipate and adapt to evolving consumer tastes, preferences and demand for such product, may adversely impact demand for such product and consequently our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

SECTION III – RISK FACTORS

An investment in Equity Shares involves a high degree of financial risk. Investors should carefully consider all information in this Prospectus, including the risks described below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial, actually occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could suffer, the price of the Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. In making an investment decision, prospective investors must rely on their own examination of us and the terms of the Issue including the merits and risks involved. Investors should consult their tax, financial and legal advisors about particular consequences to them of an investment in the Issue. The risk factors set forth below do not purport to be complete or comprehensive in terms of all the risk factors that may arise in connection with our business or any decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Equity Shares. This section addresses general risks associated with the industry in which we operate and specific risks associated with our Company. However, there are certain risk factors where the financial impact is not quantifiable and, therefore, such financial impact cannot be disclosed in such risk factors. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify the financial or other implications of any of the risks described in this section. Any of the following risks, as well as the other risks and uncertainties discussed in this Prospectus, could have a material adverse effect on our business and could cause the trading price of our Equity Shares to decline and you may lose all or part of your investment.

This Prospectus also contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Prospectus. See chapter titled “Forward Looking Statements” beginning on page 22.

To obtain a better understanding of our business, you should read this chapter in conjunction with other chapters of this Prospectus, including the chapters titled “Our Business”, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations”, “Industry Overview” and “Restated Financial Information” on page 142, 280, 131 and 229 respectively, together with all other Restated Financial Information contained in this Prospectus. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Prospectus.

Unless otherwise stated, the financial data in this chapter is derived from our Restated Financial Information for the period ended on September 30, 2025 and for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, 2024, and 2023 as included in “Restated Financial Information” beginning on page 229.

Materiality:

The Risk Factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality. The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality of Risk Factors:

- Some events may have material impact quantitatively;
- Some events may have material impact qualitatively instead of quantitatively;
- Some events may not be material individually but may be found material collectively; and
- Some events may not be material at present but may be having material impact in future.

Internal Risk Factors:

1. We are significantly (26.00 % for the period ended September 30, 2025 and 96.33% in FY 2025) dependent on Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO, Dubai based group companies, for procurement of raw cashew nuts. Any disruption in this arrangement may adversely affect our business operations, financial condition and results of operations.

26.00 % for the period ended September 30, 2025 and 96.33% in FY 2025 of our total raw material purchases (amounting to ₹3,635.48 lakhs for the period ended September 30, 2025 ₹11,105.76 lakhs in FY 2025) were made from Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO, a Dubai-based group companies and related party, for the procurement of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs), which are critical to our processing process. These transactions constitute related party transactions under applicable laws. We may continue to source raw materials from Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO in the future.

This high dependence on these suppliers exposes us to supplier concentration risk. Any disruption, delay or discontinuation in the supply of RCNs from Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO, due to operational, financial, regulatory or geopolitical factors, may materially affect our production, revenues and profitability. Additionally, as the suppliers are related parties, this arrangement may give rise to potential conflicts of interest with the interests of our equity shareholders and could attract regulatory or investor scrutiny under applicable laws, including SEBI ICDR Regulations, 2018.

Our Company, engaged in cashew processing at its facility in Visakhapatnam, initially procured RCNs from independent suppliers. However, due to recurring quality issues (e.g., high moisture content) and inconsistent delivery schedules, we gradually transitioned to Pajson Global DMCC, which specializes in cashew trading and has been operational since 2014. The proportion of procurement from this entity increased from 3.57% in FY2023 to 36.36% in FY2024, and further to 96.33% in FY2025, indicating a strategic forward integration within our promoter group aimed at improving quality control, production planning and supply chain stability.

Despite the high proportion of purchases from this related party, revenue derived by Pajson Global DMCC from our Company remained immaterial, accounting for only 1.89% of its total revenue in CY2023, based on audited financials converted to INR at the exchange rate of 1 AED = ₹23.84 as on August 25, 2025 (Source: <https://wise.com/in/currency-converter/aed-to-inr-rate?amount=1000>). This demonstrates that while the transaction is significant from our Company's perspective, it does not represent material dependency for the supplier.

Our shift in procurement strategy coincided with operational improvements, including an increase in installed capacity from 8,000 MT to 18,000 MT, and growth in property, plant and equipment from ₹1,849.94 lakhs in FY2023 to ₹2,809.65 lakhs in FY2025. These changes contributed to a significant increase in profitability, with PAT margin improving from 0.02% in FY2023 to 10.90% in FY2025.

While all transactions with Pajson Global DMCC have been conducted at arm's length (supported by a certificate under Section 92E of the Income Tax Act, 1961 issued by an independent Chartered Accountant), the following risks remain inherent in the arrangement:

- Supplier Concentration Risk: Any disruption in the operations or relationship with Pajson Global DMCC could significantly impact our production and financial performance.
- Related Party Transaction Risk: A high percentage of related party purchases may raise concerns regarding pricing transparency, governance, and operational independence.
- Regulatory and Perception Risk: Despite the gradual transition and operational rationale, reliance on a group entity could be perceived negatively by investors or regulators.
- Foreign Jurisdiction Exposure: As the supplier operates from Dubai, we are subject to cross-border trade regulations, foreign exchange risks, and international legal frameworks.

While we believe this strategic integration enhances supply chain resilience and product quality, we recognize the material nature of this dependence. We continue to ensure full compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements and maintain flexibility to diversify our supplier base in the future, if required.

2. Our Profit After Tax (PAT) margins have fluctuated significantly in recent years (i.e. 0.02% in FY23 → 3.46% in FY24 → 10.90% in FY25 → 11.99% for the period ended September 30, 2025), which may impact investor perception of our financial stability and could adversely affect our valuation and future performance.

Our PAT margins have fluctuated materially in recent financial years, with margins of 11.99% for the period ending September 30, 2025, and 10.90% in FY2025, 3.46% in FY2024, and 0.02% in FY2023. The table below sets forth our PAT and PAT margin for the respective years:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	Financial Year ended March 31, 2025	Financial Year ended March 31, 2024	Financial Year ended March 31, 2023
PAT (₹ in lakhs)	1,419.59	2,041.72	335.31	1.67
PAT Margin (%)	11.99%	10.90%	3.50%	0.02%

These variations have been driven by multiple operational and strategic factors, including changes in procurement strategy, enhancement and utilization of installed capacity, variability in raw material quality, installation of machineries from Vietnam and economies of scale, for details kindly see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 280.

While the recent improvement in profitability reflects the benefits of technology upgradation, operational efficiencies, expanded production capacity, and integration of a stable raw material supplier, there is no assurance that such levels of profitability will be maintained in future periods.

Our ability to sustain or improve profit margins is subject to various internal and external risks, including volatility in raw material prices, supply chain disruptions, increased competition, regulatory changes, and other macroeconomic factors. Any adverse developments in these areas may negatively affect our financial condition, results of operations, and return on investment.

In addition, such fluctuations in profitability may affect investor perception regarding the consistency and predictability of our earnings, which could in turn impact our valuation at the time of the Issue and in the secondary market post-listing.

3. Our limited operating history makes evaluating our business and future prospects difficult.

Our Company was incorporated in 2021 and our production commenced in December 2021, with sales commencing in January 2022 following the acquisition of a running cashew processing unit located in Visakhapatnam from Olam Agro India Private Limited, for further information, see “-Details of material acquisitions or divestments of business undertaking in the last 10 years” on page 199.

Given our relatively short operating history, there is limited historical financial and operational data available to assess our performance or to evaluate our future prospects. While we have undertaken activities such as processing of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCN) and white-label branding of dry fruits, our limited track record does not provide a sufficient basis to predict our ability to sustain operations, achieve profitability, or expand in the future.

Additionally, as a relatively new entrant in the cashew processing industry, we face several inherent challenges and risks, including:

- Building and scaling efficient processing capabilities;
- Developing and adopting appropriate technologies;
- Navigating evolving domestic and international regulatory frameworks;
- Expanding our product offerings; and
- Establishing and enhancing brand recognition in a competitive market.

Our future performance will depend on our ability to effectively address these challenges. Failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects.

4. We derive a significant portion of our revenue — i.e., 60.10 %, 59.63%, 62.30%, and 56.94% for the period ended September 2025, for the FY 2025, FY 2024, and FY 2023 respectively — from our top 10 customers. The loss of any of these customers, a significant reduction in their purchase volumes, or a decision by any of them to pursue backward integration could adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. Furthermore, we have not entered into any written agreements or contracts with our customers for the sale of our products, which increases our exposure to such risks.

We derive a significant portion of our revenue from a limited number of customers. For the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the FY 2025, FY 2024, and FY 2023, approximately 60.10%, 59.63%, 62.30%, and 56.34% of our revenue, respectively, was attributable to sales made to our top 10 customers. The table below sets forth the revenue derived from our largest customer, top 5 customers and top 10 customers during the respective financial years:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		FY 2024-25		FY 2023-24		FY 2022-23
	Revenue (₹ in lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Revenue (₹ in lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Revenue (₹ in lakhs)	% of Total Revenue	Revenue (₹ in lakhs)	% of Total Revenue
Top 1 Customer	2,390.92	20.20%	3725.53	19.89%	1182.03	12.32%	1172.37	11.59%
Top 5 Customers	5,370.97	45.37%	8293.40	44.28%	4384.25	45.71%	3886.71	38.44%
Top 10 Customer	7,114.40	60.10%	11,167.32	59.63%	5975.10	62.30%	5,757.92	56.94%

We do not have long-term or binding contracts with any of our customers. Our sales are based on individual purchase orders, and there is no assurance of repeat business or minimum order commitments. As such, our business is exposed to fluctuations in customer demand and preferences.

Any loss of one or more of our key customers, or a significant reduction in the volume of orders—due to pricing or quality issues, supply chain disruptions, customer dissatisfaction, financial distress (including insolvency or liquidation), strategic decisions, or other reasons—could materially and adversely affect our revenue, cash flows, and profitability.

Further, the absence of long-term agreements limits our visibility on future revenues and operational planning. Additionally, if any of our major customers choose to integrate backwards into cashew processing or shift to competitors or alternative products, it may reduce our business opportunities and increase competitive pressures.

Although we are undertaking capacity expansion initiatives, for further details please refer “Objects of the Issue” on page 103, there is no certainty that our customer concentration risk will reduce significantly or that our customer base will diversify effectively. Moreover, increased pricing pressure from customers may constrain our margins and adversely affect our ability to improve or sustain profitability.

There can be no assurance that we will be able to maintain our current customer relationships or acquire new customers on favorable terms. Any such failure may have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows.

5. We derive our revenue primarily from the domestic market out of which substantial portion of our revenue from our operations in certain geographical regions especially from Delhi, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan. Any adverse developments affecting our operations in these regions could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

We derive a substantial portion of our total revenue from the domestic market, with a significant concentration in specific geographical regions, particularly the National Capital Territory of Delhi, Andhra Pradesh and Rajasthan. For the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the Financial Years 2025, 2024, and 2023, our revenue from operations in these regions constituted a considerable share of our total operational revenue, as set forth below:

(₹ in lakhs)

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		FY 2025		FY 2024		FY 2023
	Amount	% of total revenue from operations	Amount	% of total revenue from operations	Amount	% of total revenue from operations	Amount	% of total revenue from operations
Delhi	3,644.21	30.79%	5,186.15	27.69%	2,471.28	25.77%	3,105.09	30.71%
Andhra Pradesh	1,905.40	16.10%	4,264.29	22.77%	2,914.00	30.38%	3,797.13	37.55%
Rajasthan	939.81	7.94%	2,376.71	12.69%	1,346.12	14.03%	1,536.41	15.19%

For detailed dependency on each state, see “Strong Wholesaler Network and Customer Loyalty”- “Our Business” beginning on page 160.

This geographical concentration exposes our business to risks that are inherently linked to regional economic, political, regulatory, climatic, and demographic factors. Any adverse developments in these states—such as unfavorable policy changes, natural disasters, economic downturns, sociopolitical instability, increased competition, or changes in consumer preferences—could materially and adversely affect our business operations, revenue streams, financial condition, and overall results of operations.

Additionally, our dependence on a limited number of regional markets may restrict our ability to diversify risks across broader geographies. While we have established a strong market presence in Andhra Pradesh, Delhi, and Rajasthan, our experience and operational strategies in these regions may not be directly applicable or replicable in other parts of India due to differences in regional market dynamics, consumer behavior, regulatory frameworks, cultural practices, transportation infrastructure, and local competition.

In our efforts to expand into new territories, we anticipate encountering competition not only from national players but also from entrenched local participants who may possess superior knowledge of the local regulatory environment, stronger relationships with local stakeholders (including government authorities, suppliers, and dealers), and greater operational flexibility or financial strength. These factors may hinder our ability to establish a significant presence or achieve sustainable growth in such new markets.

Our inability to successfully mitigate the risks associated with our regional concentration or to expand and scale operations outside of Andhra Pradesh, Delhi, and Rajasthan may materially and adversely affect our future growth prospects, business strategy, financial condition, and results of operations. While our management is confident in our Company's ability to penetrate new markets and diversify our geographical footprint, investors should consider our business in light of the foregoing risks and should not rely on historical financial performance as an indicator of future results.

- 6. Our processing facilities are critical to our business operations, and any shutdown or disruption of these facilities may adversely affect our business, results of operations, and financial condition. Furthermore, as both our existing and proposed processing facilities are located in a single region, namely Andhra Pradesh, any inability to operate or expand our business in this region may have an additional adverse impact on our cash flows and future business prospects.*

Our existing and proposed processing facilities are located at Andhra Pradesh. Our success depends on our ability to successfully process RCN and deliver our products to meet our customer demand. Our processing facilities are susceptible to damage or interruption or operating risks, such as human error, power loss, breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply or processes, performance below expected levels of output or efficiency, obsolescence, loss of services of our job workers, terrorist attacks, acts of war, break-ins, earthquakes, other natural disasters and industrial accidents and similar events. It is also subject to operating risk arising from compliance with the directives of relevant government authorities. Operating risks may result in personal injury and property damage and in the imposition of civil and criminal penalties. If our Company experiences delays in production or shutdowns at our facility due to any reason, including disruptions caused by disputes with its workforce or any external factors, our Company's operations will be significantly affected, which in turn would have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, continuous addition of industries in and around our processing facilities without commensurate growth of its infrastructural facilities may put pressure on the existing infrastructure therein, which may adversely affect our business. Further, in future we may face the spiraling cost of living around our processing facilities which may push our manpower costs higher, which might reduce our margin and cost competitiveness.

- 7. Our Company had negative cash flows in the past years, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash-flow could impact our growth and business.*

As per our Restated Financial Statements, we have experienced negative cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities which have been set out below:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Net cash generated from/ (used in) operating activities	(603.22)	1,612.78	(894.98)	1,163.58
Net cash generated from/ (used in) investing activities	(972.10)	(1,001.05)	(552.82)	(68.44)
Net cash generated from/ (used in) financing activities	2440.39	(155.53)	1,442.63	(1,057.77)

Cash flows of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from the operations of a company to meet capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash flows, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations. For further details, see section titled “Restated Financial Statements” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 229 and 280, respectively.

8. Our Company ventured into the export and B2C segment through our brand “Royal Mewa” in FY 2024–2025. As this business line is at an early stage of development, we have a limited operating history in this segment, which may make it difficult for investors to evaluate our past performance or reliably assess our future growth prospects.

Our Company commenced its operations in the export of cashews and the supply of dry fruits to retail consumers under our B2C white-label brand “Royal Mewa” in FY 2024-25. Our revenue from operations in these segments are as set forth below:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		FY 2025
	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations
Export	Nil	Nil	508.21	2.71%
B2C white-label brand “ Royal Mewa ”	160.55	1.36%	66.13	0.35%

Given that this line of business is at a nascent stage, we have a limited operating history and experience in the export and B2C segments of the cashew and dry fruits industry. Consequently, investors may find it difficult to evaluate our past performance or assess our future growth potential in this segment.

The cashew export and B2C retail sectors involve unique operational, regulatory, and market dynamics, including but not limited to international trade compliance, customer preference volatility, competitive pricing pressures, branding challenges, quality assurance, and fulfilment timelines. Our limited experience in navigating these complexities may result in operational inefficiencies, such as delays in order execution, inability to meet stringent quality standards, or failure to effectively scale our distribution and marketing strategies.

Additionally, due to our relatively recent entry into these segments, we may lack the market intelligence required to accurately assess customer behavior, demand-supply trends, seasonal fluctuations, and competitor strategies in both domestic and international markets. Our inability to effectively respond to such market forces may hinder our ability to build customer trust, establish brand recall, and achieve sustainable revenue generation from this segment.

Should we fail to successfully manage the operational, logistical, and strategic risks associated with the export and B2C dry fruits business, our overall business operations, financial performance, cash flows, and long-term growth prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

9. We derive a significant portion of our revenue from the sale of cashew kernels which contributed 94.68%, 89.23%, 90.94%, and 83.62% to our revenue from operations for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the FY 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Our inability to anticipate and adapt to evolving consumer tastes, preferences and demand for such product, may adversely impact demand for such product and consequently our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We derive a significant portion of our revenue from the sale of cashew kernels. The table below sets forth details of our revenues from the sale of cashew kernels, in the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		FY 2025		FY 2024		FY 2023
	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations
Cashew kernels	11,207.24	94.68%	16,710.80	89.23%	8,722.57	90.94%	8,455.87	83.62

Any decrease in demand for cashew kernels can have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows. Further, any disruption in the supply chain for cashew kernels, such as delays in delivery or quality issues, may impact our ability to meet customer demand and result in loss of sales. While there has not been any instance of any disruption in the supply chain in the last three financial years, we cannot assure you that such instance will not arise in the future. Demand for cashew kernels depends primarily on consumer-related factors such as regional preferences, demographics, consumer confidence in our products as well as evolving consumer tastes and preferences. Though our Company has been able to forecast demand, maintain quality and supply chains in the past. We cannot guarantee that in the future we will be able to identify the factors that may affect consumer perception of our products which includes dietary trends and attention to certain nutritional aspects of foods, concerns regarding the health effects of specific ingredients and nutrients, adulteration, trends towards certain type of products, and trends away from specific ingredients in products.

10. The Restated Financial Statements have been provided by Peer Reviewed Chartered Accountants who is not Statutory Auditor of our Company.

The Restated Financial Information of our Company for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the financial years 2023, 2024, and 2025, as disclosed in the chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page no. 229, has been prepared by M/s Mundra & Co., Chartered Accountants (Peer Review Registration No. 020688), who, although peer-reviewed, are not the Statutory Auditors of our Company. While our Statutory Auditor holds a valid peer review certificate, in order to uphold independence and avoid any potential conflict of interest, the preparation of the restated financial information was assigned to an independent firm of peer-reviewed chartered accountants. Investors should note that the restated financial statements have therefore not been audited or reviewed by our Statutory Auditor.

11. Our Company has entered into related party transactions in the past and may continue to enter into related party transactions in the future, which may potentially involve conflicts of interest with the equity shareholders.

Our Company has entered into certain related party transactions with our Promoters, Directors, Key Management Personnel, Promoter Group and Group Companies in the past which are in compliance with applicable provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and all other applicable laws. These transactions, inter-alia includes, salary expenses, directors’ remuneration, loans taken by our Company from Directors, sitting fees and purchase from group company etc. The Percentage of total related party transaction to total revenue from operations is 36.54%, 62%, 42%, and 15%, for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the financial year ended on March 31, 2025, March 31 2024 and March 31 2023 respectively, for details, please see “Annexure AB” of Restated Financial Statements” under the chapter titled “Restated Financial Statements” beginning on page 229. Our Company entered into such transactions which are at arm length price due to easy proximity and quick execution. Also, the transactions are in compliance with Companies Act 2013 and other applicable provisions. While our Company believes that all such transactions have been conducted on the arm's length basis, there can be no assurance that it could not have been achieved on more favorable terms had such transactions not been entered into with unrelated parties. Further, it is likely that we may enter into related party transactions in the future and such transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest. In terms of the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI LODR Regulations, we are required to adhere to various compliance requirements such as obtaining prior approvals from our Audit Committee, Board and Shareholders for certain related party transactions and we undertake that such related party transactions shall not be done against the interests of the Company and its shareholders as prescribed in the SEBI LODR Regulations. There can be no assurance that such transactions individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

12. Exchange rate fluctuations may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

Our financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees. However, our revenue is marginally influenced by the currencies that we import and export in. A portion of our foreign currency exposures, exchange rate fluctuations between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies, specifically US Dollar which, may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. For details, see “Certain Conventions, Use of Financial Information and Market Data and Currency of Presentation” on page 20. The table below sets forth details of foreign currency exposure as of the dates indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025		FY 2025		FY 2024		FY 2023
	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations	Amount (Rs. in Lakhs)	% of total revenue from operations

Failure to make provision or hedge effectively against exchange rate fluctuations may adversely affect our business operations, financial conditions, results of operations and cash flows.

13. Restrictions on import may adversely impact our business, cash flows and results of operations.

Our business involves the processing of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs) and the sale of cashew kernels in both B2B and B2C segments. We import RCNs primarily from Pajson Global DMCC and Pajson International FZCO, Dubai-based group companies that sources cashews from African countries—Benin, Ghana, Ivory Coast (IVC), Nigeria, Guinea-Bissau, Guinea (Conakry), Tanzania, Togo, and Senegal and process them for sale to wholesalers (such as Mandis and institutional buyers) and retail customers under our brand Royal Mewa, commencing from FY 2025.

Further, our Company has diversified its supplier's base in half year ended September 30, 2025 which includes 7 independent suppliers who collectively account for 74% of total RCN purchases.

During the period ended September 2025 and the FY 2025, 2024, and 2023, imports accounted for approximately 94.89%, 89.21%, 87.51%, and 86.18% of our total purchases, respectively. These imports are subject to regulatory oversight by relevant authorities, who may impose restrictions or deny approvals as they deem appropriate. Any tightening of such regulations may hinder our ability to source RCNs from international suppliers.

Historically, we have relied significantly on import of RCN for our RCN requirements. If any import duties or trade barriers are introduced or increased—either by the Indian government or by governments in supplier countries—it could result in higher costs, reduced margins, and a negative impact on our overall business.

Although there are currently no regulatory restrictions affecting our imports, there is no assurance that this will remain the case. Future regulatory changes, including import bans or additional compliance requirements, could adversely impact our operations. While we have not faced major import challenges in the past, future disruptions cannot be ruled out and may affect our supply chain, business growth, and financial performance.

14. Our business is significantly dependent on our wholesalers and a majority of our revenue from operations is generated from the wholesalers representing 46.93%, 64.08%, 60.05%, and 67.56% to our revenue from operations for the period ended September 30, 2025 and in FY 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. An inability to expand or effectively manage our distributor network, or any disruptions in our distribution network may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business is significantly dependent on our distributors who distribute our products to end retailers. As of September 30, 2025, March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, we had 69, 71, 61 and 65 wholesalers across 18 states, 3 union territories respectively. The table below sets forth details of our distributors across India in the years indicated:

We cannot assure you that we will be able to successfully identify or appoint new distributors, maintain and strengthen our relationships with our existing distributors, or manage our distribution network. As we rely on our distributors for majority of our sales, any one of the following events could adversely impact or result in a decrease in our sale of products and consequently impact our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows:

- failure to maintain relationships with our existing distributors;
- failure to establish relationships with new distributors, on favourable terms or at all;
- any disputes with our distributors, including disputes regarding pricing or performance;
- inability to timely identify and appoint additional or replacement distributors on loss of one or more of our distributors;
- inability of our distributors to maintain a network of end retailers;
- disruption in delivery of our products to our distributors and by our distributors to retailers due to weather, natural disaster, fire or explosion, terrorism, pandemics, strikes, government action, or other reasons beyond our control or the control of our distributors; and
- shifting of focus of our distributors from our products to competitors.

We do not have long-term sales agreements with majority of our distributors and primarily transact with them on a purchase order basis. The absence of long-term sales contracts with our distributors may lead to uncertainties in our sales forecasts and revenue streams, as distributors may choose to source products from our competitors or alter their purchasing patterns without prior notice. Our distributors operate on a non-exclusive basis and may, at their discretion, offer products that compete with ours which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows. Additionally, we extend credit to some of our distributors. If our distributors experience financial difficulties or fail to pay us on time, it could lead to significant bad debt expenses and negatively impact our cash flows and financial condition. The creditworthiness of our distributors may deteriorate due to economic downturns, changes in market conditions, or other external factors, increasing the risk of non-payment. An increase in bad debts or in defaults by our distributors may compel us to utilize greater amounts of our operating working capital and result in increased interest costs, thereby adversely affecting our results of operations and cash flows.

15. The processing of raw cashew nuts involves multiple stages, during which cashew kernels may break, potentially affecting profitability.

The processing of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs) involves several intricate stages, including cleaning, boiling and cooling, deshelling, drying, moistening, peeling, sorting, and grading. A critical part of this process is the deshelling of raw cashew nuts to extract the kernel without damaging or splitting it, as whole kernels command a significantly higher market price than broken ones. Given the delicate nature of this operation, the entire process must be handled with the utmost care by trained and skilled workers. Improper handling or lack of expertise at any stage can lead to an increased percentage of broken cashew kernels. Broken kernels generally fetch a lower price in the market compared to whole ones, and a higher proportion of breakage can negatively impact our average selling price, revenues, and overall profitability. Therefore, maintaining strict quality control and ensuring proper training and handling procedures are critical to preserving product quality and sustaining margins. Any lapse in these areas may adversely affect our business performance.

To mitigate this risk, we have over the years adopted advanced cashew shelling technology sourced from Viet Mold Machine Production Trading Service Co. Ltd., Vietnam, which has significantly enhanced our processing precision and reduced breakage rates. As a result, our average sales Realisation per kg of Raw Cashew Nuts consumed has shown consistent improvement, positively contributing to our Profit After Tax (PAT) margins. Despite these improvements, the processing of cashews remains a labour-intensive and delicate operation, and any lapse in quality control or equipment performance could still lead to higher breakage and lower realisation. Therefore, our profitability remains sensitive to the efficiency and consistency of our processing operations. The following table illustrates the total quantity of RCNs procured and the realisation per kilogram across the last three financial years:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Total Raw Cashew Nuts Procured (in kg)*	1,08,57,994	1,07,64,187	87,06,938	92,74,745
Average Sales Realisation per kg of Raw Cashew Nuts consumed	179.80	147.32	122.15	119.23

*Total Raw Cashew Nuts Procured refers to the total quantity of raw cashew nuts procured by the Company for processing.

Average sales realisation per kilogram of Raw Cashew Nuts is computed as net revenue from operations (which is revenue from sale of manufactured goods plus closing value of Finished good less opening value of Finished good) for the relevant financial year divided by Total Raw Cashew Nuts Procured + Opening Stock of Raw Cashew Nuts less Closing Stock of Raw Cashew Nuts, in kilogram in the relevant financial year.

[#]Please note that in the financial years 2022-23 and 2023-24, goods in transit as on 31st March were not considered in the closing stock, as such purchases were recognized in the period in which the goods were physically received. However, in the financial year 2024-25, goods in transit as of 31st March have been duly included in the closing stock.

This metric reflects the efficiency of our processing operations and is closely linked to the proportion of whole versus broken kernels achieved during production.

16. Our registered office, packaging unit and warehouse are not owned by us and are taken on rental basis. If we are unable to renew our existing rental agreements or relocate our operations on commercially reasonable terms, there may be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be adversely affected.

Our registered office, packaging unit and warehouse facility are not owned by us and are taken on rental basis. For further details, see “Our Business” – “Properties” beginning on page 184. Our continued access to these premises is dependent on the renewal of the relevant rental or lease agreements. If we are unable to renew certain or all of these rental agreements on commercially reasonable terms or at all and we cannot relocate our offices in a timely manner, we may suffer a disruption in our operations, and our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows may be materially and adversely affected. Further, we cannot assure you that we will be able to continue the above arrangement on commercially acceptable / favorable terms in future. If we are required to vacate the current premises, we would be required to make alternative arrangements for new offices and other infrastructure, and we cannot assure that the new arrangements will be on commercially acceptable/favorable terms. If we are required to relocate our business operations during this period, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or have to pay higher charges, which could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

17. The procurement of raw material is subject to seasonal factors. Consequently, our inability to accurately forecast demand for our cashew kernels, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs), our key raw material, are agro-based commodities that are inherently subject to seasonal availability and price fluctuations. These fluctuations are influenced by several factors including weather conditions, geopolitical developments, and variations in local and international demand and supply.

Globally, cashew harvesting occurs during different periods depending on the region. For instance, in Africa, major producers like Ivory Coast harvest between February to July, Nigeria, and Ghana harvest between January and May, while Guinea Bissau's harvest is from April to August while in the Southeast Asian countries such as Vietnam and Indonesia typically the harvesting season is from March to June. Similarly, the harvesting season in India is generally between March to June. This global seasonality makes timely procurement planning critical to maintaining uninterrupted operations and price efficiency.

Due to this seasonal nature of supply, it is essential that we accurately forecast demand for our cashew kernels to align RCNs procurement accordingly. Any miscalculation in demand forecasting or procurement timing could result in either shortages—leading to production delays and potential revenue loss—or overstocking, which could lock up significant working capital and increase inventory holding costs.

Both situations could adversely impact our operational efficiency, cash flows, profitability, and overall financial condition. While we take steps to mitigate these risks through careful planning, the seasonal and unpredictable nature of RCN supply presents an ongoing challenge to our procurement strategy.

18. Any disruption at the port of Visakhapatnam of India may adversely affect our business and operational performance.

A significant portion of our raw material imports, particularly Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs), are routed through the Port of Visakhapatnam in India, which serves as a critical logistics hub for our supply chain. Any disruption at this port—whether due to natural calamities, labor unrest, port congestion, changes in regulatory policies, infrastructure limitations, strikes, political instability, or other unforeseen events—could delay or obstruct the timely receipt of raw materials. While we have never faced such instances in the past, such disruptions may lead to increased lead times, higher transportation and demurrage costs, or even a complete halt in operations if alternative arrangements are not feasible. This could, in turn, adversely impact our production schedules, order fulfillment capabilities, and ultimately, our revenue and profitability. While we may explore alternate ports or logistical arrangements in the event of a disruption, such measures could involve additional time and cost, and there is no assurance that suitable alternatives will be available or effective. Accordingly, our dependence on the Port of Visakhapatnam represents a potential vulnerability in our supply chain and overall business operations.

19. Our business requires working capital. Any failure in arranging adequate working capital for our operations may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

We require significant amount of our working capital for our business and operations. Our success depends on our ability to continue to secure and successfully manage our working capital requirements. We have funded our working capital requirements in the past through a combination of short-term credits from suppliers, internal accruals and external borrowings. If we fail to manage our working capital and other sources of financing, we may have insufficient capital to maintain and grow our business which would have a material adverse effect on business, results of operations and financial condition. While we have not faced any such instances in the last three financial years, we cannot assure you that such instances will not arise in the future.

20. Our business is capital intensive, and we may require significant financing to support our growth strategies and expansion plans. Any failure to raise additional financing could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We require a substantial amount of capital to build, and maintain our facilities, implement our expansion plans, purchase equipment and develop, implement new technologies in our new and existing processing facilities. The table below sets forth our capital expenditure incurred to expand and upgrade our existing processing facilities:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Capital expenditure* towards Property, plant and equipment (₹ lakhs)	1,281.13	653.88	550.72	43.17
Increase/(Decrease) in Capital work in progress (₹ lakhs)	(306.87)	306.64	0.22	Nil
Total Capital Expenditure (₹ lakhs)	974.26	960.52	550.95	43.17
Total Capital expenditure as a % of revenue from operations	8.23%	5.13%	5.74%	0.43%

*Capital expenditure pertains to additions to freehold land, Leasehold Improvements, Buildings, Plant and Machinery, Office Equipment, Furniture & Fittings, Vehicles, Computers and Electrical Installations & Fittings during the relevant Fiscal.

 Increase/(Decrease) in capital work in progress is calculated as the closing balance less the opening balance of capital work in progress for the relevant financial year.

We use a combination of internal accruals, equity investments and debt financing for funding our capital expenditure. If our internally generated accruals are insufficient to finance our capital expenditure and expansion plans, we may, in the future, need to seek additional financing from third parties, including banks and financial institutions despite having outstanding borrowings as of ₹ 4,003.94 lakhs for the period ended September 30, 2025. Further, our budgeted resources may prove insufficient to meet our requirements, which could drain our internal accruals or compel us to raise additional capital. If we are required to raise additional funds through the incurrence of debt, our interest and debt repayment obligations will increase, and could have a significant effect on our profitability and cash flows and we may be subject to additional covenants, which could limit our ability to access cash flows from operations. We may also become subject to additional restrictive covenants in our financing agreements, which could limit our ability to access cash flows from operations and undertake certain types of transactions. Any issuance of equity, on the other hand, would result in a dilution of the shareholding of existing shareholders. If any of the foregoing were to occur, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition could be adversely affected.

21. We have not entered into definitive arrangements to utilize certain portions of the Net Proceeds of the Issue and the costs to be incurred in relation to such Objects are based on the quotations received from the vendors or estimates of the management. In the event of any delay in placing the orders, or in the event the vendors are not able to provide the equipment or services in a timely manner, or at all, it may result in time and cost over-runs and our business, prospects and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We intend to utilize a portion of the Net Proceeds for (i) Capital Expenditure towards Establishment of a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh; and (ii) general corporate purposes. For details, see “Objects of the Issue” on page 103. Our Company has not entered into any definitive agreements with any of the other vendors and there can be no assurance that the same vendors would be engaged to eventually supply the equipment or provide the service at the same costs. For the cost estimates, we have relied on the report dated September 18, 2025 issued by Prashant Bansal, Independent Chartered Engineer (“Project Report”). The Project Report has been prepared based on quotations received from vendors which are valid for limited periods and may be subject to revisions and other commercial and technical factors. Further, some of the quotations are in currency other than Indian Rupee. To maintain uniformity, these amounts have been converted to Indian Rupee basis RBI reference date as of September 16, 2025. The converted amounts are indicative, and the transaction will take place at the prevailing foreign exchange rate as on the date of placing the order. If there is any increase in the costs of equipment, additional costs will need to be borne by our Company from its internal accruals. The completion of Establishment of a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh is dependent on the performance of external agencies, which are responsible for inter alia civil and structural works, installation and commissioning of machinery and supply and testing of equipment. If the performance of these agencies is inadequate, it may result in incremental cost and time overruns which could adversely affect our business and results of operations. We may also be unable to identify suitable replacement external agencies in a timely manner. The actual amount and timing of our future capital requirements may differ from our estimates as a result of, among other things, unforeseen delays or cost overruns, unanticipated expenses, regulatory changes, engineering design changes and technological changes. As a result, there can be no assurance that we will be able to undertake such capital expenditure within the cost indicated by such quotations or that there will not be cost escalations. In addition, the proposed new processing plant will require us to obtain various approvals at appropriate stages including but not limited to Factory License which we may not receive. For further details, see “Objects of the Issue – Government and other Approvals” on page 114. Our inability to procure such approvals or machinery and equipment at acceptable prices or in a timely manner, may result in an increase in capital expenditure, the proposed schedule implementation and deployment of the Net Proceeds may be extended or may vary accordingly, thereby resulting in an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

22. Our funding requirements and proposed deployment of Net Proceeds of the Issue are based on management estimates and have not been independently appraised by a bank or a financial institution and if there are any delays or cost overruns, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

We intend to use the Net Proceeds as set forth in “Objects of the Issue” on page 103. The funding requirement and deployment of the Net Proceeds mentioned as a part of the Objects have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. The proposed utilisation of Net Proceeds is based on management estimates, current circumstances of our business and prevailing market conditions and is subject to a number of factors including timing of completion of the Issue, market conditions, regulatory challenges, prevailing taxation rates, consumer confidence, inflation, employment levels, demographic trends, technological changes, changing customer preferences, increasing regulations or changes in government policies, our Board’s analysis of economic trends and business requirements, competitive landscape, as well as general factors affecting our results of operations and financial condition, which may be beyond the control of our management. Our Company, in accordance with the policies established by the Board from time to time and applicable laws, will have flexibility to deploy the Net Proceeds.

Further, pending utilisation of Net Proceeds towards the Objects of the Issue, our Company will have the flexibility to deploy the Net Proceeds and to deposit the Net Proceeds temporarily in deposits with one or more scheduled commercial banks included in the Second Schedule of Reserve Bank of India Act, 1939, as may be approved by our Board or a duly constituted committee thereof.

Our internal management estimates may not be accurate or otherwise exceed fair market value or the actual costs may exceed such estimates or value determined by third party appraisals, which may require us to reschedule or reallocate expenditure, and may lead us to require additional funds to implement the purposes of the Issue, all of which may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cashflows. In case of increase in actual expenses or shortfall in requisite funds, additional funds for a particular activity will be met by any means available to us, including internal accruals and additional equity and/ or debt arrangements, and may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Accordingly, at this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we will require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of the competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control.

23. Any variation in the utilisation of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior shareholders' approval.

We intend to utilize the Net Proceeds of the Issue as set forth in “Objects of the Issue” on page 103. At this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the entire Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Sections 13(8) and 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, and applicable rules, our Company shall not vary the Objects without being authorized to do so by our Shareholders by way of a special resolution through a postal ballot. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the Shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability to obtain such Shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business or operations. In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake a variation of Objects of the Issue to use any unutilized Net Proceeds of the Issue, if any, even if such variations are in our interest. This may restrict our ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilized portion of the Net Proceeds, if any, or varying the terms of any contract, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

24. Any significant delay in receiving equipment's plants and machineries purchased from outside India could adversely impact our business, operations, cash flows and financial conditions.

In the past, we had purchased certain machinery and equipment from outside India for our operations. Further, we intend to purchase certain equipment, plant and machinery from international vendor i.e., M/s. Viet Mold Machine Production Trading Service Co Ltd, for more details, see “Objects of the Issue” on page 103 .

The import of equipment and machinery from outside India involves a complex and time-sensitive process, which includes manufacturing lead time, international shipping, port handling, customs clearance, and inland transportation. Each of these stages is vulnerable to disruptions, such as logistical delays, port congestion, regulatory changes, shipping backlogs, or delays in customs clearance. Any such disruption may result in significant delays in the receipt of machinery, potentially affecting our planned production schedules and timelines for operational scale-up.

Additionally, geopolitical developments, such as trade restrictions, political instability, or diplomatic tensions between India and the country of origin—such as Vietnam—could further complicate or delay the import process. In the event of such delays, we may face challenges in meeting customer demand, which could negatively impact our revenues, cash flows, and overall financial condition. Moreover, we may not have readily available alternative sources or local substitutes for such specialized machinery, further exacerbating the risk.

While we have not experienced any such delays in the receipt of equipment, plant, or machinery in the last three financial year, there can be no assurance that similar disruptions will not occur in the future. Any such delay could materially and adversely affect our business operations and growth plans.

25. Our Directors, key managerial personnel, senior management team, and other qualified personnel are critical to our continued success and we may be unable to attract and retain such personnel in the future.

Our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. See “Our Management” on page 201. We believe that the inputs and experience of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management are valuable for the development of our business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. Our managerial and other employees are critical to maintaining the quality and consistency of our services and reputation and the loss of the services of our personnel may adversely affect our business and operations. While we believe that we currently have adequate qualified personnel for our operations, we may not be able to continuously attract or retain such personnel, or retain them on acceptable terms, given the demand for such personnel. For details regarding changes in Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management during the last three financial years, see “Our Management -Changes in the Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management in the last three years” on page 219. While there has been no instance in last three financial years where the resignation of any Senior Management or Key Managerial Personnel had an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, cash flows or financial conditions, we cannot assure you that such instance will not arise in the future. Further, if one or more of our key employees are unable or unwilling to continue their services with us, we might not be able to replace them easily, in a timely manner, or at all. The table below provides the attrition rate for our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management for the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2025	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2024	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2023
Number of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management	11	3	2	2
Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management attrition rate* (%)	28.57%	Nil	Nil	Nil

*Attrition rate represents number of resignations as a percentage of closing number of Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management as at the end of respective year.

Competition for qualified personnel with relevant industry expertise in India is in demand, and the loss of the services of our Directors Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when qualified personnel leave their employment with our Company. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires.

26. Our business may be adversely affected by work stoppages, increased wage demands by our employees, or an increase in minimum wages, and if we are unable to engage new employees at commercially attractive terms.

We are dependent on our processing staff for a significant portion of our operations. The success of our operations depends on the availability of and maintaining good relationships with our workforce. Shortage of workforce or disruptions caused by disagreements with workforce could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. While we have not experienced any labour unrest in the last three financial years, which had an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work or our operations due to disputes, strikes, work stoppages, work slow-downs or lockouts at our processing units or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. Any labour unrest could directly or indirectly prevent or hinder our normal operating activities, and, if not resolved in a timely manner, could lead to disruptions in our operations.

Our success also depends on our ability to attract, hire, train and retain skilled processing personnel. Our inability to recruit, train and retain suitably qualified and skilled personnel could adversely impact our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. As on July 31, 2025, we employed an aggregate of 465 permanent employees, of which 449 employees were employed at our cashew processing plant, 11 employees at our Registered Office, and 5 employees at our packaging unit. Approximately 91.18 % of our workforce comprises female employees. For further details, see “Our Business –Employees” on page 179. The following table sets forth the details regarding rate of attrition of our skilled and unskilled employees in the years indicated:

Particulars	As at/ for the period ended September 30, 2025	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2025	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2024	As at/ for the year ended March 31, 2023
Number of employees (including staffs, supervisors, workers skilled and unskilled)	479	417	430	469
Attrition rate* of our employees (including staffs, supervisors, workers skilled and unskilled)(%)	3.35%	22.90%	20.47%	12.50%

*Attrition rate represents number of resignations in the relevant category as a percentage of average of opening and closing number of employees in the relevant category as at the end of respective year.

We cannot assure you that attrition rates for our employees will not increase. Further, we are subject to stringent labour laws, and any violation of these laws may lead regulators or other authorities to order a suspension of certain or all of our operations. We may need to increase compensation and other benefits either to attract and retain key personnel or due to increased wage demands by our employees, or an increase in minimum wages and that may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. For further details, see “-Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations” on page 64. The following table sets forth the details regarding our employee benefits expense in the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Employee benefits expense (₹ in lakhs)	547.91	929.68	791.31	703.83
Employee benefits expense as a % of revenue from operations	4.63%	4.96%	8.25%	6.96%

Additionally, as of July 31, 2025, approximately 228 contractual workers were engaged through third-party manpower service providers for carrying out certain of our operations. While we hire such contract labour through independent contractors, we may be held responsible for paying the wages of such workers, if the independent contractors default on their obligations, and such obligations could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

27. There have been certain instances of delays in payment of statutory dues by us in the past. Any delay in payment of statutory dues by us in future, may result in the imposition of penalties and in turn may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation and cash flows.

We are required to pay certain statutory dues including employee provident fund (“EPF”), employee state insurance contributions (“ESIC”), professional taxes, labour welfare fund, goods and services tax (“GST”), tax deducted at source (“TDS”) on salary and others and tax collected at source (“TCS”). The table below sets forth the details of the statutory dues payable by us:

The above mentioned delays occurred primarily due to technical issues related to government portals on few occasions and other administrative difficulties, and non-fulfilment of requirement related to linking of employee Aadhar number and/or PAN card number for EPF and ESIC. While we have taken corrective steps to mitigate the delays, including assigning and authorizing employees to ensure compliance with stipulated payment timelines with respect to payment of statutory dues, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to such penalties and fines in the future for delays in payment of statutory dues, which may have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

28. Majority of our Directors are or were not directors of listed companies and hence lack of such adequate experience to address complexities associated with listed companies, could have an adverse impact on our business and operations.

Majority of our Directors are not currently or have been not in the past directors on the board of any listed companies. While some of our directors have previously been associated with listed entities in other capacities, we cannot assure you if the lack of adequate experience of being on the Board of listed companies will affect their ability to effectively address the specific complexities associated with being a listed company, which may have any adverse impact on our operations as a listed company. For details in relation to the experience of our Directors, see “Our Management –Board of Directors” on page 201.

29. Any inability to accurately manage inventory and forecast demand for our products may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Our business depends on our estimate of the demand for our products from our consumers. If we underestimate demand or have inadequate capacity due to which we are unable to meet the demand for our products, we may process fewer quantities of products than required, which could result in the loss of business. The table below sets forth details of our inventory and the inventory turnover days for the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Inventories (₹ in lakhs)	6,959.46	1,403.92	2,206.72	2,566.07
Inventory turnover days*	93	48	116	70

* Inventory turnover days is calculated as (average inventory divided by cost of goods sold) multiplied by number of days in a year.

While we forecast the demand for our products and accordingly plan our production volumes, any error in our forecast could result in surplus stock, which may not be sold in a timely manner. Though there have not been any such instances in the last three financial years where errors in our forecasting resulted in material surplus stock or losses, we cannot assure you that such instances will not arise in the future. Our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

30. We have power and fuel requirements and any disruption to power and fuel sources could increase our production costs and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We require a significant amount of power and fuel for our operations. We source electricity from state electricity board. The following table sets forth our power and fuel expenses in the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Electricity & Diesel Expenses (₹ lakhs)	203.33	266.62	221.68	214.65
Electricity & Diesel Expenses as a % of revenue from operations	1.72%	1.42%	2.31%	2.12%

In case the cost of electricity from state electricity boards is increased significantly, and we are not able to pass on such increase to our customers, our cost of production and profitability will be adversely affected. Interruptions of electricity supply can result in production shutdowns, increased costs associated with restarting production and the loss of production in progress. While we have not experienced any shutdowns or other significant impact on our processing facilities due to disruptions in power or fuel supply in the preceding three financial years, we cannot assure you that such instances will not arise in the future. Any significant increase in power price or increased interruptions may require us to add additional captive power generation capacity which will lead to incremental capital expenditure which may adversely impact our results from operations. If energy costs were to rise, or supply arrangements were disrupted, our business, results from operations, financial conditions and cash flows will be adversely impacted.

31. After the completion of the Issue, our Promoters will continue to collectively hold majority of the shareholding in our Company, which will allow them to influence the outcome of matters requiring shareholder approval.

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Promoters collectively held 85.00% of the share capital of our Company on a fully diluted basis. For details of their shareholding pre- and post-Issue, see “Capital Structure” on page 91. After the completion of the Issue, our Promoters will continue to collectively hold majority of the shareholding in our Company and will continue to exercise significant influence over our business policies and affairs and all matters requiring Shareholders’ approval, including the composition of our Board, the adoption of amendments to our certificate of incorporation, the approval of mergers, strategic acquisitions or joint ventures or the sales of substantially all of our assets, and the policies for dividends, lending, investments and capital expenditures or any other matter requiring special resolution. This concentration of ownership also may delay, defer or even prevent a change in control of our Company and may make some transactions more difficult or impossible without the support of these shareholders. The interests of the Promoters as our controlling shareholders could conflict with our interests or the interests of our other shareholders. We cannot assure you that the Promoters will act to resolve any conflicts of interest in our favour and any such conflict may adversely affect our ability to execute our business strategy or to operate our business. For further information in relation to the interests of our Promoters in the Company, see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group” and “Our Management” on pages 220 and 201 respectively.

32. Some of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management have interests in us other than reimbursement of expenses incurred, normal remuneration or benefits.

Some of our Directors, Key Management Personnel and Senior Management have interests in us other than reimbursement of expenses incurred and normal remuneration or benefits. Some Directors (including our Promoters), Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management may be deemed interested to the extent of the Equity Shares held by them. The table below sets forth the details of shareholding of our Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management, as applicable:

Name of Promoter Director	Number of equity shares of face value of ₹ 10 each held	% of the pre-Issue paid up Equity Share capital
Aayush Jain	43,25,000	24.71%
Anjali Jain	50,000	0.29%
Pulkit Jain	1,04,99,995	60.00%

Our Promoter Directors are also interested to the extent of (i) unsecured loans availed from them by our Company; (ii) guarantees extended by them in relation to certain borrowings availed by our Company. For further details, see “Restated Financial Information-Note- Annexure -AB-Related parties disclosures” on page 229.

33. Technology failures could disrupt our operations and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

IT systems are critical to our ability to manage our processing facilities, inventory management, wholesalers network, financial management, data handling and supply chain management, payroll, including attendance and wage calculation for factory workers to maximize efficiencies and optimize costs. For details, see “Our Business -Information Technology” on page 179. If we do not allocate and effectively manage the resources necessary to implement and sustain the proper IT infrastructure, we could be subject to transaction errors and processing inefficiencies. Challenges relating to the revamping or implementation of new IT structures can also subject us to certain errors and inefficiencies, disruptions. Our IT systems and the systems of our third-party IT service providers may also be vulnerable to a variety of interruptions due to events beyond our control, including, but not limited to, natural disasters, terrorist attacks, telecommunications failures, computer viruses, hackers and other security issues. Cybersecurity risks, in particular, pose a significant threat to the integrity and confidentiality of our data, and could result in financial loss, reputational damage, and legal liabilities. While there has not been any instance in the last three financial years which impacted our IT systems which had an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, we cannot assure you that such instance will not arise in the future.

34. Information relating to our production capacities and the historical capacity utilization of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates and future production and capacity utilization may vary.

The information relating to the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity of our manufacturing facilities included in this Prospectus are based on various assumptions and estimates of our management that have been taken into account by the chartered engineer in the calculation of our capacity. These assumptions and estimates include, calculations and explanations provided by our management, the period during which the facility operates in a year, availability of raw ingredients, expected utilization levels, estimated downtime resulting from scheduled maintenance activities, assumptions relating to unscheduled breakdowns, as well as expected operational efficiencies. Actual production levels and capacity utilization rates may therefore vary significantly from the estimated annual installed capacity and the average estimated annual available capacity information of our facilities. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on our capacity information or historical capacity utilization information for our existing facilities included in this Prospectus. Further, average estimated annual available capacity has been calculated on the basis of the estimated daily available capacity for the relevant periods, as certified by M/s Mythri Engineers, chartered engineer pursuant to certificate dated November 22, 2025. Please note that average estimated annual available capacity of a manufacturing facility in a relevant financial year as discussed above may vary from the estimated annual installed capacity in such relevant financial year, as the average estimated annual available capacity takes into account adjustments for actual scheduled and unscheduled downtime during such period. These assumptions and estimates may vary significantly from the assumptions or estimates taken into account by other companies in the same industry, in calculating the estimated annual installed capacities of their manufacturing facilities.

35. Information relating to historical installed capacity of our processing facility included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates and our future production and capacity utilization may vary. Under-utilization of our processing capacity and an inability to effectively utilize our expanded processing facilities may have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

Information relating to our historical installed capacity of our processing facilities included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates of our management and independent chartered engineer, namely, M/s Mythri Engineers, Chartered Engineer by their certificate dated November 22, 2025, including proposed operations, assumptions relating to availability and quality of raw materials, potential utilization levels and operational efficiencies. For further information regarding our processing facility, including our historical installed capacity, see “Our Business – Capacity and Capacity Utilization” on pages 168 of this Prospectus. Actual and future processing volumes and capacity utilization rates may differ significantly from the estimated production capacities of our processing facility. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on the information relating to our installed capacities or historical capacity utilization of our processing facility included in this Prospectus. Further, there is no guarantee that our future production or capacity utilization levels will match or exceed our historical levels.

Our expected return on capital invested is subject to, among other factors, the ability to ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business, our ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs and utilize the expanded capacities as anticipated. The product requirements of, and procurement practice followed by, our customers also affect our capacity utilization. In recent times, we have made significant investments for the expansion of our processing capacities and are continuing to undertake additional investments to increase our existing capacity. In case of oversupply in the industry or lack of demand, we may not be able to utilize our capacity efficiently.

Our aggregate capacity utilization was 47.84%, 86.81%, 86.16% and 91.24% for the seven months period ended on October 31, 2025 and in FY 2025, FY 2024 and FY 2023, respectively. Under-utilization of our processing capacities over extended periods, or significant under-utilization in the short term could increase our cost of production and our operating costs and adversely impact our business, growth prospects and future financial performance. We also face the risk that our customers might not place any order or might place orders of lesser than expected size or may even cancel existing orders or make changes in their policies, which may result in reduced quantities being manufactured by us resulting in under-utilization of our existing processing capacity. Further, we make significant decisions, including determining the levels of business that we will seek and accept, production schedules, personnel requirements and other resource requirements, based on our estimates of customer orders. The changes in demand for their products (which are in turn processed by us) could reduce our ability to estimate accurately future customer requirements, make it difficult to schedule production and lead to over production and utilization of our processing capacity for a particular product. The requirements of our customers are not restricted to one type of product and therefore variations in demand for certain types of products also requires us to make certain changes in our processing processes thereby affecting our production schedules. This may lead to overproduction of certain products and under production of some other products resulting in a complete mismatch of capacity and capacity utilization. Any such mismatch leading to over or under utilization of our processing facilities could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

36. Internal or external fraud or misconduct by our employees could adversely affect our reputation and our results of operations.

We may be subject to instances of fraud, misappropriation, unauthorised acts and misconduct by our representatives and employees which may go unnoticed for certain periods of time before corrective action is taken. Fraudulent and unauthorised conduct by our employees could also bind us to transactions that exceed the scope of authorisation and present significant risks to us. As a result, we may be subject to regulatory sanctions, brand and reputational damage or financial harm. It is not always possible to deter fraud or misconduct by employees and the precautions we take and the systems we have put in place to prevent and deter such activities may not be effective in all cases. Further, we employ third parties for manual peeling of cashews and accordingly, we are exposed to the risk of theft and embezzlement. In addition, we may be subject to regulatory or other proceedings in connection with such acts by our employees, which could adversely affect our goodwill. Even if we identify instances of fraud, misappropriation, unauthorised acts and misconduct by our representatives and employees and pursue legal recourse or file claims, we cannot assure you that we will recover any amounts lost through such instances of fraud, misappropriation, unauthorised acts and misconduct by our representatives and employees. While we have not experienced any instances of fraud, misappropriation, unauthorised acts and misconduct by our representatives and employees in the last three financial years which had an adverse impact on our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, such instances may arise in the future which could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flow.

37. Our inability to adopt new technologies for our processing processes could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Changes in technology may render our current technologies obsolete or require us to undertake substantial capital investments, which could adversely affect our results of operations.

Our Company continuously invests in technology to ensure our processing facilities are well-equipped with the latest techniques. However, we cannot assure you that in the future, we will be able to successfully make timely and cost-effective enhancements, additions or replacements to our current technological infrastructures. Our industry is subject to technological changes with the constant introduction of new and enhanced processes, machinery and technologies. Technologies currently under development or that may be developed in the future, if employed by our existing competitors or new entrants, may adversely affect our competitiveness. The development and application of new technologies involve time, substantial cost and risk. Our competitors may be able to deploy new technologies before us and we cannot predict how emerging and future technological changes will affect our operations or the competitiveness of our services. Our inability to successfully adopt and implement such technological changes may increase our costs, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

38. Our Company has control over the quality of cashews processed by us but not that of the sourced items such as raisins, almonds and pistachios.

While we maintain full control over the quality of the cashews produced by our company, the other products sold under the Royal Mewa brand—namely, almonds, pistachios, and raisins—are procured from third-party suppliers. As a result, our company's direct control over the manufacturing and quality assurance of these specific products is limited. We rely on the quality standards and certifications of our independent suppliers to ensure the integrity of the products we distribute.

39. If we are unable to foresee or respond effectively to significant competition, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.

Our Company operates in a highly competitive dry fruit industry, with a specific focus on the cashew segment. We face competition from both organized players and unorganized local vendors, as well as from potential new entrants who may be more agile in adapting to changing business and economic environments. Notable competitors include St. Mary Cashew Industries, Bolas Agro India Pvt Ltd, Alphonsa Cashew Industries, Gayathri Exports, Kalbavi Consumer Foods Private Limited, Krishival Foods Limited, Prospect Consumer Products Limited and Aelea Commodities Limited.

Several of these competitors may have larger financial resources, wider distribution networks, better brand recognition, or more experienced management teams than us. They may also benefit from greater economies of scale, enabling them to operate at lower cost structures and offer aggressive pricing.

Additionally, competitors—whether through consolidation, cross-subsidization by diversified conglomerates, or aggressive market entry strategies—may offer more integrated or lower-cost solutions than we do. Some may also be willing to operate at lower or negative margins to enter or dominate new geographic or product segments.

We may also face increasing challenges in retaining our market share and customer loyalty if we are unable to match competitor offerings in terms of pricing, quality, packaging innovation, or distribution reach. Furthermore, increased competition may require us to invest more in marketing and promotional activities, which could increase our operational expenses and impact margins.

While we continue to invest in technology, product quality, and brand-building (including the expansion of our Royal Mewa retail brand), there can be no assurance that we will be able to continue to compete effectively in this dynamic and fragmented market. Failure to respond timely and effectively to competitive pressures could result in reduced demand for our products, lower sales volumes, pricing pressure, loss of market share, and adverse effects on our business, financial condition, results of operations, and future prospects. For more information on our business and competitive positioning, please refer to the chapter titled “Our Business” beginning on page 142.

40. We have included in this Prospectus certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures related to our operations and financial performance. These non-GAAP measures and industry measures may vary from any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry, and therefore may not be comparable with financial or industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature computed and presented by other companies.

Certain non-GAAP financial measures and certain other industry measures relating to our operations and financial performance such as Number of Distributors/Wholesalers, Total Raw Cashew Nuts Procured (in kg), Average Sales Realisation per kg of Raw Cashew Nuts Consumed, have been included in this Prospectus. We compute and disclose such non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical information relating to our operations and financial performance as we consider such information to be useful measures of our business and financial performance, and because such measures are frequently used by securities analysts, investors and others to evaluate the operational performance of the industry, many of which provide such non-GAAP financial measures and other industry related statistical and operational information. Such supplemental financial and operational information is therefore of limited utility as an analytical tool, and investors are cautioned against considering such information either in isolation or as a substitute for an analysis of our audited financial statements as reported under applicable accounting standards disclosed elsewhere in this Prospectus. These non-GAAP financial measures and such other industry related statistical and other information relating to our operations and financial performance may not be computed on the basis of any standard methodology that is applicable across the industry and therefore may not be comparable to financial measures and industry related statistical information of similar nomenclature that may be computed and presented by other companies.

41. An inability to establish and maintain effective internal controls could lead to an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

Our success depends on our ability to effectively utilize our resources and maintain internal controls. We take reasonable steps to maintain appropriate procedures for compliance and disclosure. We also maintain effective internal controls over our financial reporting, to enable us to produce reliable financial reports and prevent financial fraud. We periodically test and update our internal processes and systems and are exposed to operational risks arising from the potential inadequacy or failure of internal processes or systems, and our actions may not be sufficient to ensure effective internal checks and balances in all circumstances. Maintaining such internal controls requires human diligence and compliance and is therefore subject to lapses in judgment and failures that result from human error. Our efforts in improving our internal control systems may not result in eliminating all risks. Further, as a result of the nature of our business and operations, we execute a high volume of business transactions. If we are not successful in discovering and eliminating weaknesses in our internal controls, our ability to manage our business effectively may be adversely affected. Any such lapses may lead to an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

42. We have incurred financial indebtedness, also certain of our financing arrangements involve variable interest rates and an increase in interest rates may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Our company operates in the industry which is capital as well as working capital intensive in nature and we fund a large part of our operations through financing from banks, Promoters, their relative, group companies, promoter group and other institutions. For the period ended September 30, 2025, we had total financial indebtedness of ₹ 4,003.94 lakhs. For further information on our total borrowings, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 278. We usually finance our working capital requirements mainly through our short-term credit from suppliers, internal accruals and arrangements with banks. Our ability to borrow and the terms of our borrowings will depend on our financial condition, the stability of our cash flows and our capacity to service debt in a rising interest rate environment. If our future cash flows from operations and other capital resources are insufficient to pay our debt obligations or our contractual obligations, or to fund our other liquidity needs, we may be forced to sell assets or attempt to restructure or refinance our existing indebtedness.

Our ability to restructure or refinance our debt will depend on the condition of the capital markets, our financial condition at such time and the terms of our other outstanding debt instruments. Any refinancing of our debt could be at higher interest rates and may require us to comply with more onerous covenants, which could further restrict our business operations. We are susceptible to changes in interest rates and the risks arising therefrom. Certain of our financing agreements provide for interest at variable rates and the lenders are entitled to charge the applicable rate of interest, which is a combination of a base rate/MCLR rate that depends upon the policies of the RBI and a contractually agreed spread. Further, in recent years, the GoI has taken measures to control inflation, which included tightening the monetary policy by raising interest rates. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

43. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees for loan facilities obtained by our Company, and any failure or default by our Company to repay such loans in accordance with the terms and conditions of the financing documents could trigger repayment obligations on them, which may impact their ability to effectively service their obligations as our Promoters and thereby, impact our business and operations.

Our Promoters, Aayush Jain, Anjali Jain and Pukkit Jain have extended their personal guarantee towards loan facilities taken by our Company. Any default or failure by us to repay the loans in a timely manner, or at all could trigger repayment obligations of our guarantors in respect of such loans, which in turn, could have an impact on their ability to effectively service their obligations as Promoters of our Company, thereby having an effect on our business, results of operation and financial condition. Furthermore, in the event that these individuals withdraw or terminate their guarantees, our lenders for such facilities may ask for alternate guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or even terminate such facilities. We may not be successful in procuring guarantees satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which could affect our financial condition and cash flows. For further details, please refer the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 278.

44. Our Company has availed unsecured loans which may be recalled by the lenders on demand.

Our Company has an outstanding unsecured loan as on September 30, 2025 amounting to Rs. 1,289.43 Lakhs from PP Softech Private Limited, group company, and from our Promoters – Aayush Jain and Pukkit Jain which are repayable on demand. For further details of our unsecured loans, please refer the chapter titled “Financial Indebtedness” beginning on page 278. These loans may not be repayable in accordance with any agreed repayment schedule and may be recalled by the relevant lender at any time. In such cases, we may be required to repay the entirety of the unsecured loans. We may not be able to generate sufficient funds at short notice to be able to repay such loans and may resort to refinancing such loans at a higher rate of interest and on terms not favorable to it. Failure to repay unsecured loans in a timely manner may have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operation financial condition and cash flow.

45. Our insurance coverage may not be adequate or we may incur uninsured losses or losses in excess of our insurance coverage which could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

We maintain insurance cover for our properties, including building, furniture and fixture, plant and machinery stock and stock in process and raw material stock. We also maintain a standard fire & special perils policy, burglary insurance policy, marine export import insurance policy. For further information on the insurance policies availed by us, see “Our Business – Insurance” on page 183. These insurance policies are generally valid for one year and are renewed yearly. We cannot assure you that the renewal of our insurance policies in the future will be granted in a timely manner, at acceptable cost or at all. The following tables set forth details of coverage of our insurance policies against the book value of assets as of the dated indicated:

Period	Book value of assets*(in ₹ lakhs)	Insurance Coverage (in ₹ lakhs)	% of insurance coverage to gross book value of assets
As at September 30, 2025	10027.32	10369.21	103.41%

We could face liabilities or otherwise suffer losses should any unforeseen incident such as malfunction or failure of processing equipment, natural disaster, fire, flood, and accidents affect our processing units. Notwithstanding the insurance coverage that we carry, we may not be fully insured against certain types of risks. To the extent that we suffer any loss or damage that is not covered by insurance or exceeds our insurance coverage, our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected. Any damage suffered by us in excess of such limited coverage amounts, or in respect of uninsured events, not covered by such insurance policies will have to be borne by us. The severity and the timing of such claims are unpredictable. We face the risk of loss resulting from, and the adverse publicity associated with, whether or not such claims are valid. While our products are extensively researched before being commercialized, any adverse effects caused by such products could adversely affect our business and reputation. Product liability claims, regardless of their merits or the ultimate success of the defense against them, are expensive. Even unsuccessful product liability claims would likely require us to incur substantial amounts on litigation, divert our management's time, adversely affect our goodwill and impair the marketability of our products. While we have not been subject to any product liability claims in the last three financial years, we cannot assure you that such instances will not arise in the future. Further, in the event the quality of our products is not in accordance with our standards, we may be required to recall such products at additional cost to us.

46. There are certain discrepancies/errors/delay filings noticed in some of our corporate records relating to forms filed with the Registrar of Companies and other provisions of Companies Act, 2013. Any penalty or action taken by any regulatory authorities in future, for non-compliance with provisions of corporate and other law could impact the reputation and financial position of the Company to that extent.

In the past, there have been some instances of delays/ non-filing/ non-compliance with certain statutory authorities with certain provision of statutory regulations applicable to us such as pursuant to Report issued by M/s. S J Kumar & Associates dated September 1, 2025:

While no legal proceedings or regulatory action has been initiated against our Company in relation to such non compliances or instances of non-filings or incorrect filings or delays in filing statutory forms with the RoC as of the date of this Prospectus, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company in future and we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to penalties imposed by concerned regulatory authorities in this respect. Therefore, if the authorities impose monetary penalties on us or take certain punitive actions against our Company in relation to the same, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

47. We are subject to various laws and extensive government regulations and if we fail to obtain, maintain or renew our statutory and regulatory licenses, permits and approvals required in the ordinary course of our business, including environmental, health and safety laws and other regulations, our business financial condition, results of operations and cash flows may be adversely affected.

We are governed by various laws and regulations for our business and operations. For regulations and policies applicable to our Company, see “Key Regulations and Policies” beginning on page 187. We are required, and will continue to be required, to obtain and hold relevant licenses, approvals and permits at state and central government levels for doing our business. The approvals, licenses, registrations and permits obtained by us may contain conditions. Further we will need to apply for renewal of certain approvals, licenses, registrations and permits, which expire or need to update pursuant to change in name and conversion of company to public Company.

Further we shall be required to obtain several approvals in respect of our new processing unit which we propose to set up from the proceeds of the IPO. While we have obtained a significant number of approvals, licenses, registrations and permits from the relevant authorities, there can be no assurance that the relevant authority will issue or renew expired approvals within the applicable time period or at all. Any delay in receipt or non-receipt of such approvals, licenses, registrations and permits could result in cost and time overrun or which could affect our related operations.

These laws and regulations governing us are increasingly becoming stringent and may in the future create substantial compliance or liabilities and costs. While we endeavor to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, it is possible that such compliance measures may restrict our business and operations, result in increased cost and onerous compliance measures, and an inability to comply with such regulatory requirements may attract penalty. For further details regarding the material approvals, licenses, registrations and permits, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 306.

Furthermore, we cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us will not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. Any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits that have been or may be issued to us may affect our business and results of operations.

48. We are dependent on third-party transportation providers for the supply of raw material and delivery of our products. Accordingly, continuing increases in transportation costs or unavailability of transportation services for them, as well the extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We use third party transportation providers for the supply of raw material and delivery of our products. We outsource our logistics to either third-party logistics companies or as mutually agreed shipment terms as decided with the suppliers and customers. We rely on various forms of transportation, such as marine, roadways and railways to receive raw materials required for our products and to deliver our finished products to our customers. Unexpected delays in those deliveries, including due to delays in obtaining customs clearances for raw materials imported by us, transportation strikes or increases in transportation and fuel costs, could significantly decrease our ability to make sales and earn profits. We may suffer losses due to damage or loss of raw materials and finished products in transit which may occur due to accidents or natural disasters. Manufacturing delays or unexpected demand for our products may also require us to use faster, but more expensive, transportation methods, which could adversely affect our gross margins. In addition, labour shortages or labour disagreements in the transportation or logistics industries or long-term disruptions to the national and international transportation infrastructure that lead to delays or interruptions of deliveries could materially adversely affect our business. In addition, transportation costs in India have been steadily increasing over the past several years. Continuing increases in transportation costs or unavailability of transportation services for our products may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. In addition, our sales and some portion of purchases are indigenous, consequently, we are directly linked to India's physical infrastructure which is less developed than that of many developed nations, and problems with its road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our normal business activity, including our supply of raw materials and the delivery of our products to customers by third-party transportation providers. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our business operations, which could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

49. We have neither commissioned an industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled 'Industry Overview' nor sought consent from the quoted websites. The disclosures have been made on the basis of the data available on the internet and such data has not been independently verified by us.

We have neither commissioned an industry report, nor sought consent from the quoted website sources for the disclosures which need to be made in the section titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page 131. These reports are subject to various limitations and based upon certain assumptions that are subjective in nature. We have not independently verified data from such industry reports and other sources. Although, we believe that the data may be considered to be reliable, their accuracy, completeness and underlying assumptions are not guaranteed and their dependability cannot be assured. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of the information, the information has not been prepared or independently verified by us, or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore, we make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the accuracy or completeness of such facts and statistics. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced for other economies and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as may be the case elsewhere. Statements from third parties that involve estimates are subject to change, and actual amounts may differ materially from those included in this Prospectus.

50. We have applied for registration of trademarks including our company name, and there can be no assurance that we will be able to successfully register the trademark, or that it will not be infringed upon.

Our Company has made applications for registration with the Registrar of Trademark for registration of logos and we are not sure that the same will be registered at all. If we are unable to register the intellectual property in the future in our name or any objection on the same may require us to change our logo and hence may lose on the goodwill created so far. We have applied for registration of trademarks (in various classes). Of the applications that remain pending as on the date of this Prospectus, all the applications current status is "Formalities Chk Pass" and "Objected": (a) our company under the logo under class 29 (b) our company brand under the logo  Known for Quality under class 29; (c) our company brand under the logo  under class 29; (d) our company brand under the logo under class 30; (e) our company brand under the logo under class 30. There can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain registration of the trademark applied for in our name, and such failure may affect our business prospects, reputation and goodwill. For further details, see "Government and Other Statutory Approvals – Intellectual Property" on page 185. Pending completion of the registration proceeding, any third-party may claim on our trademark which may lead to erosion of our brand value, and our operations could be adversely affected.

Further, the same may involve costly litigations and penal provisions if some legal consequences arise if someone from outside use our name and logo of our Company. We believe that our future growth and competitiveness would depend on our ability to establish and strengthen our brand. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to make a lasting brand image with our clients and other people in the absence of a logo. Although, we believe that our present systems are adequate to protect our confidential information and intellectual property, there can be no assurance that our intellectual property data, trade secrets or proprietary technology will not be copied, infringed or obtained by third parties. Further, our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate and may lead to erosion of our business value and our operations could be adversely affected. This may lead to litigations and any such litigations could be time consuming and costly and their outcome cannot be guaranteed. Our Company may not be able to detect any unauthorized use or take appropriate and timely steps to enforce or protect our intellectual property, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

51. Certain educational qualification documents of our Management personnel are not traceable.

However, as on the date of this Prospectus, no responses have been received. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that the educational qualification details of the aforementioned individuals, as disclosed in the section titled "Our Management" on page 201, are complete, accurate, or fully verifiable. Any future discovery of discrepancies in such details may adversely affect our reputation and the confidence of our stakeholders.

*As certified by Statutory Auditor of our Company, through their certificate dated November 26, 2025.

Average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares of our Promoters could be lower than the Price Band decided by our Company in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager. For further details regarding average cost of acquisition of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company and build-up of Equity Shares by our Promoters in our Company, please refer chapter title “Summary of Issue Document” and “Capital Structure” beginning on page 24 and 91, respectively.

53. Stringent food safety, consumer goods, health and safety laws and regulations may result in increased liabilities and increased capital expenditures.

Our operations are subject to stringent health and safety laws as our products are for human consumption and are therefore subject to various industry specific regulations. We may also be subject to additional regulatory requirements due to changes in governmental policies. Further, we may also incur additional costs and liabilities related to compliance with these laws and regulations that are an inherent part of our business. We are subject to various central, state and local food safety, consumer goods, health and safety and other laws and regulations. These relate to various issues, including food safety, food ingredients, and food packaging requirements, and the investigation and remediation of contamination. These laws and regulations are increasingly becoming stringent and may in the future create substantial compliance or remediation liabilities and costs. These laws may impose liability for non-compliance, regardless of fault. Other laws may require us to investigate and remediate contamination at our facilities and production processes. While we intend to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, it is possible that such compliance may prove restrictive, costly and onerous and an inability to comply with such regulatory requirement may attract penalty. For details see, “Government and Other Approvals” and “Key Regulations and Policies” beginning on pages 306 and 187, respectively.

54. Compliance with, and changes in, safety, health and environmental laws and regulations may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Due to the nature of our business, we expect to be or continue to be subject to extensive and increasingly stringent environmental, health and safety laws and regulations and various labour, workplace and related laws and regulations. We are also subject to environmental laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- a) Environment (Protection) Act, 1986
- b) Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981
- c) Water (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1974
- d) Hazardous Waste Management & Handling Rules, 2008
- e) Other regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Environment and Forests and the Pollution Control Boards of the state of Andhra Pradesh.

which govern the discharge, emission, storage, handling and disposal of a variety of substances that may be used in or result from the operations of our business.

The scope and extent of new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted and hence the costs and management time required to comply with these requirements could be significant. Amendments to such statutes may impose additional provisions to be followed by our Company and accordingly the Company needs to incur clean-up and remediation costs, as well as damages, payment of fines or other penalties, closure of production facilities for non-compliance, other liabilities and related litigation, could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations

External Risk Factors

55. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations. The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy.

Our business and financial performance could be adversely affected by any unexpected or onerous requirements or regulations resulting from the introduction of any changes in laws or interpretation of existing laws, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations. Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

For instance, the Supreme Court of India has, in a decision clarified the components of basic wages, which need to be considered by companies while making provident fund payments. Any such decisions in future or any further changes in interpretation of laws may have an impact on our results of operations. For instance, the Government of India has recently introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. While the provisions of these codes have not yet been fully promulgated and notified, we are yet to determine the impact of all or some of such laws on our business and operations which may increase our expenses and affect our results of operations and financial condition. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

56. Governmental actions and changes in policy could adversely affect our Company's business.

The Government of India and the State Governments in India have broad powers to affect the Indian economy and our business in numerous ways. Additionally, change in policies in the countries to which we export, may affect our business. Any change in the existing policies of Government of India and/or State Government, or foreign government policies, or new policies affecting the economy of India could adversely affect our business operations. Moreover, we also cannot assure you that the Central Government or State Governments in India, will not implement new regulations and policies which will require us to obtain additional approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies or impose onerous requirements and conditions on our operations. We cannot predict the terms of any new policy, and we cannot assure you that such a policy will not be onerous. Such a new policy may also adversely affect our business, cash flows, financial condition and prospects.

57. Natural or man-made disasters, fires, epidemics, pandemics, acts of war, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other events could materially and adversely affect our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic disease and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, financial condition or cash flows. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. In addition, India has witnessed local civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic or political events in India could have an adverse effect on our business. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares.

58. A downgrade in ratings of India and other jurisdictions we operate in may affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Our access to the debt capital markets depend significantly on the sovereign credit ratings of India. Any adverse revisions to credit ratings for India and other jurisdictions we operate in by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of the Equity Shares.

59. Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. Demand for our products may be affected by any economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the countries in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports (oil and oil products), global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Also, a change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

In addition, China is one of India's major trading partners and there are rising concerns of a possible slowdown in the Chinese economy as well as a strained relationship with India, which could have an adverse impact on the trade relations between the two countries. In response to such developments, legislators and financial regulators in the United States and other jurisdictions, including India, implemented a number of policy measures designed to add stability to the financial markets. Further, the imposition of tariffs by the US government under its "Fair and Reciprocal Plan" may impact Indian businesses, especially those with a substantial export presence in the US market. This policy has resulted in the imposition of tariffs across a diverse range of sectors. As a result, Indian exporters may encounter heightened costs and uncertainties, potentially constraining their market competitiveness and profitability. These developments, or the perception that any of them could occur, have had and may continue to have an adverse effect on global economic conditions and the stability of global financial markets, and may significantly reduce global market liquidity, restrict the ability of key market participants to operate in certain financial markets or restrict our access to capital. However, the overall long-term effect of these and other legislative and regulatory efforts on the global financial markets is uncertain, and they may not have the intended stabilising effects.

60. Significant differences exist between GAAP and other accounting principles, such as U.S. GAAP and IFRS, which investors may be more familiar with and may consider material to their assessment of our financial condition.

The Restated Financial Information comprises the restated statement of assets and liabilities for the period ended September 30, 2025 and as at March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, the restated statement of profit and loss (including other comprehensive income), the restated statement of changes in equity, and the restated statement of cash flows for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the years ended March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, the summary statement of material accounting policies, and other explanatory information, prepared as per the requirement of Section 26 of Part I of Chapter III of the Companies Act, 2013, SEBI ICDR Regulations, and the Guidance Note on 'Reports in Company Prospectuses (Revised 2019)' issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, as amended from time to time. The Restated Financial Information are derived from our audited financial statements as at and for the period ended September 30, 2025 and for the year ended March 31, 2025 March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023, prepared in accordance with the Indian GAAP and the Companies Act, as amended from time to time, and the other relevant provisions of the Companies Act.

Indian GAAP differs in certain significant respects from Ind AS, IFRS, U.S. GAAP and other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar in other countries. We have not attempted to quantify their impact of US GAAP or IFRS on the financial data included in this Prospectus nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of US GAAP or IFRS. US GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Indian GAAP. Prospective investors should review the accounting policies applied in the preparation of our financial statements, and consult their own professional advisers for an understanding of the differences between these accounting principles and those with which they may be more familiar. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Prospectus should be limited accordingly.

61. We may be affected by competition laws in India, the adverse application or interpretation of which could adversely affect our business.

The Competition Act, 2002, of India, as amended ("Competition Act"), regulates practices having an appreciable adverse effect on competition in the relevant market in India ("AAEC"). Under the Competition Act, any formal or informal arrangement, understanding or action in concert, which causes or is likely to cause an AAEC is considered void and may result in the imposition of substantial penalties. Further, any agreement among competitors which directly or indirectly involves the determination of purchase or sale prices, limits or controls production, supply, markets, technical development, investment or the provision of services or shares the market or source of production or provision of services in any manner, including by way of allocation of geographical area or number of consumers in the relevant market or directly or indirectly results in bid-rigging or collusive bidding is presumed to have an AAEC and is considered void. The Competition Act also prohibits abuse of a dominant position by any enterprise. If it is proved that the contravention committed by a company took place with the consent or connivance or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of such company, that person shall be also guilty of the contravention and may be punished.

Further, the Competition Commission of India ("CCI") has extra-territorial powers and can investigate any agreements, abusive conduct or combination occurring outside India if such agreement, conduct or combination has an AAEC in India. However, the impact of the provisions of the Competition Act on the agreements entered into by us cannot be predicted with certainty at this stage. In the event we pursue an acquisition in the future, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, or any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, or any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI or if any prohibition or substantial penalties are levied under the Competition Act, it would adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. The manner in which the Competition Act and the CCI affect the business environment in India may also adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

If we pursue acquisition transactions in the future, we may be affected, directly or indirectly, by the application or interpretation of any provision of the Competition Act, any enforcement proceedings initiated by the CCI, any adverse publicity that may be generated due to scrutiny or prosecution by the CCI, or any prohibition or substantial penalties levied under the Competition Act, which would adversely affect our business, results of our operations, cash flows and prospects.

62. The Indian tax regime has undergone substantial changes which could adversely affect our business and the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any change in Indian tax laws could have an effect on our operations. For instance, the Income Tax Act, 1961 (“IT Act”) was amended to provide domestic companies an option to pay corporate income tax at the effective rate of 25.17% (inclusive of applicable surcharge and health and education cess), as compared to an effective rate of 34.94% (inclusive of applicable surcharge and health and education cess), provided such companies do not claim certain specified deductions or exemptions. Further, where a company has opted to pay the reduced corporate tax rate under Section 115BAA of the IT Act, the minimum alternate tax (“MAT”) provisions are not applicable. However, companies opting for the reduced tax regime are not eligible to utilize their accumulated MAT credit entitlement against future tax liabilities, which could result in a write-off of such MAT. If there is significant MAT credit unutilized, it may adversely affect our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operation. Any such amendments may affect our ability to claim exemptions that we have historically benefited from, and such exemptions may no longer be available to us. Further, with the implementation of the goods and services tax (“GST”) regime in India, we are obligated to pass on any benefits accruing to us as result of the transition to GST to the consumer, which limits our benefits. In order for us to utilise input credit under GST, the entire value chain has to be GST compliant. There can be no assurance that our suppliers and dealers will be compliant with GST requirements. Any such failure may result in us incurring increased costs on account of non-compliance and may adversely affect our business, cash flows and results of operations. Earlier, distribution of dividends by a domestic company was subject to Dividend Distribution Tax (“DDT”), in the hands of the company at an effective rate of 20.56% (inclusive of applicable surcharge and cess). Such dividends were generally exempt from tax in the hands of the shareholders. However, the GoI has amended the Income-tax Act, 1961 (“IT Act”) to abolish the DDT regime. Accordingly, any dividend distribution by a domestic company is subject to tax in the hands of the investor at the applicable rate. Additionally, the Company is required to withhold tax on such dividends distributed at the applicable rate.

Further, the Government of India announced the union budget for Fiscal 2026, following which the Finance Bill, 2025 was introduced in the Lok Sabha on February 1, 2025. The Finance Bill, 2025 received assent from the President of India on March 29, 2025 was enacted as the Finance Act, 2025. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors and to carefully consider the potential tax consequences of owning, investing or trading in the Equity Shares. There is no certainty on the impact that the Finance Act, 2025 may have on our business and operations or on the industry in which we operate. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may affect the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

Additionally, the Union Cabinet, Government of India has recently approved the Income Tax Bill, 2025 which inter alia, proposes to amend the income tax regime and replace the Income Tax Act, 1961. There is no certainty on the impact of the Income Tax Bill, 2025, once enacted, on tax laws or other regulations, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations or on the industry in which we operate.

We cannot predict whether any new tax laws or regulations impacting our services will be enacted, what the nature and impact of the specific terms of any such laws or regulations will be or whether if at all, any laws or regulations would have an adverse effect on our business. Further, any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability. In addition, we are subject to tax related inquiries and claims.

63. If inflation were to rise in India, we might not be able to increase the prices of our products at a proportional rate in order to pass costs on to our customers thereby reducing our margins.

Inflation rates in India have been volatile in recent years, and such volatility may continue in the future. India has experienced high inflation in the recent past. Increased inflation can contribute to an increase in interest rates and increased costs to our business, including increased costs of wages and other expenses. High fluctuations in inflation rates may make it more difficult for us to accurately estimate or control our costs. Any increase in inflation in India can increase our expenses, which we may not be able to adequately pass on to our consumers, whether entirely or in part, and may adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. In particular, we might not be able to reduce our costs or increase the price of our products to pass the increase in costs on to our consumers. In such case, our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition may be adversely affected. Further, the Government of India has previously initiated economic measures to combat high inflation rates, and it is unclear whether these measures will remain in effect. There can be no assurance that Indian inflation levels will not worsen in the future.

64. The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Issue Price, price to earnings ratio and market capitalization to revenue multiple based on the Issue Price of our Company, may not be indicative of the market price of the Company on listing or thereafter.

Our revenue from operations for the period ended September 30, 2025 was ₹ 11,837.07 lakhs and profit was ₹ 1,419.59 lakhs. The table below provides details of our price to earnings ratio and market capitalization to revenue from operations at the upper end of the Price Band:

Particulars	Price to Earnings Ratio	Market Capitalization to Revenue
For Financial Year 2025	10.11	1.50

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions, and will be determined by our Company in consultation with the BRLM. The relevant financial parameters based on which the Price Band will be determined shall be disclosed in the advertisement that will be issued for the publication of the Price Band. Further, the Issue Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined on the basis of assessment of market demand for the Equity Shares issued through the book-building process prescribed under the SEBI ICDR Regulations, and certain quantitative and qualitative factors as set out in the section “Basis for the Issue Price” on page 118 and the Issue Price, multiples and ratios may not be indicative of the market price of the Company on listing or thereafter.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares.

The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, announcements by third parties or governmental entities of significant claims or proceedings against us, volatility in the securities markets in India and other jurisdictions, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors. As a result, we cannot assure you that an active market will develop or sustained trading will take place in the Equity Shares or provide any assurance regarding the price at which the Equity Shares will be traded after listing. Further, the market price of the Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

65. Pursuant to listing of the Equity Shares, we may be subject to pre-emptive surveillance measures like Additional Surveillance Measure (“ASM”) and Graded Surveillance Measures (“GSM”) by the BSE in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard the interest of investors.

SEBI and BSE in order to enhance market integrity and safeguard interest of investors, have been introducing various enhanced pre-emptive surveillance measures. The main objective of these measures is to alert and advise investors to be extra cautious while dealing in these securities and advice market participants to carry out necessary due diligence while dealing in these securities. Accordingly, SEBI and BSE have provided for (a) GSM on securities where such trading price of such securities does not commensurate with financial health and fundamentals such as earnings, book value, fixed assets, net-worth, price per equity multiple and market capitalization; and (b) ASM on securities with surveillance concerns based on objective parameters such as price and volume variation and volatility.

On listing, we may be subject to general market conditions which may include significant price and volume fluctuations. The price of our Equity Shares may also fluctuate after the Issue due to several factors such as volatility in the Indian and global securities market, our profitability and performance, performance of our competitors, changes in the estimates of our performance or any other political or economic factor. The occurrence of any of the abovementioned factors may trigger the parameters identified by SEBI and the BSE for placing securities under the GSM or ASM framework such as net worth and net fixed assets of securities, high low variation in securities, client concentration and close to close price variation.

In the event our Equity Shares are covered under such pre-emptive surveillance measures implemented by SEBI and the Stock Exchanges, we may be subject to certain additional restrictions in relation to trading of our Equity Shares such as limiting trading frequency (for example, trading either allowed once in a week or a month) or freezing of price on upper side of trading which may have an adverse effect on the market price of our Equity Shares or may in general cause disruptions in the development of an active market for and trading of our Equity Shares.

66. Our Company may not be able to pay dividends in the future. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, profit after tax available for distribution, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditure and the terms of our financing arrangements.

Any dividends to be declared and paid in the future are required to be recommended by our Company's Board of Directors and approved by its Shareholders, at their discretion, subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association and applicable law, including the Companies Act, 2013. Our Company's ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future results of operations, financial condition, profit after tax available for distribution, cash flows, sufficient profitability, working capital requirements and capital expenditure requirements. We cannot assure you that we will generate sufficient revenues to cover our operating expenses and, as such, pay dividends to our Company's shareholders in future consistent with our past practices, or at all. We have not declared any dividends on the Equity Shares during the last three financial years and during the period from April 1, 2025, until the date of this Prospectus. For information pertaining to dividend policy, see "Dividend Policy" on page 228.

67. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and the Issue may not result in an active or liquid market for the Equity Shares. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and the investors may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price, or at all.

Prior to the Issue, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the stock exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Issue. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Our Equity Shares are expected to trade on BSE SME after the Issue, but there can be no assurance that active trading in our Equity Shares will develop after the Issue, or if such trading develops that it will continue. Investors may not be able to sell our Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in our Equity Shares. There has been significant volatility in the Indian stock markets in the recent past, and the trading price of our Equity Shares after the Issue could fluctuate significantly as a result of market volatility or due to various internal or external risks, including but not limited to those described in this Prospectus. The market price of our Equity Shares may be influenced by many factors, some of which are beyond our control, including, among others:

- the failure of security analysts to cover the Equity Shares after the Issue, or changes in the estimates of our performance by analysts;
- the activities of competitors and suppliers;
- future sales of the Equity Shares by us or our Shareholders;
- investor perception of us and the industry in which we operate;
- changes in accounting standards, policies, guidance, interpretations of principles;
- our quarterly or annual earnings or those of our competitors; •developments affecting fiscal, industrial or environmental regulations; and
- the public's reaction to our press releases and adverse media reports.

A decrease in the market price of our Equity Shares could cause you to lose some or all of your investment.

68. Investors may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of income arising on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company is generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax (“STT”) is levied both at the time of transfer and acquisition of the equity shares (unless exempted under a prescribed notification), and the STT is collected by an Indian stock exchange on which the equity shares are sold. Any capital gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on a recognised stock exchange held for more than 12 months immediately preceding the date of transfer will be subject to long term capital gains in India at the specified rates depending on certain factors, such as whether the sale is undertaken on or off the recognised stock exchanges, the quantum of gains, and any available treaty relief.

Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Further, any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India. While non-residents may claim tax treaty benefits in relation to such capital gains income, generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's right to impose tax on capital gains arising from the sale of shares of an Indian company.

In terms of the Finance Act, 2024, with effect from July 23, 2024, taxes payable by an assessee on the capital gains arising from transfer of long-term capital assets (introduced as Section 112A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961) shall be calculated on such long-term capital gains at the rate of 12.50%, where the long-term capital gains exceed ₹125,000, subject to certain exceptions in case of resident individuals and Hindu Undivided Families. The stamp duty for transfer of certain securities, other than debentures, on a delivery basis is currently specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount.

The Finance Bill, 2025 received assent from the President of India on March 29, 2025 was enacted as the Finance Act, 2025. Additionally, the Union Cabinet, Government of India has recently approved the Income Tax Bill, 2025 which inter alia, proposes to amend the income tax regime and replace the Income Tax Act, 1961. We cannot predict whether the amendments proposed to be made pursuant to the Finance Act, 2025 or the proposed Income Tax Act would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, future cash flows and results of operations. Unfavorable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

69. Investors will not be able to sell immediately on an Indian stock exchange any of the Equity Shares they purchase in the Issue.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the BSE SME. Pursuant to applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. The Allotment and transfer of Equity Shares in this Issue and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with depository participant could take approximately two Working Days from the Bid Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within three Working Days of the Bid Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in the listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise any delay in commencing trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We may also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

70. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked instruments by us may dilute your shareholding and sale of Equity Shares by shareholders with significant shareholding may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity issuing. Any future equity issuances by us, including a primary issuing of Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by our shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through issuing of our Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. Any disposal of Equity Shares by our major shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur, including to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through issuing of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. There can be no assurance that we will not issue Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to Equity Shares or that our Shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of your investment in the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of our Equity Shares.

71. Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to compliance with sectoral norms and certain other restrictions), if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then a prior approval of the RBI will be required. Further, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of the Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. As provided in the foreign exchange controls currently in effect in India, the RBI has provided that the price at which the Equity Shares are transferred be calculated in accordance with internationally accepted pricing methodology for the valuation of shares at an arm's length basis, and a higher (or lower, as applicable) price per share may not be permitted. We cannot assure investors that any required approval from the RBI or any other Indian government agency can be obtained on any particular terms, or at all. Further, due to possible delays in obtaining requisite approvals, investors in the Equity Shares may be prevented from realizing gains during periods of price increase or limiting losses during periods of price decline.

In addition, pursuant to the Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020, issued by the DPIIT, which has been incorporated as the proviso to Rule 6(a) of the FEMA Non-debt Rules, all investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country or where the beneficial owner of the Equity Shares is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, can only be made through the Government approval route, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy dated October 15, 2020 and the FEMA Rules. While the term "beneficial owner" is defined under the Prevention of Money-Laundering (Maintenance of Records) Rules, 2005 and the General Financial Rules, 2017, neither the foreign direct investment policy nor the FEMA Rules provide a definition of the term "beneficial owner". The interpretation of "beneficial owner" and enforcement of this regulatory change involves certain uncertainties, which may have an adverse effect on our ability to raise foreign capital. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India. These investment restrictions shall also apply to subscribers of offshore derivative instruments. Additionally, there is uncertainty regarding the timeline within which the said approval from the GoI may be obtained, if at all.

For further information, see "Restrictions on Foreign Ownership of Indian Securities" on page 372.

72. QIBs and Non-Institutional Bidders are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after the submission of their Bid, and Individual Bidders are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after closure of the Bid/ Issue Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and NIBs are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Individual Bidders can revise their Bids during the Bid/ Issue Period and withdraw their Bids until the Bid/ Issue Closing Date. While we are required to complete all necessary formalities for listing and commencement of trading of the Equity Shares on BSE SME where such Equity Shares are proposed to be listed, including Allotment, within three Working Days from the Bid/ Issue Closing Date or such other period as may be prescribed by the SEBI, events affecting the investors' decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations, cashflows or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment.

73. Rights of shareholders of companies under Indian law may be different compared to the laws of other jurisdictions.

Our Articles of Association, composition of our Board, Indian laws governing our corporate affairs, the validity of corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties, responsibilities and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights under Indian law may not be as extensive and widespread as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may face challenges in asserting their rights as a shareholder in an Indian company than as a shareholder of an entity in another jurisdiction.

Details of the Objects of the Issue

1. Capital Expenditure towards Establishment of a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh

Our Company is engaged in the processing of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs) into finished cashew kernels, catering to both domestic and international markets. Our product portfolio primarily includes a wide range of graded cashew kernels, which are processed, packaged, and supplied in bulk quantities as well as in consumer-oriented retail packaging. Additionally, we market select dry fruits under our white-label brand, "Royal Mewa," through a combination of e-commerce platforms and offline distribution networks. As part of our integrated processing operations, we also generate and supply by-products such as cashew husk and cashew nut shells, which are widely used in agricultural and industrial applications. These by-products contribute to enhanced value realization and operational efficiency. In the year 2021, as part of a strategic acquisition, our Company acquired a cashew processing plant located at Survey No. 11/1, 11/2, 13/1, 13/2, Janakiramapuram, Rolugunta, Anakapalli, Andhra Pradesh – 531114, from Olam Agro India Private Limited. At the time of acquisition, the plant had a processing capacity of 7,000 Metric Tonnes per annum (MTPA). Through systematic investments in technology and infrastructure, the capacity was increased to 12,000 MTPA in FY 2025, and the current installed capacity stands at 18,000 MTPA. From April 2025 to October 31, 2025, we have utilized approximately 47.84% of our installed capacity. When annualized proportionately, this reflects a utilization rate of 82.01% for the year, as certified by Chartered Engineer Mythri Raviteja vide certificate dated November 22, 2025.

To meet the growing market demand and strengthen our processing capabilities, our Company proposes to establish a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Survey Nos. 34 Part, 35 Part, 37 Part, 89 Part, and 93 Part, Ayyanna Agraaharam, Bondapalli, Vizianagaram – 535003, Andhra Pradesh. The total land area for the proposed facility measures approximately 7,73,190.00 square feet, including roads, of which 6,95,653.20 square feet will be utilized for the processing facility. This expansion will significantly enhance our overall processing capacity of cashew kernels and is expected to contribute meaningfully to the Company's revenue growth and profitability. The project involves expenditure towards civil construction and procurement and installation of advanced Plant and Machinery aggregating to approximately ₹ 7,488.19 Lakhs. The same shall be funded through a combination of Net Proceeds from the Issue and internal accruals. We believe that this investment will not only augment our installed capacity but also enable us to capitalize on the rising demand for processed cashew products. Furthermore, it will align our operations with evolving technological benchmarks in the cashew processing industry, improve operational efficiency, and reinforce our market position.

Our Board in its meeting dated September 18, 2025, took note that an amount of ₹ 5,700.00 Lakhs is proposed to be utilised from the net proceeds for establishment of Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh.

Objectives and benefits of Capital Expenditure towards Establishment of a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh:

- Capacity Expansion to Meet Growing Demand: From April 2025 to October 31, 2025, we have utilized approximately 47.84% of our installed capacity. When annualized proportionately, this reflects a utilization rate of 82.01% for the year, as certified by Chartered Engineer Mythri Raviteja vide certificate dated November 22, 2025. To address the increasing demand from both existing and new customers, we aim to enhance our processing capacity. This capital expenditure will allow us to scale production of our existing product portfolio, improve supply capabilities, and strengthen our market position in response to growing industry demand.
- Strategic Location Selection – Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh: We have strategically chosen Vizianagaram for our second manufacturing facility due to a combination of operational, logistical, and cost advantages. Vizianagaram has a long-standing history in cashew processing, with a workforce already experienced in the industry. While many smaller factories have closed in recent years, this has created a readily available, trained labor pool—enabling us to scale up operations quickly and efficiently. Labour costs in Vizianagaram are significantly lower compared to other regions, directly contributing to improved cost efficiency and operational margins. The district currently sees minimal influence from labor and transport unions, reducing the risk of external disruptions and supporting smoother, uninterrupted operations. The region continues to produce a sizeable cashew crop, which strengthens local sourcing opportunities and supports long-term supply chain stability. Further, the plant will be located near Vizianagaram city and approximately 40 km from the upcoming Visakhapatnam International Airport, further enhancing logistical efficiency and positioning us well for future domestic and international expansion.
- Operational Risk Mitigation and Synergy The new facility will be situated approximately 140 km from our existing plant in Anakapalli, in a different district and village. This geographical distribution allows for operational resilience—any localized disruptions, such as labor shortages in one area, are unlikely to impact both plants simultaneously. Additionally, the proximity enables efficient resource sharing, coordinated management, and operational synergy between the two plants.

- Enhanced Business Continuity and Scalability: By investing in a second facility, we are laying the groundwork for greater business continuity and scalability. The added capacity ensures that we can handle seasonal fluctuations, unexpected demand spikes, or future expansion into new product lines without operational strain.
- Contribution to Topline and Bottom-Line Growth The expansion is expected to drive topline growth through increased sales capacity, entry into new markets, and enhanced customer fulfillment capabilities. Simultaneously, improved economies of scale, cost-efficient operations, and risk mitigation strategies will lead to stronger bottom-line performance—supporting sustainable and profitable growth
- Support for Regional Development and ESG Goals: Setting up the facility in Vizianagaram contributes to regional economic development through job creation and rural upliftment. It also aligns with our Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) goals by promoting decentralized growth and reducing the carbon footprint associated with raw material transportation.

The cost of Establishment of a Second Cashew Processing Facility at Vizianagaram, Andhra Pradesh includes expenditure towards land development, civil and structural work, plant and machinery processing, quality control, and utilities, taxes, installation charges etc. The total estimated cost for the proposed expansion is ₹ 7,488.19 lakhs, as estimated by our management based on quotations received from vendors, and Project Report dated September 18, 2025, issued by M/s Prashant Bansal, Independent Chartered Engineer, Registration Number AM3054163.

We propose to construct our second cashew processing facility at Survey Nos. 34 Part, 35 Part, 37 Part, 89 Part, and 93 Part located in Ayyanna Agraharam, Bondapalli, Vizianagaram-535003, Andhra Pradesh.

The facility will encompass a comprehensive range of civil and construction works including Administrative Office, Security & Time Office, and an Occupational Health Centre (OHC) Block, Creche, Record Room, Staff Dining Area, Kitchen, Workers' Canteen, and Rest Room, along with essential utilities such as the Power Room, Engineering Store & Workshop, and a Fire Hydrant Tank. Operational areas will include the PP Segregation & Grading Unit, Boiler & RO Plant, Compressor Shed, and Toilet Block. Further, dedicated spaces are planned for the Shell Inspection Shed, Shelling, Borma, Humidification, Peeling & Grading Shed, and a Production area. We are also building the RCN Unloading Area, RCN Storage, and RCN Godown to facilitate smooth material handling. Additionally, a Grading, Pasteurization & Cooling Conveyors Shed will be developed to support post-processing activities. A Packing and Carton Godown Shed is also planned as part of the facility's comprehensive layout. In addition, road infrastructure and drainage systems will be developed across the premises to ensure seamless operational movement.

We carried out soil test report from Quality Laboratory Services on May 17, 2025, to assess the suitability of the site for construction. The detailed bifurcation of the estimated construction and civil cost is as follows:

ANNEXURE TO THE STATEMENT OF SPECIAL TAX BENEFITS

The information provided below sets out the special tax benefits available to the Company and the Equity Shareholders under the Income Tax Act, 1961 presently in force in India. It is not exhaustive or comprehensive and is not intended to be a substitute for professional advice. Investors are advised to consult their own tax consultant with respect to the tax implications of an investment in Equity Shares particularly in view of the fact that certain recently enacted legislation may not have a direct legal precedent or may have a different interpretation on the benefits, which an investor can avail.

A. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE COMPANY:

Under the Income Tax Act, 1961 ("the Act")

Special tax benefits available to the Company

- The Company is not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

B. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE SHAREHOLDERS:

- The Shareholders of the Company are not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

NOTES:

1. The above Annexure of special tax benefits sets out the provisions of Tax Laws in a summary manner only and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of shares.
2. The above Annexure covers only the special tax benefits under the Act, read with the relevant rules, circulars and notifications and does not cover any benefit under any other law in force in India. This Annexure also does not discuss any tax consequences, in the country outside India, of an investment in the shares of an Indian company.
3. The above Annexure of special tax benefits is as per the current direct tax laws relevant for the assessment year 2026-27. Several of these benefits are dependent on the Company or its shareholders fulfilling the conditions prescribed under the relevant provisions of the Tax Laws.
4. In respect of non-residents, the tax rates and consequent taxation mentioned above will be further subject to any benefits available under the relevant Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement, if any, entered into between India and the country in which the non-resident has fiscal domicile.
5. A new Section 115BAA has been inserted by the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019 ('the Amendment Act, 2019') with effect from Financial Year 2019-20 granting an option to domestic companies to compute corporate tax at a reduced rate of 25.168% (22% plus surcharge of 10% and cess of 4%), provided such companies do not avail specified exemptions/ incentives. The option under section 115BAA of the Act once exercised cannot be subsequently withdrawn for any future financial year. The Amendment Act, 2019 further provides that domestic companies availing such option will not be required to pay Minimum Alternate Tax ('MAT') under Section 115JB. The CBDT has further issued Circular 29/2019 dated October 02, 2019 clarifying that since the MAT provisions under Section 115JB itself would not apply where a domestic company exercises option of lower tax rate under Section 115BAA, MAT credit would not be available.

In such a case, the Company is not allowed to claim any of the following deductions/ exemptions under the Act: - of the Act which are in general available and hence may not be treated as special tax benefits.

- ✓ Deduction under the provisions of Section 10AA.
- ✓ Deduction under clause (iia) of sub- section (1) of Section 32 (additional depreciation).

The Company has evaluated and decided to exercise the option permitted under Section 115BAA of the Act for the purpose of computing its income-tax liability for the Financial Year 2023-24 and onwards.

6. This Annexure is intended only to provide general information to the investors and is neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional tax advice. Global economic overview

Forces Shaping the Outlook

The global economy is at a critical juncture. Signs of stabilization were emerging through much of 2024, after a prolonged and challenging period of unprecedented shocks. Inflation, down from multidecade highs, followed a gradual though bumpy decline toward central bank targets (Figure 1.1). Labor markets normalized, with unemployment and vacancy rates returning to preacademic levels (Figure 1.2). Growth hovered around 3 percent in the past few years, and global output came close to potential.

However, major policy shifts are resetting the global trade system and giving rise to uncertainty that is once again testing the resilience of the global economy. Since February, the United States has announced multiple waves of tariffs against trading partners, some of which have invoked countermeasures. Markets first took the announcements mostly in stride, until the United States' near-universal application of tariffs on April 2, which triggered historic drops in major equity indices and spikes in bond yields, followed by a partial recovery after the pause and additional carve-outs announced on and after April 9. Despite significant equity market corrections in early March and April, price-to-earnings ratios in the United States remain at elevated levels in historical context, raising concerns about the potential for further disorderly corrections (April 2025 Global Financial Stability Report [GFSR]). Uncertainty, especially that regarding trade policy, has surged to unprecedented levels.

(Percent, year over year)

(Percent)

These developments come against an already-cooling economic momentum. Recent data on real activity have been disappointing, with GDP growth in the fourth quarter of 2024 trailing the forecasts in the January 2025 World Economic Outlook (WEO) Update. High-frequency indicators such as retail sales and purchasing managers' surveys point to slowing growth. In the United States, consumer, business, and investor sentiment was optimistic at the beginning of the year but has recently shifted to a notably more pessimistic stance as uncertainty has taken hold and new tariffs have been announced. In labor markets, hiring has slowed in many countries, and layoffs have risen. Meanwhile, progress on disinflation has mostly stalled, and inflation has edged upward in some cases, with an increasing number of countries exceeding their inflation targets. Services inflation, though still on a downward trend, remains above levels prior to the inflation surge, and core goods inflation has seen an uptick since November 2024. Trade has held up, with consumers and businesses likely front-loading ahead of tariffs that were anticipated back then and now are in place. In the backdrop, domestic imbalances and policy gaps give rise to unbalanced growth while opening up potential fragilities.

The Outlook: A Range of Possibilities

The swift escalation of trade tensions has generated extremely high levels of policy ambiguity, making it more difficult than usual to establish a central global growth outlook. Therefore, this WEO presents a range of global growth projections. The reference forecast is predicated on several projections for global commodity prices, interest rates, and fiscal policies

Global Assumptions

The reference forecast is predicated on several projections for global commodity prices, interest rates, and fiscal policies. Acknowledging the high 22.8 percent increase in natural gas prices, the latter driven up by colder-than-expected weather and the halt of Russian gas flow to Europe through Ukraine since January 1. Nonfuel commodity prices are projected to increase by 4.4 percent in 2025. Projected food and beverage prices have been revised upward compared with those in the January 2025 WEO.

Monetary policy projections:

The Federal Reserve and the European Central Bank are expected to continue to reduce interest rates in the coming quarters, albeit at different paces from one another. In the United States, the federal funds rate is projected to be down to 4 percent at the end of 2025 and reach its long-term equilibrium of 2.9 percent at the end of 2028. In the euro area, 100 basis points in cuts are expected in 2025 (with three cuts having already occurred this year), representing two more 25 basis point cuts than in the assumptions underlying the October 2024 WEO, bringing the policy rate to 2 percent by the middle of the year.

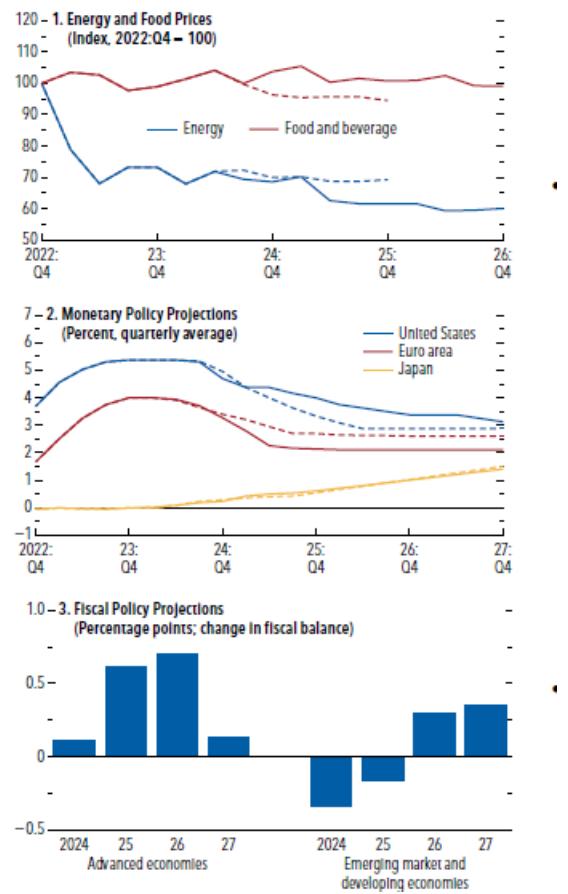

Fiscal policy projections:

Governments in advanced economies on average are expected to tighten fiscal policy in 2025–26 and, to a lesser extent, in 2027. The general government structural-fiscal-balance-to-GDP ratio is expected to improve by 1 percentage point in the United States in 2025. Yet it is worth noting that under current policies, US public debt fails to stabilize, rising from 121 percent of GDP in 2024 to 130 percent of GDP in 2030. In the euro area, under the reference forecast, the primary deficit in Germany is expected to widen by about 1 percent of GDP by 2030 relative to 2024 and by about 4 percent of GDP relative to the January WEO forecast for 2030, with the increase driven primarily by higher defense spending and public investment, and this is assumed to generate spillovers to France, Italy, and Spain. The euro area debt-to-GDP ratio is expected to increase from its current 88 percent to 93 percent in 2030, although there is significant uncertainty surrounding the assessment of the economic impact of the additional fiscal spending. In emerging market and developing economies, primary fiscal deficits are projected to widen in 2025 by 0.3 percentage point on average, followed by fiscal tightening starting in 2026. In China, the structural-fiscal-balance-to-GDP ratio is expected to deteriorate by 1.2 percentage points in 2025. Public debt in emerging market and developing economies continues to rise from its current level of 70 percent of GDP.

Trade policy assumptions:

On February 1, US imposed tariffs on Canada, China, and Mexico. An additional tariff of 10 percent on all imports from China into effect on February 4, and another 10 percent was imposed on March 4. China responded with tariffs of 10 to 15 percent on imports of select US agricultural products, energy commodities, farm equipment and on imports of agricultural products. Tariffs of 25 percent on all nonenergy goods imports from Canada (for energy, 10 percent) and of 25 percent on all imports from Mexico. Canada announced 25 percent counter tariffs on roughly 40 percent of Canadian imports of goods from the United States. Mexico indicated the intention to respond without specifying the measures to be employed, hence the reference forecast includes no additional tariff imposed on Mexican imports from the United States. The trade policy uncertainty is assumed to remain elevated through 2025 and 2026. The perceived unpredictability of the current trade landscape is evident from the significant spike in the daily trade policy indicator (Caldara and others 2020), which surged more than four standard deviations in just three days after April 2, despite the disclosure of the details of the expected tariffs.

Growth forecast

Global Growth: Reference Forecast and Alternatives

In the near term, under the reference forecast, global growth is projected to fall from an estimated 3.3 percent in 2024 to 2.8 percent in 2025, before recovering to 3 percent in 2026. This is lower than the projections in the January 2025 WEO Update, by 0.5 percentage point for 2025 and 0.3 percentage point for 2026, with downward revisions for nearly all countries. The downgrades are broad-based across countries and reflect in large part the direct effects of the new trade measures and their indirect effects through trade linkage spillovers, heightened uncertainty, and deteriorating sentiment. The growth impact of tariffs in the short term varies across countries, depending on trade relationships, industry compositions, policy responses, and opportunities for trade diversification. Fiscal support in some cases (for example, China, euro area) offsets some of the negative growth impact.

Given uncertainty over where trade policy could settle, the two alternative growth outlooks are as follows:

- Under the pre-April 2 forecast, global growth would be 3.2 percent for both 2025 and 2026, lower by 0.1 percentage point in each year compared with the January 2025 WEO Update. This forecast deviates from the global assumptions listed above on trade policy announcements, the level of uncertainty, and commodity prices. It is predicated on higher oil prices and only those trade policies announced between February 1 and March 12, namely, tariffs on Canada and Mexico, the first wave of tariffs on China, associated responses by Canada and China, and sectoral tariffs on steel and aluminum. The downgrades to growth under this outlook are largest for the countries directly involved, but growth in other economies is also lower because of increased uncertainty relative to that in January and tariff-related spillovers.
- The post-April 9 model-based forecast incorporates the tariff announcements made after April 4 on April 9, the United States announced a 90-day pause on the higher tariff rates imposed on some countries but maintained the 10 percent minimum on all countries while further raising tariffs on Chinese goods as a countermeasure to China's tariff response, which China then countered again. The EU responded with 25 percent tariffs on a range of US imports, which were also paused for 90 days. On April 11, the United States announced that it would exempt smartphones, laptops, and other electronic devices and components from the April 2 tariffs, while China raised tariffs on US goods further, with the higher rate. On April 14 the cutoff date for data and information used in this chapter—the US effective tariff rate on Chinese goods was 115 percent, while that imposed by China on US goods was 146 percent, and the US effective tariff rate on the world stood at about 25 percent, up from under 3 percent in January 2025.
- If the measures announced between April 5 and 14 were considered in isolation from the associated market fallout and policy-induced uncertainty and assumed to be permanent, global growth for 2025 would be about 2.8 percent for 2025 and about 2.9 percent for 2026. This is similar to the estimates for global growth in the reference forecast, albeit with a different composition of growth rates across countries. The gains from lower effective tariff rates for those countries that were previously subject to higher tariffs would now be offset by poorer growth outcomes in China and the United States—due to the escalating tariff rates—that would propagate through global supply chains.

Growth Forecast for Advanced Economies

For advanced economies, growth is projected to drop from an estimated 1.8 percent in 2024 to 1.4 percent in 2025 and 1.5 percent in 2026. Growth for 2025 is now projected to be 0.5 percentage point lower relative to that in January 2025 WEO Update projections. The forecasts for 2025 include significant downward revisions for Canada, Japan, the United Kingdom, and the United States and an upward revision for Spain.

- For the United States, growth is projected to decrease in 2025 to 1.8 percent, 1 percentage point lower than the rate for 2024 as well as 0.9 percentage point lower than the forecast rate in the January 2025 WEO Update. The downward revision is a result of greater policy uncertainty, trade tensions, and a softer demand outlook, given slower-than-anticipated consumption growth. Tariffs are also expected to weigh on growth in 2026, which is projected at 1.7 percent amid moderate private consumption.

Growth in the euro area is expected to decline slightly to 0.8 percent in 2025, before picking up modestly to 1.2 percent in 2026. Rising uncertainty and tariffs are key drivers of the subdued growth in 2025. Offsetting forces that support the modest pickup in 2026 include stronger consumption on the back of rising real wages and a projected fiscal easing in Germany following major changes to its fiscal rule (the “debt brake”). Within the region, Spain’s momentum contrasts with the sluggish dynamics elsewhere. The growth projection for 2025 for Spain is 2.5 percent, an upward revision of 0.2 percentage point from that in the January 2025 WEO Update. This reflects a large carryover from better-than-expected outturns in 2024 and reconstruction activity following floods. Among other advanced economies, several downward revisions stand out. For Canada, growth forecasts are revised downward by 0.6 percentage point for 2025 and by 0.4 percentage point for 2026. For Japan, the growth projection for 2025 is 0.6 percent, marking a downgrade of 0.5 percentage point relative to the forecast in January. For the United Kingdom, the growth projection for 2025 is 1.1 percent, lower by 0.5 percentage point compared to the forecast in January. This reflects a smaller carryover from 2024, the impact of recent tariff announcements, an increase in gilt yields, and weaker private consumption amid higher inflation as a result of regulated prices and energy costs.

Growth Forecast for Emerging Market and Developing Economies

For emerging market and developing economies, growth under the reference forecast is projected to drop to 3.7 percent in 2025 and 3.9 percent in 2026, following an estimated 4.3 percent in 2024. This is 0.5 and 0.4 percentage point lower, respectively, compared with the rate projected in the January 2025 WEO Update.

- After a marked slowdown in 2024, growth in emerging and developing Asia is expected to decline further to 4.5 percent in 2025 and 4.6 percent in 2026. Emerging and developing Asia, particularly Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) countries, has been among the most affected by the April tariffs. For China, 2025 GDP growth is revised downward to 4.0 percent from 4.6 percent in the January 2025 WEO Update. This reflects the impact of recently implemented tariffs, which offset the stronger carryover from 2024. Growth in 2026 is also revised downward to 4.0 percent from 4.5 percent in the January 2025 WEO Update on the back of prolonged trade policy uncertainty and the tariffs now in place. For India, the growth outlook is relatively more stable at 6.2 percent in 2025, supported by private consumption, particularly in rural areas, but this rate is 0.3 percentage point lower than that in the January 2025 WEO Update on account of higher levels of trade tensions and global uncertainty.
- For Latin America and the Caribbean, growth is projected to moderate from 2.4 percent in 2024 to 2.0 percent in 2025, before rebounding to 2.4 percent in 2026. The forecasts are revised downward by 0.5 percentage point for 2025 and 0.3 percentage point in 2026 compared with those in the January 2025 WEO Update. The revisions owe largely to a significant downgrade to growth in Mexico, by 1.7 percentage points for 2025 and 0.6 percentage point for 2026.
- Growth in emerging and developing Europe is projected to slow down considerably, from 3.4 percent in 2024 to 2.1 percent in 2025 and 2026. This reflects a sharp drop in growth in Russia from 4.1 percent in 2024 to 1.5 percent in 2025 and to 0.9 percent in 2026 as private consumption and investment decelerate amid reduced tightness in the labor market and slower wage growth.
- The Middle East and Central Asia is projected to come out of several years of subdued growth, with the rate accelerating from an estimated 2.4 percent in 2024 to 3.0 percent in 2025 and to 3.5 percent in 2026 as the effects of disruptions to oil production and shipping dissipate and the impact of ongoing conflicts lessens.
- For sub-Saharan Africa, growth is expected to decline slightly from 4 percent in 2024 to 3.8 percent in 2025 and recover modestly in 2026, lifting to 4.2 percent. In South Africa is revised downward by 0.5 percentage point for 2025 and 0.3 percentage point for 2026, reflecting slowing momentum from a weaker-than-expected 2024 outturn, deteriorating sentiment due to heightened uncertainty.

Medium-Term Outlook

Lacking structural reform momentum and facing headwinds from a range of challenges, global economic performance is expected to remain mediocre. The five year ahead growth forecast stands at 3.2 percent, below the historical average during 2000–19 of 3.7 percent. For many emerging market and developing economies, as well as for quite a few advanced economies, current medium-term growth forecasts fall short. A key and increasingly common driver of these sluggish medium-term growth dynamics is demographics. Population aging is expected to weigh significantly on productivity, labor force participation, and ultimately, growth.

World Trade Outlook

Global trade growth is expected to slow down in 2025 to 1.7 percentage point, a downward revision of 1.5 percentage. This forecast reflects increased tariff restrictions affecting trade flows and, to a lesser extent, the waning effects of cyclical factors that have underpinned the recent rise in goods trade. The widening of current account balances in 2024 reflected widening domestic imbalances and a pickup in global goods trade. Over the medium term, global balances are expected to narrow gradually as the effects of these factors wane.

Risks to the Outlook

Overall, risks to the outlook are tilted to the downside, in both the short and the medium term. This section discusses the most prominent risks and United States, but also a large set of countries in Asia and Europe in the medium term. Some countries may harness the opportunity to consolidate their trade networks, reconfigure their position in global value chains, and, hence, experience positive effects, especially if traded goods embed a rising share of domestic value added. However, adverse effects could accumulate over time. Their magnitude would depend on how quickly countries can boost domestic consumption, reroute trade flows, and increase productivity and competitiveness, as well as on the reach and intensity of the countermeasures, including nontariff measures. The emergence of new trading clusters is likely to fragment FDI flows and weigh on capital accumulation. A reversal of global economic integration might also trigger suboptimal relocation of production units and technological decoupling, with negative growth effects in the longer term because of resource misallocation, loss of knowledge hubs, contraction in bank credit, and financial stability risks

Several factors could lead to higher inflationary pressures in some countries. First, with more than 80 percent of trade invoicing in US dollars, additional pressure may arise if the US dollar appreciates, as observed during previous episodes of trade uncertainty and financial market volatility. Second, inflation expectations are currently higher than central bank targets and, in some cases, on the rise. Third, restrictions on commodities may lead to significant price shifts, particularly since price elasticities of critical minerals and highly traded agricultural goods are especially vulnerable to trade fragmentation because of their concentrated production, difficulties in substitution, and essential roles in manufacturing and key technologies.

Tariffs on agricultural commodities could raise food security concerns, particularly in low-income countries. Tariffs tend to raise prices of tradables, on which poor households spend relatively more and may increase returns to capital over labor, benefiting the wealthy. Welfare losses are typically concentrated among the poor and the retired, even when tariff revenues offset distortionary taxes. Beyond the risk of additional trade barriers, prolonged uncertainty regarding trade policies poses other risks to investment and growth.

Indian Economy Overview

Introduction

Strong economic growth in the first quarter of FY23 helped India overcome the UK to become the fifth-largest economy after it recovered from the COVID-19 pandemic shock. Nominal GDP for FY25 is estimated at Rs. 33.10 lakh crore (US$ 3.8 trillion) with growth rate of 9.9%, compared to Rs. 30.12 lakh crore (US$ 3.5 trillion) in FY24. Strong domestic demand for consumption and investment, along with Government's continued emphasis on capital expenditure are seen as among the key driver of the GDP in the second half of FY25. In FY25, India's exports stood at Rs. 37.31 lakh crore (US$ 433.56 billion), with Engineering Goods (26.88%), Petroleum Products (13.86%) and electronic goods (8.89%) being the top three exported commodity. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months. Future capital spending of the government in the economy is expected to be supported by factors such as tax buoyancy, the streamlined tax system with low rates, a thorough assessment and rationalisation of the tariff structure, and the digitization of tax filing.

In the medium run, increased capital spending on infrastructure and asset-building projects is set to increase growth multipliers. The contact-based services sector has demonstrated promise to boost growth by unleashing the pent-up demand. The sector's success is being captured by a number of HFIs (High-Frequency Indicators) that are performing well, indicating the beginnings of a comeback.

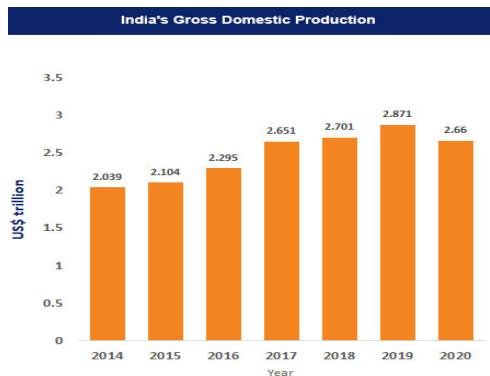

India has emerged as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers in the world over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

India's appeal as a destination for investments has grown stronger and more sustainable because of the current period of global unpredictability and volatility, and the record amounts of money raised by India-focused funds in 2022 are evidence of investor faith in the "Invest in India" narrative.

Market size

Real GDP for FY25 is estimated at Rs. 187.95 lakh crores (US$ 2.2 trillion) with growth rate of 6.5%, compared to Rs. 176.51 lakh crore (US$ 2.06 trillion) for FY24. As on Jan 2025, there are 118 unicorn startups in India, with a combined valuation of over Rs. 3.0 lakh crore (US$ 354 billion). The government is also focusing on renewable sources by achieving 40% of its energy from non-fossil sources by 2030. India is committed to achieving the country's ambition of Net Zero Emissions by 2070 through a five-pronged strategy, 'Panchamrit'. Moreover, India ranked 3rd in the renewable energy country attractive index.

According to the McKinsey Global Institute, India needs to boost its rate of employment growth and create 90 million non-farm jobs between 2023 to 2030 in order to increase productivity and economic growth. The net employment rate needs to grow by 1.5% per annum from 2023 to 2030 to achieve 8-8.5% GDP growth between same time periods. The Current Account Deficit (CAD) stood at Rs. 98,095 crore (US$ 11.5 billion) for Q3 of FY25 as compared to Rs. 88,712 crore (US$ 10.4 billion) in Q3 of FY24. This was largely due to increase in merchandise trade deficit.

Exports fared remarkably well during the pandemic and aided recovery when all other growth engines were losing steam in terms of their contribution to GDP. Going forward, the contribution of merchandise exports may waver as several of India's trade partners witness an economic slowdown. According to Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles Mr. Piyush Goyal, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With an improvement in the economic scenario and the Indian economy recovering from the Covid-19 pandemic shock, several investments and developments have been made across various sectors of the economy. According to World Bank, India must continue to prioritise lowering inequality while also putting growth-oriented policies into place to boost the economy. In view of this, there have been some developments that have taken place in the recent past. Some of them are mentioned below:

- The HSBC India Manufacturing PMI increased to 58.4 in April 2025, up from 58.1 in March 2025, based on preliminary estimates. This rise signifies improved operating conditions and represents the most rapid growth pace observed in the past year. Contributing factors include a notable surge in new export orders, which experienced their most significant increase in over fifteen years, alongside a faster expansion in overall new business activity.
- In Q1 CY25, private equity (PE) and venture capital (VC) investments stood at Rs. 1,16,861 crore (US$ 13.7 billion) across 284 deals.

- India saw a robust 10.35% growth in passengers carried by domestic airlines at 431.98 lakh in FY25, from 391.46 lakh in FY24, according to the Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA).
- As of April 18, 2025, India's foreign exchange reserves stood at Rs. 58,57,537 crore (US$ 686.70 billion).
- India secured 39th position out of 133 economies in the Global Innovation Index 2024. India rose from 81st position in 2015 to 39th position in 2024. India ranks 3rd position in the global number of scientific publications.
- The gross GST (Goods and Services Tax) revenue collection stood at Rs. 1.84 lakh crore (US$ 21.57 billion) in February 2025.
- Between April 2000–December 2024, cumulative FDI equity inflows to India stood at Rs. 89.88 lakh crore (US$ 1.05 trillion).
- In February 2025, the overall IIP (Index of Industrial Production) stood at 151.3. The Indices of Industrial Production for the mining, manufacturing and electricity sectors stood at 141.9, 148.6 and 194.0, respectively.
- According to data released by the Ministry of Statistics & Programme Implementation (MoSPI), India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) – Combined inflation was 3.34% in March 2025 against 4.85% in March 2024.
- Foreign Institutional Investors (FII) inflows in FY25 were close to Rs. 1.27 lakh crore (US$ 14.89 billion), while Domestic Institutional Investors (DII) bought Rs. 6.00 lakh crore (US$ 70.34 billion) in the same period.

India's wheat procurement rose 34% YoY, reaching 22.36 MT as of April 28, 2025, with target of 31 MT in sight. Strong MSP, bonuses, and robust crop output boost sales to government agencies, ensuring food security and potential for open market intervention.

Government Initiatives

- Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Over recent decades, India's rapid economic growth has led to a substantial increase in its demand for exports. Besides this, a number of the government's flagship programmes, including Make in India, Start-up India, Digital India, the Smart City Mission, and the Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation, is aimed at creating immense opportunities in India. In this regard, some of the initiatives taken by the government to improve the economic condition of the country are mentioned below: According to a report by Wood Mackenzie in January 2025, India, the United States, and West Asia are expected to collectively add 100 Gigawatts (GW) of solar capacity by 2025, while China is anticipated to continue its leadership in the solar industry.
- In July 2024, the Ministry of Finance held the Union Budget and announced that for 2024-25, the total receipts other than borrowings and the total expenditure are estimated at Rs. 32.07 lakh crore (US$ 383.93 billion) and Rs. 48.21 lakh crore (US$ 577.16 billion), respectively.
- In February 2024, the Finance Ministry announced the total expenditure in Interim 2024-25 estimated at Rs. 47,65,768 crore (US$ 571.64 billion) of which total capital expenditure is Rs. 11,11,111 crore (US$ 133.27 billion).
- On January 22, 2024, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi announced the 'Pradhan Mantri Suryodaya Yojana'. Under this scheme, 1 crore households will receive rooftop solar installations.
- On September 17, 2023, Prime Minister Mr. Narendra Modi launched the Central Sector Scheme PM-VISHWAKARMA in New Delhi. The new scheme aims to provide recognition and comprehensive support to traditional artisans & craftsmen who work with their hands and basic tools. This initiative is designed to enhance the quality, scale, and reach of their products, as well as to integrate them with MSME value chains.
- On August 6, 2023, Amrit Bharat Station Scheme was launched to transform and revitalize 1309 railway stations across the nation. This scheme envisages development of stations on a continuous basis with a long-term vision.

- On June 28, 2023, the Ministry of Environment, Forests, and Climate Change introduced the ‘Draft Carbon Credit Trading Scheme, 2023’.
- From April 1, 2023, Foreign Trade Policy 2023 was unveiled to create an enabling ecosystem to support the philosophy of ‘Aatmanirbhar Bharat’ and ‘Local goes Global’.
- To enhance India’s manufacturing capabilities by increasing investment and production in the sector, the government of India has introduced the Production Linked Incentive Scheme (PLI) for Pharmaceuticals.
- Prime Minister’s Development Initiative for North-East Region (PM-DevINE) was announced in the Union Budget 2022-23 with a financial outlay of Rs. 1,500 crore (US$ 182.35 million).
- Prime Minister Mr Narendra Modi has inaugurated a new food security scheme for providing free food grains to Antyodaya Ann Yojna (AY) & Primary Household (PHH) beneficiaries, called Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Ann Yojana (PMGKAY) from January 1, 2023.

Road Ahead

India’s economy grew by 6.2% in Q3 FY25. Signs of recovery are now visible, with growth expected to rise to 7.6% in Q4 FY25—indicating a possible turnaround in the coming months. India’s comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country’s positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. India ranked 5th in foreign direct investment inflows among the developed and developing nations listed for the first quarter of 2022.

India’s economic story during the first half of FY24 highlighted the unwavering support the government gave to its capital expenditure, which, in FY24, stood 37.4% higher than the same period last year. In the Union Budget of FY26, capital expenditure took lead by steeply increasing the capital expenditure outlay by 10.0 % to Rs. 11.21 lakh crore (US$ 131.42 billion) over Rs. 10.18 lakh crore (US$ 119.34 billion) in FY25. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

India’s total exports of goods and services rose by 5.5% to a record Rs. 69.8 lakh crore (US$ 820.9 billion) in FY25, compared to Rs. 65.8 lakh crore (US$ 773.0 billion) in FY24.

With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored. With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

Global Cashew Industry

Overview of Cashew Production

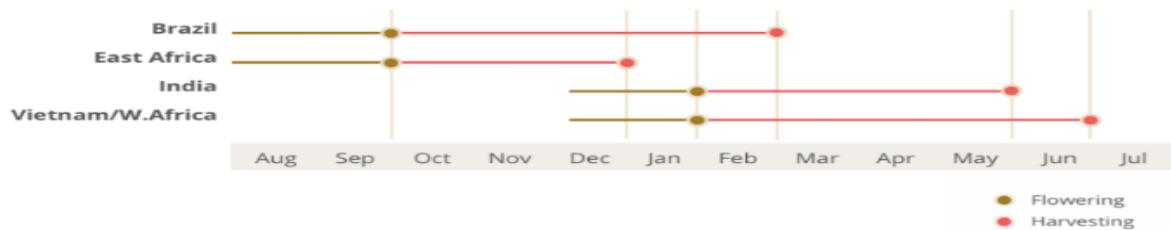

World production of cashews currently ranges between 720,000 and 790,000 metric tonnes (kernel basis) per year (seasons 2015/16-2019/20). India, with 170,000-195,000 MT of annual production, ranks first, followed by Côte d’Ivoire, Vietnam and Tanzania averaging 149,000; 82,000 and 53,000 MT, respectively. The cashew nut is native of North-east Brazil. During the 16th century, the Portuguese introduced it into India and Portuguese colonies in Africa such as Mozambique. From India, cashew trees spread all over South-east Asia.

The cashew tree grows in tropical areas with an annual rainfall ranging from 400 to 4,000 mm, and it grows from sea level to an altitude of 1,000 m. The Casewh is cultivated primarily in India, Vietnam, Côte d’Ivoire, Guinea-Bissau, Tanzania, Benin, Brazil and other countries in East and West Central Africa and South East Asia. Plantings have also been established in South Africa and Australia.

Seasons

Flowering takes place from December to April in the Northern hemisphere, and from June to December in the Southern hemisphere, with a higher concentration from September to November. The cashew has crossed fertilization.

About a week after fertilization, the green nut with a puny apple (false fruit) appears. The nut rapidly grows till it reaches almost 80% of its final size. The fruit starts growing to become wider and apple-shaped after the nut attains its full size. The apple has a thin green skin and as it matures the color turns red or yellow and becomes fragrant.

Meanwhile, the nut's shell becomes hard and turns grey in color and the kernel grows within the nut. Nut and apple fall to the ground when fully mature. The time for fruit maturity varies from 2-3 months depending on the variety, the health of the tree, and the climate conditions during fruit growth shows the higher concentration months of flowering, but the flowering season can be longer depending on the tree variety and the zone. Harvest takes place during dry weather and nuts are harvested only when the apples are fully ripe. Three to four flowering and fruiting in a 3-4-month horizon makes multiple harvesting necessary. The nut remains firmly attached to the apple and consequently the bulk of the harvest consists of the cashew apples.

Overall harvesting seasons are similar in the producing countries, depending on the location relative to the equator. Countries north of the equator, including India, Vietnam, and West Africa, start harvesting early in the calendar year until approximately mid-year. Countries south of the equator, including Brazil and East Africa, harvest from September or October to early in the following calendar year.

Processing Cashew Fruit into Kernels

Generally, the processing of raw cashew nuts into edible cashew kernel takes the following steps traditional method: roasting, shelling, drying, peeling, grading, quality controls, fumigation and packaging. All these steps have to be conducted with care to obtain good quality and good grade kernels.

In order to ensure the quality requirements and avoid contamination of the cashew nuts, preparation takes place under clean, hygienic, and ideal conditions. The following aspects are cleaned regularly: equipment (tubes, knives, etc.), working and drying surfaces (racks, mats, etc.), personnel clothes, and preparing storage rooms.

Standards Grades and Forms

Kernels shall be completely free from infestation or living pests, molds, insect damage, rotting, deterioration, mold rancidity, adhering testa, and objectionable extraneous or foreign matter. Scrapped and partially shrivelled kernels also permitted provided such scraping/shriveling does not affect the characteristic shape of the kernel.

Kernels shall be completely free from infestation or living pests, molds, insect damage, rotting, deterioration, mold rancidity, adhering testa, and objectionable extraneous or foreign matter. Indian Cashew Industry

Introduction

India is among the largest cashew-producing countries in the world. The cashew industry has large economic significance as it employs more than 10 lakh people on farms and factories in rural areas. The cultivation of cashews in India covers a total of 0.7 million hectares of land, and the country produces over 0.8 million tonnes (MT) annually. Between FY20 and FY22, India's cashew nut production grew from 0.70 million tonnes (MT) to 0.77 million tonnes (MT). In India, cashew cultivation is spread along the coastal regions of the peninsula. Cashew is mainly grown in states like Maharashtra, Kerala, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh, Goa, Orissa, West Bengal, and some parts of the North-Eastern region. According to data published by the National Horticulture Board (NHB), Maharashtra stands first in annual cashew nut production during FY22 at 0.20 million tonnes (MT), growing from 0.19 million tonnes cashew nut produced in FY21.

Besides the vast scale of cashew production, India is also known for pioneering cashew processing and exporting cashew kernels across the globe. The cashew processing industry was earlier concentrated in Kollam (Kerala), Mangalore (Karnataka), Goa, and Vettapalam (Andhra Pradesh), but now it is spread across many states of India. Over the years, India has emerged as the global processing hub for the cashew industry.

Export Trend

India is the largest cashew exporter, with more than 15% of the world's export share. India primarily exports Cashew Kernels and very small quantities of Cashewnut shell liquid. In FY24, the cashew exports by value stood at US$ 339.21 million as against US$ 356.32 million in FY23, registering a decline of 4.80%.

In terms of volume, India's cashew exports declined from 80,366.25 MT in FY22 to 76,824 MT in FY23 from and increase to 79,030.65 MT in FY24.

Importing of raw cashew nuts has played a key role in the growth of the Indian cashew industry, which accounts for almost half of the domestic and export demand for cashew kernels in the country. To address the same, the Department of Agriculture, Cooperation and Farmers Welfare (DAC&FW), under the Mission for Integrated Development of Horticulture (MIDH) and Rashtriya Krishi Vikas Yojana (RKVY), had implemented various initiatives that led to increased domestic production of cashew. It includes massive area expansion under cashew cultivation and replacing senile cashew plantations with high-yielding varieties in traditional and non-traditional states. DAC&FW also approved the roadmap program to extend the cashew cultivation area by 1.20 lakh hectares presented by the Directorate of Cashew nut & Cocoa Development (DCCD).

Export Destinations

India exports cashews to over 60 countries spread across different parts of the world. The key export destinations for India are UAE, Japan, Netherlands, Saudi Arabia, the USA, the UK, Canada, France, Israel, and Italy. As of FY25 (April to December) the total value of cashew exports stood at Rs. 2,436 crore (US$ 289.01 million). As per the APEDA statistics on the exports of cashew kernels and cashew nutshell liquid, UAE was the largest importer of Indian cashews, valued at US$ 127 million, accounting for 34.9% of overall exports during FY23 as compared to US$ 131.5 million in the previous year. In FY23, in volume terms, India's cashew exports to UAE stood at 17.21 million kg, growing by 3.54% from 16.6 million kg of exports recorded in the previous year.

The Netherlands and Japan were among the top three importers of Indian cashews, with a share of exports at 10% each. India's cashew exports in FY23 to Japan and the Netherlands were valued at US$ 36 million each. The top 10 importing countries of Indian cashews had a share of 78% of the total exports, which implies the huge significance of traditional markets. This strong growth in cashew exports across export destinations continues to drive economic growth and employment generation in India's key cashew-growing states.

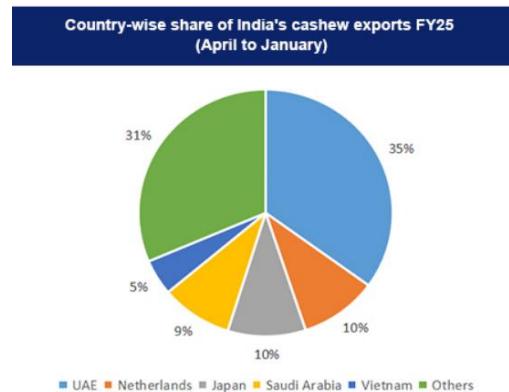

Government Initiatives

The Government of India and the cashew export promotion council have undertaken several initiatives for the ease of exports and growth of the cashew industry. As non-financial assistance to exporters, many trade delegations, buyer-seller meets, fairs, development workshops, and research and development data are provided. Additionally, in 2018, the Basic Customs Duty on raw cashew nut was reduced to 2.5% from the previous 5%, and the Goods and Services Tax (GST) on the same was reduced to 5% from 12%.

As the cashew industry's domestic demand and exports are heavily dependent on imported raw cashew nuts, the Government of India has taken several steps to support efficient sourcing. These include:

- Changes in import policy for cashew kernel (both broken and whole)
- Revision of the standard inputs output norms (SION) for cashew exports
- Approval of Medium-Term Framework scheme for process mechanization and automation of cashew processing units with a financial outlay of Rs. 60 crore (US$ 8 million)
- Allowing duty-free import of raw cashew nuts under the Duty-Free Tariff Preference (DFTP) Scheme from least developed countries (LDCs)
- The government has also extended financial assistance to the Cashew Export Promotion Council of India (CEPCI) for organizing buyer-seller meet (BSM) and participation in international fairs under the Market Access Initiative (MAI) scheme, which supports tapping new markets.

Our Products Portfolio

Our product portfolio primarily comprises various grades of cashew nuts, which are processed and packaged in bulk as well as consumer-oriented retail packs. Additionally, we market select dry fruits under our white-label brand “Royal Mewa” through a combination of e-commerce platforms and offline distribution channels.

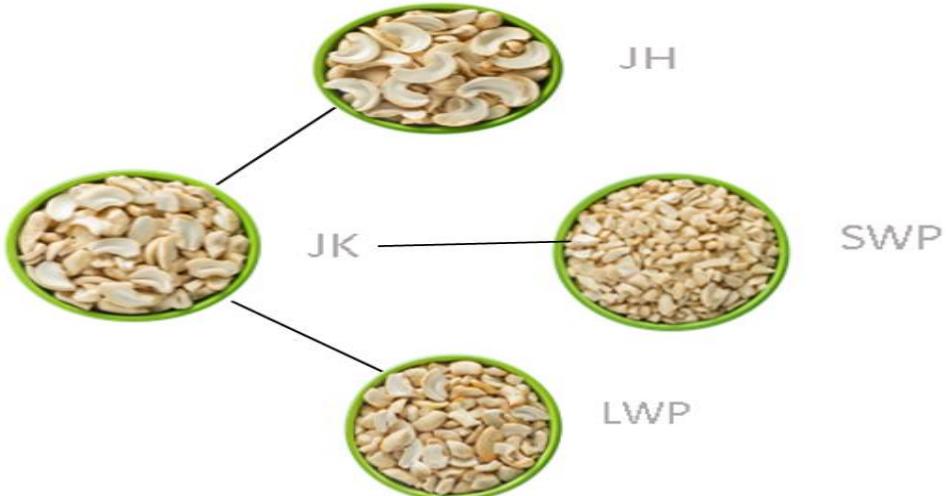

- A. Cashew Grading Overview: The grading of cashew kernels is based on several factors including size, color, usability, seasonality, and specific customer requirements. Our Company offers a wide range of cashew grades categorized as follows:
 1. Whole Cashew Grades (“W” Grades): “W” stands for White Wholes, indicating whole cashew kernels with a light, uniform color.

Grade	Description
W-180	Known as the “King of Cashews”; largest and most premium grade.
W-240	Attractive grade offering a balance of size and price; ideal for direct consumption.
W-320	Most popular and widely available grade; medium-sized kernels.
W-400	Smallest whole grade; cost-effective option used in namkeens and sweets.

2. Broken Cashew Grades (Pieces): These grades are derived as a by-product during the processing of whole cashew nuts.

Grade	Description
JH (Jumbo Halves)	Large broken halves used in garnishing; uniform in size and light in color.
LWP (Large White Pieces)	Medium-sized broken pieces; widely used in biscuits and ice creams.
JK (Jumbo Kudka)	Smaller pieces than JH and LWP; commonly used in cookies, cakes, and namkeens.
SWP (Small White Pieces)	Small broken pieces; retain the color and texture of whole kernels.
SSP (Scorched Small Pieces)	Similar to SWP but darker in color due to over-roasting.
BB (Baby Bits)	Very small broken bits; ideal for gravies, sauces, and Indian cuisines.
Split (Half Kernels)	Cashew kernels split into two equal parts; used in desserts and confectionery.

3. Scorched Whole Grades ("SW" Grades): "SW" stands for Scorched Wholes, which are whole kernels with slight discoloration from roasting. This grade is also known as "A Grade"

Grade	Description
SW-180	Large kernels with minor scorching; retains all functional properties.
SW-210	Uniform and lightly scorched; suitable for packaging and consumption.
SW-240	Moderately large and ideal for both cooking and retail.
SW-320	Smaller in size; popular in smoky or roasted-flavor dishes.

4. Rejected and Other Grades: These grades include kernels that do not meet quality standards for premium grades but are still used in food processing industries.

Grade	Description
OW (Oily Wholes) / OP (Oily Pieces)	Rejected due to rancidity, sticky texture, or off-odor. Not suitable for consumption.
HWBW (Half White Half Brown)	Mixed color kernels resulting from uneven roasting; variable visual appeal.
CP (Cashew Powder)	Finely ground cashew by-product used in curries and gravies for texture and flavor.
S320 / S400	Economical whole grades with mild discoloration; used in bulk packaging and value segment.
SSW (Super Scorched Wholes)	Darker kernels from overheating; suitable for nut butters and processed foods.
PKW (Puli Kuthu Wholes)	Wholes with black or green spots due to natural development or drying defects.
B (Butts)	Kernels broken crosswise; still attached halves, ideal for processed food use.

5. By-products from RCN Processing (Cashew Shells, Husk):

- a. Cashew Shells: Cashew shells are a key by-product of raw cashew nut processing and are primarily used as a biomass fuel due to their high calorific value. They are also a source of Cashew Nutshell Liquid (CNSL), a valuable industrial oil used in brake linings, paints, resins, and coatings. This by-product adds commercial value by serving both energy and industrial sectors.
- b. Cashew Husk: Cashew husk is the fibrous outer layer separated during peeling. It is used as organic compost or mulch in agriculture, contributing to soil enrichment. It also finds utility as animal bedding or in low-grade biofuel production, offering sustainable disposal alternatives.

Our Strengths

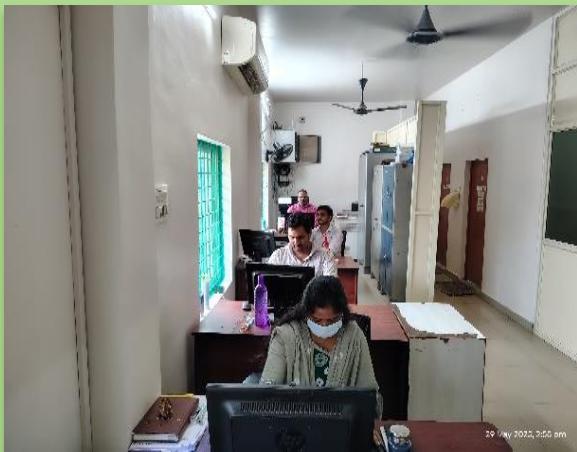

We believe that the following competitive strengths have contributed to our business growth and will continue to drive our success:

1. Strategically Located Processing Facility with Modern Machineries.

Our Cashew processing plant is located at Survey No. 11/1, 11/2, 13/1, 13/2, Janakiramapuram, Rolugunta, Anakapalli, Andhra Pradesh – 531114, India which is equipped with modern infrastructure and machinery to support the efficient processing of raw cashew nuts (RCN) into finished kernels, with facilities that include:

Cashew Processing Plant

Administrative Office

Canteen Facility

Front view

Main Entrance

Silos for holding, drying, and batch-wise weighing of RCN

Cashew Shelling Machines

Color Sorter for Shelled Cashew Nuts

Peeling Machine

1 ton capacity color sorter for peeled cashew kernels

2-tonnes capacity color sorter for peeled cashew kernels

Our cashew processing plant is located in Visakhapatnam, Andhra Pradesh, one of the major Cashew producing states in India (Source : <https://www.pib.gov.in/PressReleseDetailm.aspx?PRID=1979508>). This proximity to abundant raw cashew nut supplies provides cost-effective sourcing, reduces procurement lead times, and ensures consistent material availability.

The plant's proximity to the Port of Visakhapatnam facilitates easy import and export, reducing transportation costs and enabling us to serve both domestic and international markets efficiently. Andhra Pradesh's extensive cashew farming community offers a steady supply of experienced labor, further optimizing our operations and contributing to overall productivity.

Our processing plant is equipped with advanced machinery, including shelling machines, color sorters (1 ton and 2 tonnes capacity), and Borma Units for controlled heating and drying. These technologies ensure that we achieve high precision in processing, resulting in quality cashew kernels that meet international standards.

Our processing line features AI-powered sorting technology, which ensures superior quality control by eliminating defective kernels and sorting the nuts according to size and quality. This capability allows us to maintain consistent product quality while minimizing manual intervention.

Our plant includes silos for holding, drying, and batch-wise weighing of raw cashew nuts (RCN), shelling machines, peeling machines, and advanced color sorters for peeled cashew kernels. These integrated systems provide end-to-end solutions, ensuring a smooth transition from raw material to finished product.

Since acquiring the plant on December 27, 2021, we have continuously upgraded the infrastructure, increasing installed capacity from 8,000 MT in FY 2023 to 12,000 MT in FY 2025, with further expansion to 18,000 MT in April 2025. These upgrades reflect our commitment to improving operational efficiency positioning us to handle growing demand in both existing and new markets.

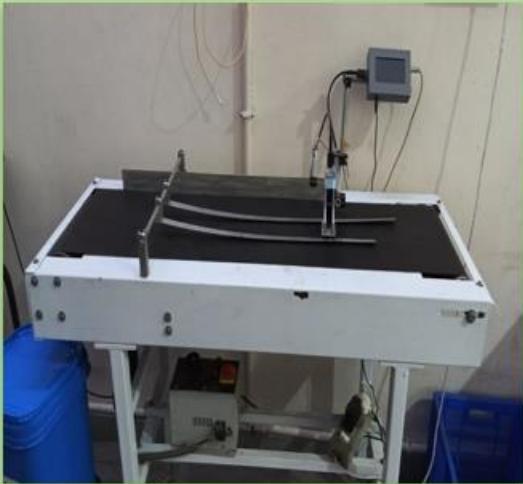

2. In-house packaging unit

Our inhouse packaging unit is located in First and second floor, part of property bearing no. GI-50, Lawrence Road Industrial Area, Delhi-110035, India is equipped to efficiently manage post-processing operations catering to the B2C segment under our brand “Royal Mewa”. The facility includes the following key equipment and functional areas:

Roaster

Label Maker

Mixer

Packing Machine

Sorting at Packing Unit

Having an in-house packaging unit provides us several key benefits, including cost efficiency by eliminating the need for third-party vendors, and ensuring consistent quality control over the packaging process. This setup allows for greater flexibility in adjusting packaging designs and sizes to meet changing market demands or customer preferences. Additionally, it results in faster turnaround times, reducing lead times between processing and delivery. With direct control over packaging, we can maintain brand consistency for "Royal Mewa", ensuring that all products align with our brand standards. Managing packaging internally also reduces supply chain risks, as we are less reliant on external suppliers. Furthermore, it enables us to adopt sustainable practices in packaging materials and processes, while improving inventory management to minimize waste and enhance overall operational efficiency.

3. Leveraging the experience and network of our Promoters

Our company is driven by a strong leadership team led by our Promoters, Pulkit Jain, Aayush Jain, and Anjali Jain, who bring a combined experience of over 35 years in scaling businesses in agricultural commodities, sales and marketing activities. Their deep understanding of both the supply chain and sales network—from sourcing raw materials in Africa to managing complex distribution channels—has been integral to our Company's growth. Their vast industry experience and strong relationships with cashew suppliers enable us to efficiently manage resources, expand our operations, and navigate market challenges. Aayush Jain, with over 16 years of experience, leads the production, sales verticals, driving market expansion. His role in fostering relationships with wholesalers, institutional buyers, and B2C customers has positioned us strongly in both domestic and export markets. Anjali Jain, with her focus on branding and customer engagement, has played a critical role in developing and scaling our B2C brand, Royal Mewa, while also spearheading innovative product development initiatives. Pulkit Jain brings strategic insight from his diverse experience in global markets, particularly in sourcing raw cashew nuts from Africa, and shaping the overall direction of our Company. Together, their expertise in sales, marketing, production, and customer service, along with their active involvement in day-to-day operations, ensures that our Company remains agile, forward-thinking, and well-positioned to capitalize on both current and future market opportunities. For more details, please refer the chapter titled, "Our Management" and "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" on page 201 and 220 respectively.

4. Efficient Procurement and Raw Material Management

Our Company has developed a strong and efficient procurement strategy for Raw Cashew Nuts (RCN), sourcing from both domestic and international suppliers, with a focus on reliable, high-quality raw materials. We primarily import RCNs from established suppliers in countries such as Côte d'Ivoire, Benin, Ghana, Togo, Guinea-Bissau, Nigeria, and Tanzania, facilitated by our group company, Pajson Global DMCC, which enables us to leverage a robust supply chain network. This procurement approach ensures consistency in our raw material supply, which is critical for our production processes. Additionally, we maintain two-to-four-months of inventory buffer, allowing us to manage fluctuations in supply and demand with optimal efficiency. Our short-term procurement arrangements, based on production needs, help us maintain flexibility and respond quickly to market conditions. The Company has demonstrated strong operational efficiency, with material cost efficiency improving significantly over the years. In FY 2025, material costs accounted for only 66% of our total revenue from operations, a significant improvement compared to 79% in FY 2024 and 81% in FY 2023. This highlights our ability to manage procurement costs effectively while improving profitability. Furthermore, our strategic partnership with Pajson Global DMCC has enabled us to streamline our procurement processes, leading to better quality control, enhanced production planning, and increased stability in our supply chain. This strategic alignment has also contributed to a strong increase in profitability, with PAT margins rising from 0.02% in FY 2023 to 10.90% in FY 2025. Overall, our procurement and raw material management practices have been pivotal in driving our operational success and financial growth, positioning us for continued stability and efficiency in the future.

5. Diverse Customer Base

We cater diverse base of consumers inclusive of wholesalers to retailers like wholesale mandis, institutional customers and to the retail customers through our B2C brand Royal Mewa. This helps us to enhance our visibility, increase credibility in the market, provide revenue stability and mitigate the risk of market fluctuation. In the year 2024-25 our Company also enters in to export of kernels which provides company exposure to the international market. The following table provides the break-up of our revenue from diverse customer base for the years indicated:

Our Strategies

The following are the key strategies of our Company for our business:

1. Expansion of our processing capacity

To meet the growing demand for cashew kernels, we plan to establish a new facility for processing raw cashew nuts (RCNs) into cashew kernels. This investment will significantly increase our production capacity, allowing us to better meet market demand. Net Proceeds of the Issue will be utilized for the construction of the new plant and the purchase of necessary machinery. This expansion will support our commitment to providing high-quality products while enhancing our operational capabilities. For details, also see “Objects of the Issue” on page 103. We will continue to pursue such opportunities where we believe they will add value to our business, our stakeholders and our customers.

2. Quality Assurance

Our Company is dedicated towards the quality of our products, processes and raw materials. We place significant importance on quality checks and controls and have a well-defined documented quality control system which is monitored at various stages, right from the procurement of raw material to processing, packaging and dispatch of our products. Our Company is accredited with ISO 9001:2015 – Quality Management System, ISO 14001:2015 – Environmental Management System, ISO 22000:2018 and HACCP – Food Safety Management System for manufacture of food and dairy products, HACCP – For processing and supplying of cashew nuts (WRG Certifications), OHSAS 45001:2018 – Occupational Health and Safety Management System, Halal Certification – For processing and supplying of cashew nuts. We have obtained FSSAI certificate from Food Safety and Standards (FSSA Act) 2006. In order to cater market demands and optimize plant capacity, we use AI-enabled sorting and grading system, this advanced technology enhances efficiency, accuracy, and productivity at processing thereby ensuring high-quality products that helps meets customer expectations. The quality of our products is critical to our success, and we are committed to maintaining quality standards with respect to the quality of the raw materials which we use. Further regular checks for quality review are also undertaken before the packaging stage at our processing facility to ensure the quality of the final products being packed and sold.

3. Diversify and Strengthen Supplier Base

To enhance supply chain resilience and reduce dependency on a limited number of suppliers, we plan to strategically diversify and expand our supplier base over the coming years. Currently, we rely significantly on a few suppliers, with Pajson Global DMCC accounting for 91.50% of our total purchases in FY 2024-25. Over the past few years, we have steadily increased our reliance on Pajson Global DMCC, but to mitigate supply chain risks, it is essential to diversify. Between April and August 2025, we engaged with four new independent suppliers, from whom we procured around 61% of our total purchases during this period, as certified by our statutory auditors dated August 30, 2025.

We will continue to focus on identifying and establishing relationships with additional suppliers, particularly those in regions that can offer cost-effective raw materials and consistent quality. Our goal is to gradually reduce the concentration of purchases from a single supplier and diversify across multiple suppliers. This will help ensure that we are not overly reliant on any one entity, providing us with better flexibility and security in our supply chain. Further, we will actively engage with suppliers from new geographies and regions, especially those offering competitive pricing and high-quality raw cashew nuts. By strategically selecting suppliers based on their ability to meet our quality standards, production timelines, and price competitiveness, we will enhance our procurement strategy. As we expand our supplier network, we will also foster closer relationships with existing suppliers to create long-term collaborations that align with our growth objectives. This approach will allow us to balance the existing relationships with new supplier partnerships, improving procurement efficiency and ensuring consistent product quality while mitigating risks associated with supplier concentration.

4. Scale up branding, promotional and digital activities for B2C brand “Royal Mewa”

As part of our growth strategy, we plan to significantly enhance the branding, promotional, and digital marketing efforts for our B2C brand, Royal Mewa. Launched in 2024, Royal Mewa offers a diverse portfolio of premium dry fruits, including cashews, almonds, pistachios, and raisins. To increase brand visibility and capture a larger share of the direct-to-consumer market, we aim to expand our digital marketing campaigns, influencer partnerships, and paid advertisements. Our digital agency, Bensi Marketing Consultants, plays a pivotal role in managing our online presence through:

- Social media account management
- Graphic design and video content creation
- Content distribution across digital platforms
- Micro-influencer engagement

We will also scale up the reach of Royal Mewa by focusing on e-commerce platforms like Amazon, Snapdeal, Meesho, and Jiomart, ensuring our products are easily accessible to a wide range of consumers. Our marketing approach is tailored to engage different customer segments through a mix of traditional wholesale markets, institutional partnerships, and export operations, while simultaneously strengthening our direct-to-consumer (D2C) channel. This multi-channel strategy is supported by dedicated sales teams and external marketing service providers, ensuring optimal distribution and customer engagement across all platforms.

5. Expand our International Presence

In FY 2024-25, our export revenue from the UAE market accounted for 2.71% of total revenue. We successfully tested our export capabilities and received positive feedback on product quality and packaging. However, due to high domestic demand, our export volumes have been limited to date. With the planned capacity expansion, we aim to focus on growing our export business. We will strengthen our international presence by enhancing our distribution network, establishing partnerships with local distributors, and utilizing e-commerce platforms to reach a broader audience. We will also tailor our marketing strategies to meet the specific needs of each market while ensuring compliance with international standards. This approach will allow us to scale our export operations and drive revenue growth from global markets.

Process flow of Raw Cashew Nuts (“RCN”)

The following is a representation of our cashew processing operations, illustrating the typical flow of activities involved in processing Raw Cashew Nuts (RCN). This process outlines each critical stage of execution, along with a detailed description of the procedures commonly employed at our facility:

Post-Peeling Segregation of Cashew Kernels:*

After the peeling stage, cashew kernels are segregated into two categories for further processing:

1. Whole Cashew Kernels:

- The peeled whole kernels are first passed through a color sorter.
- Approximately 18-20% of the kernels, which remain partially unpeeled, are redirected for manual peeling through job work. This is necessary because the automated peeling machines apply limited pressure to avoid breaking the delicate whole kernels.
- Before further grading, moisture testing and redrying are conducted to ensure optimal kernel quality.
- Finally, the dried kernels are processed through a Nanopix size separator for precise sizing.

2. Broken Cashew Kernels (Pieces):

- The peeled pieces are passed through a multi-grade size separator to classify them by size.
- The size-graded kernels then move to a color sorter to ensure uniformity in appearance.

- Moisture testing and redrying, if required, are conducted after both size grading and color sorting.

Raw Cashew Nut (RCN) Processing Flow

Cashew processing is a complex, multi-stage operation that transforms Raw Cashew Nuts (RCN) into market-ready kernels. In our semi - automated processing plant, we emphasize precision, hygiene, and efficiency, leveraging advanced machinery from global technology leaders. Following is the process follow:

1. RCN Handling and Pre-Processing:

- Incoming RCNs are inspected, weighed, and cleaned using vibratory sieves, air classifiers, and destoners to remove foreign materials (stones, dust, leaves).

2. Cooking and RCN sizing:

- RCNs are boiled using a continuous steam system ("Borma") at 100–120°C for 20–30 minutes to reduce moisture and loosen shells.
- Post-boiling, the nuts are left in silos for approximately 36 hours for cooling down to stabilize them before shelling.
- Cooked nuts are size graded into six sizes namely A+, A, B, C, D and E to improve processing consistency and quality.

3. Shelling, shell separation and shell colour sorting:

- The shelling process begins with nuts being automatically fed into high-precision Vietnamese shelling machines, which accurately orient each nut for cutting. These machines ensure consistent cutting angles and maintain a low kernel breakage ratio, preserving the integrity of the kernels. Built with stainless steel, for food-grade hygiene.
- After shelling, kernels and shells are separated using a combination of rotary screens, vibratory sieves, and air blowers for efficient removal of shell fragments. To ensure further quality control, the shelled kernels are passed through a color sorter to detect and remove any discolored, defective, or foreign particles before drying. If required, manual scooping is performed to eliminate any remaining shell residues, ensuring the product is clean and ready for the next stage.

4. Drying:

- After sorting, the kernels are transferred to the 1 MT stainless steel tray dryers, where they are loaded onto trolleys in trays, each holding approximately 1 metric ton per batch. The dryer uses uniform heated air circulation to ensure consistently drying across all trays. To facilitate the upcoming peeling process, a humidification system is used to adjust the moisture content of the kernels to an optimal range of 5–6%, which helps soften the testa (outer skin) without compromising kernel integrity.

5. Peeling:

- In the peeling stage, the kernels are sent to automated peeling machines, which use a combination of compressed air and friction rollers to gently remove the loosened cashew kernels skin. Despite the efficiency of the mechanical process, approximately 18-20% of the kernels may retain their skin due to the brittle nature of cashew kernels, which limits the pressure that can be applied. These remaining kernels are carefully peeled manually by trained woman labor to ensure quality and prevent breakage.

6. Sorting, Grading, Moisture Testing and Re-Drying:

After the peeling process, cashew kernels are categorized into two streams for further processing: whole kernels and broken pieces. This segregation allows for tailored handling and quality enhancement of each type, maintaining consistency in grading and packaging standards.

- 6.1 Whole Cashew Kernels: Peeled whole kernels are first directed to a color sorter, which identifies and removes discolored, spotted, or defective kernels. However, due to the delicate nature of whole kernels and the limited pressure applied by automated peeling machines, approximately 18-20% may remain partially unpeeled. These kernels are manually peeled by job workers to prevent breakage and ensure a clean finish. Before moving to size grading, the kernels undergo moisture testing. If moisture levels exceed the acceptable range (typically 3-5%), the kernels are transferred to Borma chambers for gentle redrying. Once properly dried, the whole kernels are passed through a Nanopix vision-based size grading system, which classifies them based on size and shape into categories such as W180, W210, W240, W320, W400 etc, This ensures uniformity and quality in the final product.
- 6.2 Broken Cashew Kernels (Pieces): Broken or split kernels are handled separately to maximize recovery and maintain visual appeal. These kernels first pass through a multi-grade size separator, which classifies them by piece size. The size-graded kernels are then sent through a color sorter to eliminate visual defects and ensure consistency in appearance. Unlike whole kernels, moisture testing and redrying for pieces are conducted after both size grading and color sorting. This sequence ensures that the final moisture content is within the desired range and that the appearance and integrity of the broken kernels are preserved before packaging.

7. Packaging and Dispatch:

- Once the kernels meet all required size, color, and moisture specifications, they are transferred to the packaging section, which is designed to handle multiple packaging formats including foil pouches, PET containers, aluminum tins, and paperboard cartons. The packaging process ensures consistency and efficiency across operations such as weighing, bagging, sealing, labeling, and batch coding for full product traceability. Depending on customer or export requirements, the kernels are either vacuum-packed or nitrogen-flushed to preserve freshness and extend shelf life, ensuring the product remains in optimal condition throughout storage and distribution.

Quality assurance is seamlessly integrated throughout the production cycle, with both in-line monitoring and laboratory testing conducted at all critical control points include shelling damage rate, moisture content, kernel grading accuracy, foreign material detection, and overall visual and structural appearance of the kernels. To enhance product safety and comply with international food standards, metal detectors are optionally deployed before final packing to detect and eliminate any metallic or dense foreign contaminants, ensuring that only safe, high-quality products reach the market.

Retail Packaging Process Flow – White Labeling (Royal Mewa): All retail packaging and white labeling activities are carried out at our dedicated packaging unit. The “Royal Mewa” brand is designed to deliver premium-quality dry fruits through customizable white labeling framework. With emphasis on precision, hygiene, and product consistency, our process seamlessly integrates every stage—from sourcing to branding—ensuring efficient delivery of retail-ready products tailored to client requirements. These products are currently available across both online and offline channels, including platforms like Amazon, JioMart, Meesho, and Snapdeal. Below is the brief process flow:

1. Dry fruits Sourcing: Cashews are directly procured from our in-house processing unit, ensuring full control over quality, traceability, and supply chain timelines. These kernels have already undergone shelling, grading, drying, and moisture control at our main facility before reaching the packaging unit. For other dry fruits (e.g., almonds, raisins, pistachios, walnuts), samples are first sourced from verified third-party suppliers. These samples are internally tested for quality parameters such as size, color, and moisture content, circulated to target customers for approval and bulk orders are placed only after customers approval.
2. Raw Material Handling & Cold Storage: Upon receipt, all dry fruits are re-verified for quality and compliance with approved standards. If not scheduled for immediate packaging, they are stored in a rented cold storage facility, which helps preserve freshness, prevent infestation, and maintain product quality until use.
3. Pre-Packaging Quality Check: Before entering the packaging line, all materials (cashews and other dry fruits) undergo visual and physical inspection and random sampling. This ensures that only quality-compliant products are used for branding under Royal Mewa.
4. Optional Roasting & Mixing: If customer orders include requests for roasting and flavoring (e.g., salted almonds, roasted cashew nuts), products are processed using our in-house roaster and cooled under controlled conditions to maintain quality and texture. For blended products such as trail mixes or dry fruit combos, raw or roasted ingredients are proportionately mixed in the industrial mixer as per the requirements of the customers. While the infrastructure for roasting and mixing is already in place, this capability is currently in the pilot phase and not yet commercialized.

5. Packaging Operations: Products are transferred to the packing line, which performs weighing, pouch or container forming & filling, sealing (standard, vacuum, or nitrogen flushed as required). Packaging sizes typically include 250gms, 500gms, and 1kg, based on order placed by customers.
6. Labeling & Branding: Packed units are labelled using labelling machines. Labels include: Royal Mewa branding and nutritional information, FSSAI license, MRP, batch codes, and expiry date etc.
7. Final Quality Control, Storage & Dispatch: Each batch undergoes final quality checks to ensure correct labeling and branding, accurate net weight and sealing. Products are either dispatched immediately or stored in cold storage until delivery schedules are finalized.

For the period starting from April 01, 2025 to October 31, 2025	Installed Capacity (in MT)	18,000.00 ^{Note3}
	Actual Production (in MT)	8,610.37 ^{Note4}
	Capacity Utilization (%)	47.84%

Notes

1. The installed capacity increased from 8,000 MT to 9,000 MT during FY 2024 due to expansion involving the installation of Nano Mayur Color Sorter, Cashew Shelling Line Machine, Cashew Peeling Machine, and RCN Calibration System into our production process.
2. The installed capacity increased from 9,000 MT to 12,000 MT during FY 2025, driven by the procurement of additional machines up to July 2024. The major equipment acquired included bormas, humidifiers and air compressors.
3. The installed capacity was further enhanced to 18,000 MT in May 2025, following the procurement of Plant & Machinery after August 2024. The major equipment procured included cashew peeling machines, nano color sorter, shelling machine, DG set and transformer. The installation of these machines was completed during March and April 2025.
4. As the enhanced installed capacity of 18,000 MT became operational only in April 2025, the production and capacity utilization figures for the period from April 01, 2025 to October 31, 2025 reflect a blended utilization of both the earlier and upgraded capacities. Since the upgraded capacity was operational for only Seven Months out of the 12 months during the year, The overall utilization for the Seven months period is 47.84% and has been proportionately annualized to reflect an equivalent utilization rate of 82.01% for the year.

Repair and Maintenance

Our Company adopts a structured and proactive approach to the repair and maintenance of processing facility. Regular maintenance and timely repairs are undertaken to ensure the efficient operation of machinery and to minimize the risk of unexpected breakdowns that could impact production schedules. We conduct periodic repair and maintenance programs at our facility. Maintenance and repair activities are carried out by our in-house machinery and electrical teams on a need-based and scheduled basis. In addition, our facility undergoes periodic inspections by our technical staff to identify and address any potential issues in a timely manner. This approach is intended to support operational continuity, maintain asset reliability, and extend the lifecycle of our plant and equipment.

Procurement and Raw Materials

The principal raw material used in the production process is Raw Cashew Nut (RCN), which is procured both domestically and through imports. We source imported RCNs from countries including Côte d'Ivoire (IVC), Benin, Ghana, Togo, Guinea-Bissau, Nigeria, and Tanzania. Imports are facilitated through our group company, Pajson Global DMCC, leveraging its established supply chain network. Procurement is carried out based on production planning requirements.

The price of RCN, which constitutes a key input in the production process, is subject to global price fluctuations. Variations in raw material pricing impact the overall cost of production. Our Company maintains a list of approved suppliers, evaluated and cleared by the internal quality control team in line with defined standards and customer requirements. All raw materials procured are subject to a quality assessment process to ensure compliance with applicable safety and specification parameters. To manage supply-related risks, our Company coordinates with our suppliers to support continuity and reliability of supply. Our Company does not generally enter into long-term supply contracts for procurement of raw materials. Instead, procurement is typically carried out under short-term arrangements, usually initiated around two to four months prior to the estimated requirement. Our Company maintains an inventory of raw materials sufficient for approximately four to five months of operations. Inventory planning is based on historical sales trends, confirmed sales orders, production schedules, and anticipated delivery timelines. Finished goods are stored at our plant.

Imported RCN shipments primarily arrive at the Visakhapatnam port between May to August. The RCNs are stored in warehouse facilities from arrival until approximately till the month of December or January, subject to variation based on shipping schedules. Post this period, the volume of imports declines, leading to reduced storage utilization. Due to the seasonal nature of imports and related storage requirements, our Company enters into short-term rental agreements for warehouse facilities during peak periods. Preference is given to port-based warehouses. We have executed lease and license agreement with Sravan Shipping Services Private Limited for use of warehouse facility, with charges calculated on a per-month/per-metric-ton basis. In the event that port-based storage is unavailable, third-party warehouses are engaged under short-term rental arrangements.

In FY 2025, we recorded revenue from operations of ₹18,726.83 lakhs, as compared to ₹9591.21 lakhs in FY 2024 and ₹10,111.88 lakhs in FY 2023. Our total cost of material consumed during these periods amounted to ₹12,341.68 lakhs in FY 2025, ₹7,537.46 lakhs in FY 2024, and ₹8,151.51 lakhs in FY 2023. As a proportion of our revenue from operations, material consumption costs accounted for 66% in FY 2025, reflecting a reduction from 79% in FY 2024 and 81% in FY 2023. This trend indicates an improvement in our material cost efficiency over the years.

Quality Control

Our Company has implemented quality control systems across various stages of operations, including procurement, storage, processing, and distribution. These systems are designed to ensure that kernels conform to applicable standards and regulatory requirements in the cashew processing industry. We have established internal quality management processes to manage product consistency, food safety, and compliance risks. These include in-house checks for raw material selection, grading, sorting, and final inspection of cashew kernels. Our certifications include:

- ISO 9001:2015 – Quality Management System
- ISO 14001:2015 – Environmental Management System
- ISO 22000:2018 and HACCP – Food Safety Management System for manufacture of food and dairy products
- HACCP – For processing and supplying of cashew nuts (WRG Certifications)
- OHSAS 45001:2018 – Occupational Health and Safety Management System
- Halal Certification – For processing and supplying of cashew nuts

We conduct regular water quality tests for key parameters such as odour, colour, conductivity, and hardness. This water is primarily used in steam roasting and shell separation processes. Further, in compliance with the Legal Metrology Act, 2009, weighing equipment including weighbridges and weight stones are verified annually by the Legal Metrology Officer. These practices form part of our ongoing efforts to ensure compliance with applicable quality, safety, and environmental standards.

Logistics

In the case of imported Raw Cashew Nuts (RCN), our contracts are typically structured on CIF (Cost, Insurance, and Freight) or CFR (Cost and Freight) terms, under which the supplier delivers the goods to the Vishakhapatnam Port and Gangavaram Port. Once customs clearance is completed, transportation from the port to our processing facility is managed by our logistics partner, Sravan Shipping Services Private Limited, with whom we have entered into a Customs House Agent (CHA) agreement. They coordinate trucking and delivery schedules in line with our operational needs.

For delivery of finished kernels, we utilize a mix of transportation services, including providers such as VRL Logistics Limited, Andhra Pradesh State Bus Cargo Service, local transport operators, and digital logistics platforms like delhivery. The mode of transportation is selected based on the delivery location and customer preferences. In some cases, customers choose to collect goods using their own vehicles.

With respect to by-products, including cashew shells, husk, and rejections, we arrange for transportation; however, the cost is borne by the customer, as these sales are executed on an ex-factory basis.

Inventory Management

Our finished products and raw materials are primarily stored on-site at our processing facility in Andhra Pradesh. During peak season, if necessary, we also utilize third-party warehouses for storing raw cashew nuts (RCN) and cold storage facilities in Delhi for finished goods. We produce finished products based on a combination of confirmed and expected orders. In some cases, according to customer demand we hold strategic stock, so our lead times can be reduced according to our inventory policy with customers to ensure better supply chain management. The table below sets forth details of our inventory and the inventory turnover days for the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Inventories (₹ lakhs)	6,959.46	1,403.92	2,206.72	2,566.07
Inventory turnover days*	93	48	116	70

* Inventory turnover days is calculated as Cost of Goods Sold divided by Average Inventory multiplied by number of days in a year.

Pricing

We determine the prices for our products based on various parameters, including market demand, supply, transportation costs, inventory levels, credit terms. We have the capability to meet the needs of some customers of fixed price contracts for a given period. We maintain the flexibility to adjust pricing based on market conditions, variation in weather conditions and customer requirements. Further, regular cost reviews are conducted to ensure pricing decisions are based on up-to-date cost information. We also conduct market research and competitive analysis to understand prevailing market prices, industry trends, and customer expectations. Competitor pricing, product quality, and positioning are considered to establish competitive and differentiated pricing strategies.

Research and Development

We undertake research and development activities to improve our processing efficiency and optimize the realization value of cashew kernels from raw cashew nuts (RCNs). Our focus includes enhancing the proportion of whole cashew kernels obtained during processing, reducing kernel loss, and minimizing contamination during handling. As part of this process, we identify areas within our operations where technology upgradation or machinery replacement is required.

In FY 2023, we carried out a significant upgradation of our processing infrastructure, including the replacement of shelling machines and colour sorters. These changes were implemented to improve kernel output quality and operational efficiency. The shelling machines, which form a critical part of the processing line, were replaced in November 2023 along with the installation of new colour sorting systems.

The outcomes of these upgrades include:

- An increase in the proportion of whole cashew kernels which resulted in improved realization, as whole kernels command a higher market value than broken pieces.

- A reduction in product contamination, previously attributed to the use of multiple conveyors. The removal of conveyors has reduced contamination levels.
- A measurable reduction in kernel loss during the shelling process.
- An overall improvement in product quality, which has positively contributed to per-kg realization.

The impact of these changes is reflected in our average sales Realisation per kg of Raw Cashew Nuts consumed, which increased from ₹119.23 in FY 2023 to ₹122.15 in FY 2024 and ₹147.32 in FY 2025.

The table below sets forth our capital expenditure incurred to expand and upgrade our existing processing facilities:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Capital expenditure* towards Property, plant and equipment (₹ lakhs)	1,281.13	653.88	550.72	43.17
Increase/(Decrease) in Capital work in progress (₹ lakhs)	(306.87)	306.64	0.22	Nil
Total Capital Expenditure (₹ lakhs)	974.26	960.52	550.95	43.17
Total Capital expenditure as a % of revenue from operations	8.23%	5.13%	5.74%	0.43%

*Capital expenditure pertains to additions to freehold land, Leasehold Improvements, Buildings, Plant and Machinery, Office Equipment, Furniture & Fittings, Vehicles, Computers and Electrical Installations & Fittings during the relevant Fiscal.

 Increase/(Decrease) in capital work in progress is calculated as the closing balance less the opening balance of capital work in progress for the relevant financial year.

We carry out product development based on customer requirements. A cross-functional team leads these efforts by interacting with customers and industry stakeholders to identify operational or product-related gaps and resolve them through process improvements. After research and development, we introduced the "Royal Mewa" brand to offer dry fruits through a customizable white labeling model, focusing on hygiene, consistency, and meeting client specifications. In FY 2025, we generated ₹66.13 lakhs revenue from the Royal Mewa brand.

Utilities

Our registered office and packaging unit is in Delhi, and our processing plant is situated at Andhra Pradesh. All locations are equipped with the necessary infrastructure to support business operations, including computing systems, broadband internet connectivity (via Airtel), and essential communication and security systems.

Power and Fuel

The primary source of electricity for our processing plant is the Eastern Power Distribution Company of Andhra Pradesh Limited (APEPDCL). We currently avail a sanctioned load of approximately 950 kilowatts for operational purposes, which includes powering boilers, machinery, and other equipment. To ensure operational continuity during power outages, we have installed two standby diesel generator (DG) sets of 500 KVA capacity each. Additionally, biomass briquettes and firewood are used as supplementary fuel sources in the processing operations, particularly in heating applications such as steam roasting of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs) and dryer after deshelling of RCN. Power for our registered office and packaging unit located in Delhi is supplied by TATA Power Delhi Distribution Limited. The following table sets forth our Electricity & Diesel Expenses in the years indicated:

Particulars	For the period ended September 30, 2025	FY 2025	FY 2024	FY 2023
Electricity & Diesel Expenses (₹ lakhs)	203.33	266.62	221.68	214.65
Electricity & Diesel Expenses as a % of revenue from operations	1.72%	1.42%	2.31%	2.12%

Water

Water is utilised at various stages of the cashew processing cycle, including the cooking of Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs). At our processing facility, water is sourced through borewells and is used for both industrial operations and drinking purposes. No alternative water source is currently available at the processing location. Regular water quality testing is carried out to monitor key parameters such as odour, colour, conductivity, and total hardness, in line with operational and safety requirements. For human consumption, packaged drinking water is used at the registered office and at processing unit RO plant is installed.

Information Technology

We maintain an information technology infrastructure to support our business operations. Our IT systems allow us to track raw material procurement, finished goods sales, vendor payments, and customer receivables. We use Tally Accounting & Billing Software for accounting, e-invoicing, and e-way bills. We also use customized software from Islara Tech Solution Private Limited for payroll, including attendance and wage calculation for factory workers. Our domain is <https://pajsonagro.com/>.

Environment, Health & Safety

We are committed to ensuring that our operations are conducted in compliance with applicable environmental, health, and safety regulations. Our processing plant is equipped with Effluent Treatment Plant (ETP), Sewage Treatment Plant (STP) with mud and monoblock pumps, water softening systems, and reverse osmosis (RO) units to manage waste and water treatment requirements. We have adopted standard operating procedures for production process, aimed at maintaining a safe workplace and reducing environmental impact.

Our employees and workers are provided with necessary safety equipment including gloves, masks, and protective footwear, and we conduct regular inspections and maintenance to support safe and efficient operations. We are, in all material respects, compliant with relevant environmental and occupational safety laws. We have obtained, or are in the process of obtaining or renewing, all material environmental consents, licenses, and approvals required for our operations. For further details, please see the chapters titled "Government and other Statutory Approvals".

Human resource

Our employees are fundamental to the success and sustainability of our business operations. We believe that a strong, committed, and skilled workforce is a key driver of our performance and competitive advantage in the cashew processing industry. Accordingly, we focus on recruiting and retaining personnel who possess the technical expertise, domain knowledge, and aptitude necessary to meet the operational and strategic needs of our Company.

As on July 31, 2025, we employed an aggregate of 465 permanent employees, of which 449 employees were employed at our cashew processing plant, 11 employees at our Registered Office, and 5 employees at our packaging unit. Approximately 91.18 % of our workforce comprises female employees. Our employees are deployed across various operational and support functions critical to the cashew processing value chain, including procurement of raw cashew nuts and other inputs, shelling, peeling, and grading of cashew nuts, sales and import/export, quality control and assurance, inventory and warehouse management, packaging, storage, and dispatch, technical and engineering support, general administration, finance, accounting and secretarial compliance.

Guided and supervised by our directors, our workforce comprises a balanced blend of experienced professionals and young talent. This combination affords us the dual advantage of stability and growth. The dedication of our team, along with their diverse skill sets ranging from skilled to semi-skilled and unskilled, coupled with our management team, has facilitated the successful implementation of our growth strategies.

At present, our employees are not unionized, and we have not encountered any work disruptions, strikes, lockouts, or other forms of employee unrest. We maintain cordial relations with our employees. We uphold stringent safety standards in our facilities to ensure that our employees are not exposed to any hazards, prioritizing their well-being and security.

In addition to our full-time employees, we frequently hire workers on a contractual basis, to support various auxiliary functions that are essential to the cashew processing cycle. These functions include the movement of raw and processed cashew pallets, manual peeling of kernels, assistance in the boiling and drying sections, operation of conveyor systems, loading and unloading of materials, and general housekeeping activities. The actual number of contract workers may vary

Sales & Marketing Strategy

Our Company believes that the quality of our products is up to the mark and that's the major reason for being awarded with the orders. Our Sales and Marketing strategy focuses on enhancing revenue streams by leveraging established relationships and building competitive advantage through quality product offerings. Further, our marketing strategy is structured around a customer-centric approach to business development that is strongly oriented to the customer's specifications and satisfaction. We operate through a multi-channel sales and distribution structure comprising four key verticals: Wholesale Mandis, Institutional Sales, Exports, and the B2C brand, Royal Mewa.

1. Wholesale Mandis:

The wholesale mandi segment contributes significantly to domestic distribution. We are operational in 19 states and 3 Union Territories. We work with mandi traders who possess established networks and handle both whole and broken cashew grades. We have a dedicated sales team who are responsible not only for executing sales and meeting defined targets but also for delivering customer service, resolving grievances, and maintaining ongoing business relationships. In FY 2024–25, the largest contribution to revenue came from Delhi, accounting for 27.69% of total revenue, followed by Andhra Pradesh at 22.77% and Rajasthan at 12.69%. These three regions together contributed approximately 63.15% of total revenue during the year. Other significant contributors included Haryana (7.03%), Gujarat (5.89%), Uttar Pradesh (5.50%), Punjab (4.49%), and Maharashtra (3.06%). Revenue from emerging markets such as Kerala, Jammu & Kashmir, and Madhya Pradesh also increased in FY 2024–25, indicating a broadening customer base. Compared to FY 2023–24, there was an increase in absolute revenue from most states, with notable gains in Gujarat, Uttar Pradesh, and Maharashtra. Upon the implementation of the proposed capacity expansion, we intend to expand our operations into existing states and enter additional states identified as having high market potential, thereby enhancing our overall market reach.

2. Institutional Sales:

We supply our products to a range of institutional customers, including entities such as Bikanervala, More Retail, Nutraj, Farmley, Reliance Retail, and Haldiram, among others. The institutional segment encompasses modern retail chains, snack and sweet manufacturers, dry fruit brands, food processors, and businesses operating in the HoReCa (Hotels, Restaurants, and Catering) sector. These customers typically have defined specifications for product grade and quality, and their procurement decisions are driven by consistency, reliability, and compliance with predefined standards. We are actively working to expand our institutional revenue base. Over the past three financial years, revenue from this segment has grown significantly—from ₹141.38 lakhs in FY 2022–23 to ₹3,910.60 lakhs in FY 2024–25. This growth reflects deeper market penetration and increasing demand from institutional buyers.

3. Export Markets

We successfully tested our export capabilities by entering the UAE market, receiving encouraging acceptance of our product quality and packaging standards. However, due to demand in the domestic market, our export volumes have so far been limited. With the proposed capacity expansion, we aim to strategically build our export business.

4. B2C – Royal Mewa

Royal Mewa, the consumer brand, was launched in 2024. The brand's portfolio includes cashews, almonds, pistachio, raisins. Products are available through various e-commerce platforms including Amazon, Snapdeal, Meesho, Jiomart. Royal Mewa's promotional activities include digital marketing campaigns, influencer engagement, and paid advertisements. We manage brand visibility and customer engagement through our digital agency, Bensi Marketing Consultants who is responsible for our:

- Social media account management
- Graphic design and video content creation
- Content posting across digital platforms
- Micro-influencer engagement

We have deployed a segmented approach to sales and marketing, enabling access to multiple customer categories through distinct channels. The strategy includes presence in traditional wholesale markets, institutional partnerships, export operations, and direct-to-consumer channels. Distribution is supported by dedicated teams and external marketing service providers.

Competition

India is one of the leading producers and consumers of cashew nuts globally. The cashew processing industry in India consists of both organised and unorganised participants operating across various regions. Our Company operates in this competitive environment and faces competition at both domestic and international levels. Entities engaged in cashew processing, including our Company, are subject to various business challenges, including pricing dynamics, quality standards, and supply chain requirements. We compete with domestic and international companies, which include both small-scale enterprises and large, diversified organisations. Some of these competitors may have access to higher financial resources, broader technical capabilities, more extensive product development infrastructure, wider distribution and marketing networks, and stronger brand recognition. Raw Cashew Nuts (RCNs), a key input for our operations, are primarily sourced from the African continent. The procurement of RCNs requires an established international supply chain and adequate working capital availability to ensure timely purchases. These operational requirements can create entry barriers; however, companies with sufficient access to capital and established sourcing channels may be able to enter or scale within this segment more easily. Our operations rely on sourcing support from our group company, Pajson Global DMCC, which facilitates procurement and supply chain continuity. While the cashew processing industry remains competitive, we continue to operate based on our current sourcing capabilities, diverse customer base and processing infrastructure.

Export and export obligations

As on the date of this Prospectus, our Company does not have any outstanding export obligations. However, our Company is engaged in export activities and, as a result, is eligible to receive certain benefits and incentives provided by the Government of India. These benefits are primarily granted under the Remission of Duties and Taxes on Exported Products (RoDTEP) scheme and the Duty Drawback scheme. These incentives aim to reimburse exporters for various embedded taxes and duties incurred during the production and export of goods, thereby enhancing export competitiveness. The details of the export-related incentives received by our Company under the schemes during FY 2024-2025 are Rs. 8.20 lakhs.

Collaboration

As on date of this Prospectus, our Company has not entered into any technical or financial collaboration agreements.

Insurance

As a cashew processing company, our operations are exposed to various risks commonly associated with manufacturing and industrial activities. These include, but are not limited to, equipment malfunction, workplace accidents, fire, earthquakes, floods, acts of terrorism, explosions, and other force majeure events. Such incidents may result in injury or loss of life, significant damage to or destruction of physical assets, and potential environmental harm.

To mitigate the financial impact of such risks, we have obtained comprehensive insurance coverage for our operational assets and inventory. Our Company has secured the following insurance policies: Standard Fire & Special Perils Policy, Burglary Insurance Policy, Marine Export-Import Insurance Open Policy. These policies provide coverage for a wide range of assets critical to our operations, including Buildings, including plinths, basements, and additional structures, Plant and Machinery, Furniture, Fixtures, and Fittings, Electrical and Mechanical Equipment, Stock of Raw Cashew Nuts and Other Dry Fruits, Finished Goods and Stock-in-Process related to our insured trade activities.

These insurance policies are periodically reviewed and renewed to ensure that the coverage remains adequate and in line with prevailing industry standards. The policies are underwritten by reputed insurance providers, and we believe the terms and coverage are consistent with customary practices in our sector. Industry Specific Regulations

The Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 ("FSSA") and the regulations framed thereunder

The FSSA was enacted on August 23, 2006, repealing and replacing the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954. The FSSA pursues to consolidate the laws relating to food and establish the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India ("FSSAI") for laying down scientific standards for articles of food and to regulate their manufacture, storage, distribution, sale and import to ensure availability of safe and wholesome food for human consumption, and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The standards prescribed by the FSSAI include specifications for food additives, flavourings, processing aids and materials in contact with food, ingredients, contaminants, pesticide residue, biological hazards and labels. Under the provisions of the FSSA, no person may carry on any food business except under a license granted by the FSSAI. The FSSA sets forth the requirements for licensing and registering food businesses in addition to laying down the general principles for safety, responsibilities and liabilities of food business operators.

In exercise of powers under the FSSA, the FSSAI has also framed the Food Safety and Standards Rules, 2011 ("FSSR"). The FSSR sets out the enforcement structure of 'commissioner of food safety', 'the food safety officer' and 'the food analyst' and procedures of taking extracts, seizure, sampling and analysis. The FSSA also lays down penalties for various offences, including recall procedures. The Food Safety and Standards (Licensing and Registration of Food Businesses) Regulations, 2011 provides for the conditions and procedures for registration and licensing process for food business and lays down general requirements to be fulfilled by various Food Business Operators ("FBOs"), including petty FBOs as well as specific requirements to be fulfilled by businesses dealing with certain food products.

In terms of the Food Safety and Standards (Food Recall Procedure) Regulations, 2017, every FBO engaged in manufacture, importation or wholesale supply of food is required to have a food recall plan. The packaging done by a FBO is required to comply with the Food Safety and Standards (Packaging) Regulations, 2018, while labelling and display of pre-packaged food items must comply with the Food Safety and Standards (Labelling and Display) Regulations, 2020.

According to the Food Safety and Standards (Licensing and Registration of Food Business) Amendment Regulations, 2018, an e-commerce FBO (which includes sellers and brand owner who display or offer their food products, through e-commerce, and providers of transportation services for the food products and/or providing last mile delivery transportation to the end consumers), is required to obtain central license from the concerned central licensing authority.

Prevention of Black Marketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980

This Act empowers the Central and State Governments to prevent activities such as hoarding, black marketing, and profiteering in essential commodities by allowing for preventive detention of individuals involved in such practices. The Act is particularly invoked in situations where market manipulation threatens the availability of essential commodities to the general public.

Although cashew nuts are not currently classified as "essential commodities" under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955, the relevance of this Act to the cashew processing industry arises in the context of:

- Supply chain disruptions of raw cashew nuts (RCNs) or edible oil (used in processing),
- Hoarding of essential inputs or packaging materials that are declared essential,
- Government notifications during price-sensitive periods, where processed or semi-processed food products may be temporarily brought under regulatory purview to maintain price stability.

Accordingly, any undue accumulation, non-disclosure of stock, or artificial price inflation of commodities essential to the food processing sector (including by processors, traders, or distributors) may attract action under this Act.

Legal Metrology Act, 2009 ("Legal Metrology Act")

The Legal Metrology Act seeks to establish and enforce standards of weights and measures, regulate trade and commerce in weights, measures and other goods which are sold or distributed by weight, measure or number and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The Act provides that for prescribed specifications for all weights and measures used by an entity to be based on metric system based on the international system of units only.

Legal Metrology (Packaged Commodities) Amendment Rules, 2017 ("Packaged Commodity Rules")

The Packaged Commodity Rules have amended the Legal metrology (Packaged Commodities) Rules, 2011 and lays down specific provisions applicable to packages intended for whole-sale, retail sale, and for export and import. Pursuant to the packaged Commodity Rules, any pre-packaged commodity sold for use and consumption by the citizens must properly mention several details such as, the description and quantity of ingredients, date of manufacturing, date of expiry (for items prone to expiration), weight, statutory warnings, manufacturer address, contact and some other info like consumer care details, country of origin, etc.

Consumer Protection Act, 2019 (the "Consumer Protection Act") and rules made thereunder

The Consumer Protection Act was designed and enacted to provide simpler and quicker access to redress consumer grievances. It seeks, amongst other things, to promote and protect the interests of consumers against deficiencies and defects in goods or services and secure the rights of a consumer against unfair trade practices, which may be practiced by manufacturers, service providers and traders. The definition of "consumer" under the Consumer Protection Act includes persons engaged in offline or online transactions through electronic means or by tele-shopping or direct-selling or multi-level marketing. It provides for the establishment of consumer disputes redressal forums and commissions for the purpose of redressal of consumer grievances. The accounting policies have been framed, keeping in view the fundamental accounting assumptions of Going Concern, Consistency and Accrual, as also basic considerations of Prudence, Substance over form, and Materiality. These have been applied consistently, except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision in the existing accounting standards require a revision in the accounting policy so far in use. The need for such a revision is evaluated on an ongoing basis.

2. Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with the generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities as at the balance sheet date, the results of operation during the reported period and disclosure of contingent liabilities as on the reporting date. Management believes that the estimates used in the preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable and are in their best knowledge of current event and actions. Actual results could differ from these estimates and differences between actual results and estimates are recognized in the period in which the results are known or materialize. Significant estimates used by the management in the preparation of these financial statements include provision for employee benefits,

Revenue is recognised once the performance obligation has been met. This is deemed to be when the goods have been collected by, or delivered to, the customer in accordance with the agreed delivery terms.

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured in accordance with AS-9, Revenue Recognition as prescribed by ICAI. Sales are recognized on accrual basis, and only after transfer of goods to the customer.

Interest Income: Interest Income is recognized on accrual basis after taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

2. Inventories

Cost includes purchase price, other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition, and includes non-refundable taxes. The cost is determined on the basis of First in First Out method. Cost of conversion are allocated on finished goods on the relative sales value of each product at the completion of production. Materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost if the finished goods in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost. Obsolete, slow moving and defective inventories are identified at the time of physical verification and wherever necessary a provision is made.

Cost of work-in-progress includes appropriate proportion of overhead.

Finished goods are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of inventories of finished goods includes cost of raw materials, direct and indirect overheads which are incurred to bring the inventories to their present location and condition.

By-products are valued at net realisable value.

Stock in trade are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost of stock-in-trade includes cost of purchase and other cost incurred in bringing the inventories to the present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

Goods in Transit are valued at cost. Cost includes purchase price, other costs to be incurred in bringing the inventories to their destination.

3. Foreign Currency Transaction:

i. Initial Recognition:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded, on initial recognition in the reporting currency, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

ii. Measurement:

Foreign currency monetary items are reported using the closing rate.

Non-monetary items which are carried in terms of historical cost denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

Non-monetary items which are carried at fair value or other similar valuation denominated in a foreign currency are reported using the exchange rates that existed when the values were determined.

iii. Treatment of Foreign Exchange:

Exchange differences arising on settlement/ restatement of foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company are recognized as income or expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

4. Employee Benefits

Short-term employee benefits

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits and are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related services.

Post-employment benefits

Defined benefit plans

The Company's gratuity is a defined benefit plan. The Company's net obligation in respect of a defined benefit plan is calculated by estimating the amount of future benefit that employees have earned in return for their service in the current and prior periods; that benefit is discounted to determine its present value. Any unrecognized past service costs and the fair value of any plan assets are deducted. The calculation of the Company's obligation is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method.

The Company recognizes all actuarial gains and losses arising from defined benefit plans immediately in the Statement of Profit and Loss. All expenses related to defined benefit plans are recognized in employee benefits expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss. When the benefits of a plan are improved, the portion of the increased benefit related to past service by employees is recognized in Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight line basis over the average period until the benefits become vested. The Company recognizes gains and losses on the curtailment or settlement of a defined benefit plan when curtailment or settlement occurs.

Defined contribution plans

The Company makes specified monthly contributions towards employees' provident fund, employees' state insurance and superannuation fund schemes, which are defined contribution plans. The Company's contribution is recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss during the period in which employee renders the related service.

Other long-term benefits

Compensated absences

The employees can carry forward a portion of the unutilised accrued compensated absences and utilise it in future service periods or receive cash compensation on termination of employment. Since the compensated absences do not fall due wholly within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service and are also not expected to be utilized wholly within twelve months after the end of such period, the benefit is classified as long-term employee benefits.

Liability with respect to compensated absences is determined based on an actuarial valuation done by an independent actuary at the year end.

5. Borrowing Costs

Borrowing cost includes interest and amortisation of ancillary costs incurred in connection with the arrangement of borrowings. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale capitalised as part of the cost of the respective asset. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they occur.

6. Accounting for Taxes on Income

Tax expense comprises of current and deferred tax. Current income tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Income-tax Act, 1961 enacted in India. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date.

Deferred income taxes reflect the impact of timing differences between taxable income and accounting income originating during the current year and reversal of timing differences for the earlier years. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable timing differences. Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible timing differences only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realized. In situations where the Company has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realized against future taxable profits.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date. The company writes-down the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which deferred tax asset can be realized. Any such write-down is reversed to the extent that it becomes reasonably certain or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient future taxable income will be available.

7. Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they are entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events such as bonus issue, share split and reverse share split (consolidation of shares) that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

8. Property, Plant and Equipment and Depreciation

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and / or accumulated impairment loss, if any. The cost of property, plant and equipment includes non-refundable taxes and duties, freight and other incidental expenses related to the acquisition and installation of the respective items of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent expenditures related to an item of property, plant and equipment are added to its book value only if they increase the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. All other expenses on existing property, plant and equipment, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the statement of profit and loss for the year during which such expenses are incurred.

Depreciation on tangible assets is provided on the straight-line method. Depreciation is provided over the useful lives of assets estimated by the management which are equal to the useful lives prescribed under Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013.

Category	Useful Life
Computer & Accessories	3 years
Furniture & Fittings	10 years
Building	30 years
Plant & Machinery	15 years
Vehicles – Motor Car	8 years

The useful lives are reviewed by the management periodically and revised, if appropriate. In case of a revision, the unamortised depreciable amount is charged over the revised remaining useful life.

Depreciation on additions to property, plant and equipment is provided on pro-rata basis from the date the assets are ready for use. Depreciation on sale / deletion from property, plant and equipment is provided up to the date of sale / deletion.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognized from the financial statements on disposal or when no further benefit is expected from its use and disposal.

Gains or losses arising from derecognition of property, plant and equipment are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit and loss when the asset is derecognised.

Capital work in-progress represents expenditure incurred in respect of assets which are yet to be brought to its working condition for its intended use and are carried at cost. Cost includes related acquisition expenses, construction or development cost, borrowing costs capitalised and other direct expenditure.

9. Intangible assets and amortisation

Intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and / or accumulated impairment loss, if any. Intangible assets are recognised when the asset is identifiable, is within the control of the Company, it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the asset will flow to the Company and cost of the asset can be reliably measured.

Intangible assets are amortised on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013. The amortisation expense on intangible assets with finite lives is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Computer software is amortised over six years and other intangibles (including goodwill) are amortised over a period of five years. The estimated useful life of intangible assets is reviewed by management at each Balance Sheet date.

Amortisation is provided on a pro-rata basis i.e. from the date on which asset is ready for use.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use and disposal. Losses arising from retirement and gains or losses arising from disposal of an intangible asset are measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

10. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

A provision is created when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. When there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made. Contingent assets are neither recognised nor disclosed in the financial statements. However, contingent assets are assessed continually and if it is virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise, the asset and related income are recognised in the period in which the change occurs.

11. Impairment of Assets

The carrying amounts of property, plant and equipment including intangible assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, the assets' recoverable amount is estimated, as the higher of the net selling price and the value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss is recognised whenever the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount. If at the Balance Sheet date, there is an indication that a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciable historical cost. Reversal of impairment loss is recognized immediately as income in the profit and loss account.

Revenue from operations increased significantly in Fiscal 2025, primarily due to a sharp rise in revenue from Cashew Kernels, which grew from ₹8,722.57 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹16,710.80 Lakhs.

The above growth is due to significant technology upgradation in its shelling section, which is considered the most critical stage of cashew processing. The new shelling machines, sourced from Vietnam, represent the latest and most advanced technology available globally for raw cashew nut (RCN) processing. The Raw Cashew Nuts processing increased from 7,754.49 MT in FY 2024 to 10,416.94 MT in FY 25.

The company enhanced operational efficiency, improving yield and product quality. Continuous improvements in production and sales capabilities enabled it to secure better pricing for its products. Strengthened customer trust drove higher demand, attracting new large clients who were earlier hesitant. Consequently, state-wise sales increased directly, reflecting sustained growth and market acceptance of the company's offerings, while ensuring competitiveness and long-term business expansion.

There is enhancement in yield of whole kernels, as prior to the upgradation, the Company achieved approximately 90% wholes after shelling whereas with the installation of the new machines, the yield of whole kernels increased to nearly 98%, translating into an incremental 8% production of whole kernels. Also, the realisation also increased and this cause to increase in revenue.

Other Income

Other income had decreased by ₹11.38 Lakhs from ₹12.49 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹1.11 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025 due to Foreign Exchange Loss in Fiscal 2025 while there was Foreign Exchange Gain of ₹11.04 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024.

Cost of Material Consumed

The cost of material consumed is increased by ₹4,804.22 from ₹ 7,537.46 lakhs in FY 24 to ₹12,341.68 in FY 25 due to increase in purchase of Raw material.

Purchase of stock in trade

Purchase of stock in trade increased in Fiscal 2025 by ₹1168.49 Lakhs as the company commenced its trading operation.

Employee Benefit Expenses

Employee benefit expenses has increased by 17.49% from ₹791.31 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹929.68 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. This was primarily due to increase in Salary & Wages from ₹609.26 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹720.72 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. Employee Benefit expenses increased relatively lesser than the increase in Revenue from operations thereby resulting in increased operational efficiency of the company.

Finance Cost

Finance Cost had increased by ₹140.60 Lakhs from ₹14.76 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹155.36 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. This was primarily due to increase in Interest on Borrowings from Bank from ₹0.89 lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹78.56 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025 & increase in Interest on Borrowings to Related Party from ₹1.63 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹54.00 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025.

Depreciation and Amortization Expenses

Depreciation and Amortization had increased by 43.32% from ₹96.59 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹138.44 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. This was primarily due to addition of plant and machinery of ₹560.90 Lakhs by our Company during Fiscal 2025.

Other Expenses

Other expenses increased by 41.08% from ₹737.17 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹1,071.19 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. The increase was primarily due to increase in Electricity & Diesel Expenses by ₹44.94 Lakhs, Job Work Charges by ₹58.60 Lakhs, Freight & Cartage Charges by ₹33.14 Lakhs, etc. in Fiscal 2025.

Tax Expenses

The Company's tax expenses had increased by ₹564.41 Lakhs from ₹126.90 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹691.31 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. This was primarily due to increase in current tax expenses during the year which got increased from ₹28.54 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹656.11 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025.

Profit after Tax

In Fiscal 2025, the Company reported a net profit of ₹2041.72 Lakhs attributable to owners, marking a significant increase from ₹335.31 lakhs in Fiscal 2024. This growth was primarily driven by an increase in revenue from operation, which rose from ₹9,591.21 Lakhs in Fiscal 2024 to ₹18,726.83 Lakhs in Fiscal 2025. As the revenue increased due to higher production volume as the processing of Raw cashew nuts increase from 7472.55 MT in FY 24 to 10,960 MT in FY 25. The substantial increase in volume directly enhanced the overall profitability.

Further, cost of production also reduced as with higher production volumes, average expenses per kg of RCN processed is reduced.

Also, earlier shelling process often caused kernels to remain partially stuck in the shell due to imprecise cutting, resulting in wastage and reduced recoveries and with the new machines, high-precision cutting ensures that kernels are fully recovered, minimizing losses and improving overall efficiency. All these leads to increase in profitability.

During Fiscal 2024, the Company recorded revenue from operations amounting to ₹9,591.21 Lakhs, as compared to ₹10,111.88 Lakhs in Fiscal 2023, representing a marginal decrease.

The decline in our revenue during FY24, compared to FY23, was primarily driven by two factors:

1. Temporary Suspension of Production (October–November 2023):

To strengthen our long-term operational capabilities, we undertook a planned machinery upgrade during October–November 2023. This required a temporary suspension of production, which had a short-term impact on revenue. However, this investment was necessary to significantly enhance operational efficiency, improve yield, and ensure better quality output, which will result in higher realizations and improved profitability in the years ahead.

2. Lower Contribution from RCN Trading:

Our core business focus remains cashew processing. Raw Cashew Nut (RCN) trading is an opportunistic activity that we engage in only when favourable customer demand and pricing opportunities align. In FY23, we undertook RCN trading worth ₹1,055.76 lakhs, whereas in FY24, this was ₹355.09 lakhs. The lower trading volume in FY24 also contributed to the overall dip in revenue.

Conclusion:

While these two factors led to a short-term revenue decline in FY24, they are aligned with our strategy of prioritizing long-term value creation over short-term gains. With upgraded machinery now in place and a sharper focus on efficiency and quality, we are well positioned to achieve stronger, more sustainable growth in the coming years.

Finance Cost

Finance Cost had increased by 4.61% from ₹14.11 lakhs in Fiscal 2023 to ₹14.76 lakhs in Fiscal 2024. These expenses increased primarily due to Total Borrowings of ₹ 1457.39 lakhs in Fiscal 2024.

Depreciation and Amortization Expenses

Depreciation and Amortization had increased by 3.26% from ₹93.54 lakhs in Fiscal 2023 to ₹96.59 lakhs in Fiscal 2024. This was primarily due to addition of fixed assets of ₹551.10 lakhs by company during Fiscal 2024.

Other Expenses

Other expenses had decreased by 25.46% from ₹989.01 lakhs in Fiscal 2023 to ₹737.17 lakhs in Fiscal 2024. The decrease was primarily due to foreign exchange loss of ₹247.46 lakhs in Fiscal 2023 as compared to foreign exchange gain of 11.04 lakhs in Fiscal 2024.

Tax Expenses

The Company's tax expenses had increased by ₹126.11 lakhs from ₹0.79 lakhs in the Fiscal 2023 to ₹126.90 lakhs in Fiscal 2024. This was primarily due to increase in deferred tax expenses during the year which got increased from ₹0.79 Lakhs in the Fiscal 2023 to ₹98.37 lakhs in the Fiscal 2024.

Nov 23 to Mar 24	8,74,858.01	6,34,355.78	72.51%	1,97,012.87	22.52%

The increase in PAT margin is due to the Company implemented a significant technology upgradation in November, 2023 in its shelling section, which is considered the most critical stage of cashew processing. The new shelling machines, sourced from Vietnam, represent the latest and most advanced technology available globally for raw cashew nut (RCN) processing. The upgradation has brought about meaningful improvements in yield, quality, and efficiency.

Considering the time required for making necessary changes to the systems and to ensure complete and smooth transition to the UPI payment mechanism, the UPI Circulars have introduced the UPI Mechanism in three phases in the following manner:

Phase I: This phase was applicable from January 1, 2019 until March 31, 2019 or floating of five main board public issues, whichever was later. Subsequently, the timeline for implementation of Phase I was extended till June 30, 2019. Under this phase, an II had the option to submit the ASBA Form with any of the Designated Intermediary and use his/ her UPI ID for the purpose of blocking of funds. The time duration from public offer closure to listing continued to be six Working Days. For further details, refer to the General Information Document available on the website of the Stock Exchange and the BRLM.

Phase II: This phase has become applicable from July 1, 2019. and was to initially continue for a period of three months or floating of five main board public issues, whichever is later. SEBI vide its circular no. SEBI/HO/CFD/DCR2/CIR/P/2019/133 dated November 8, 2019 has decided to extend the timeline for implementation of UPI Phase II until March 31, 2020. Under this phase, submission of the ASBA Form by IIs through Designated Intermediaries (other than SCSBs) to SCSBs for blocking of funds has been discontinued and replaced by the UPI Mechanism. However, the time duration from public offer closure to listing continues to be six Working Days during this phase.

The Offer shall be undertaken pursuant to the processes and procedures as notified in the T+3 Notification as applicable, subject to any circulars, clarification or notification issued by SEBI from time to time, including any circular, clarification or notification which may be issued by SEBI.

The Issue is being made under Phase III of the UPI (on a mandatory basis):

Pursuant to the UPI Circulars, SEBI has set out specific requirements for redressal of investor grievances for applications that have been made through the UPI Mechanism. The requirements of the UPI Circulars include, appointment of a nodal officer by the SCSB and submission of their details to SEBI, the requirement for SCSBs to send SMS alerts for the blocking and unblocking of UPI mandates, the requirement for the Registrar to submit details of cancelled, withdrawn or deleted applications, and the requirement for the bank accounts of unsuccessful Bidders to be unblocked no later than one day from the date on which the Basis of Allotment is finalised. RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated through the Industrial Policy, 1991 of the Government of India and FEMA. While the Industrial Policy, 1991 prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Foreign investment is permitted (except in the prohibited sectors) in Indian companies, either through the automatic route or the approval route, depending upon the sector in which foreign investment is sought to be made. The responsibility of granting approval for foreign investment under the Consolidated FDI Policy (defined herein below) and FEMA has been entrusted to the concerned ministries / department.

The Government of India has from time to time made policy pronouncements on FDI through press notes and press releases. The DPIIT issued the Consolidated FDI Policy Circular dated October 15, 2020, with effect from October 15, 2020 (the “Consolidated FDI Policy”), which consolidates and supersedes all previous press notes, press releases and clarifications on FDI issued by the DPIIT that were in force and effect prior to October 15, 2020. The FDI Policy will be valid until the DPIIT issues an updated circular.

Under the current FDI Policy and pursuant to the PIB Press Release dated February 6, 2024, 100% foreign direct investment is permitted in the food processing sector, which also include cashew processing, under the automatic route, subject to compliance with certain prescribed conditions.

The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the RBI, provided that: (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the foreign direct investment policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI Takeover Regulations; (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the Consolidated FDI policy; and (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by the SEBI/RBI.

As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Issue. For details, see “Issue Procedure” on page 350.

On October 17, 2019, Ministry of Finance, Department of Economic Affairs, had notified the FEMA Rules, which had replaced the Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer and Issue of Security by a Person Resident Outside India) Regulations 2017. Foreign investment in this Issue shall be on the basis of the FEMA Rules. Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the DPIIT and the FEMA Rules, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities, investments under the foreign direct investment route by entities of a country which shares land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country will require prior approval of the Government of India. Further, in the event of transfer of ownership of any existing or future foreign direct investment in an entity in India, directly or indirectly, resulting in the beneficial ownership falling within the aforesaid restriction/ purview, such subsequent change in the beneficial ownership will also require approval of the Government of India. Each Bidder should seek independent legal advice about its ability to participate in the Issue. In the event such prior approval of the Government of India is required, and such approval has been obtained, the Bidder shall intimate our Company and the Registrar in writing about such approval along with a copy thereof within the Issue Period.

For details of the aggregate limit for investments by NRIs and FPIs in our Company, see “Issue Procedure –Bids by Eligible NRIs” and “Issue Procedure –Bids by FPIs” on page 358 and 359, respectively.
